COVERING THE CARDINALS

2000

Game Day

Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. Mail or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001-0888. All credentials are issued to individuals. Credentials are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379-1821)

Credential Delivery

Credentials will be delivered in the most expeditious manner. They are mailed if time allows. Otherwise, they may be claimed at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe, Arizona during normal working hours, or with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the ticket office in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street) on game days. "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Sun Devil Stadium Media Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located at the southwest corner above the television parking pad for press already holding credentials. Media members who must claim credentials at "will call" may enter the stadium in the vicinity of the ticket office located at the south end of Sun Devil Stadium off Fifth Street.

Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for a recognized sports publication or news service. No freelance photographers are accommodated. Only network television and authorized game personnel are admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field. All credentialed grips and messengers must remain on the perimeter of the playing field.

Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting U.S. West Communications (602/630-6314) for lines, and AT&T (1-800/555-8111) for instruments.

Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling-off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials and a locker room pass which is distributed in the press box during the fourth quarter. Head Coach Vince Tobin and selected players will hold their post-game press conferences in an interview room located directly across the hall from the Cardinals' locker room. An interview tent is erected outside the back door of the visiting locker room for the visitors' post-game interviews.

Locker Room Locations

NFL locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Arizona locker room is the first room on the right; the visitors' locker room is at the end of the hallway.

Press Box/Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no suitable path to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media are permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the northwest corner of the field. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after the game participants exit the playing field. Media members are asked not to attempt to interview game participants—players and coaches—as they exit the field.

Parking

Press parking at Sun Devil Stadium is located in two places. Some media members are accommodated with parking immediately southwest of the stadium along the railroad tracks. Other media parking is offered in the A.S.U. parking garage south of the stadium across Fifth Street.

FAX Service

Media requiring FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged for long-distance FAXing.

During The Week

General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve media needs, all members of the print and electronic press are asked to stop in the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility. All photographers must notify the public relations office of their presence prior to gaining access to the practice field. No tripods are allowed.

Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, Cardinal players typically are available to the media in the locker room during their lunch period. There is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside the locker room after the daily workouts and during prearranged appointments made through the public relations department.

Vince Tobin Interviews

Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout. On Mondays following games and Tuesdays, the players' off day, Tobin conducts an interview session in the public relations department. Contact the Cardinals' public relations staff to verify times.

Assistant Coaches/Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations department.

Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via conference call mid-week, usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL PRESIDENT

HOMETOWN: CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

COLLEGE: GEORGETOWN

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's south side and continues today as owner and president.

The 69-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility that the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He also was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill currently is seated on the NFL Broadcasting Committee and co-chairs the NFL Retirement Board Trustees (Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Plans).

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have six grandchildren.

Michael Bidwill, the Cardinals' vice president and general counsel, has assumed a challenging variety of administrative responsibilities since joining the organization in November of 1996.

Bidwill's impact on the Cardinals' organization has been noticed. He has been nominated this year for Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40" celebrating the achievements of 40 of the top young executives in sports, and in October of 1999 when he was named to The (Phoenix) Business Journal's "Valley 100-Plus Influential," the commerce publication's annual listing of prominent and influential business leaders in greater Phoenix.

Bidwill's most visible role is his leadership in the team's pursuit of a new stadium in Maricopa County. He served on Arizona Governor Jane Hull's "Plan B Stadium Advisory Task Force" and continues as the Cardinals' primary liaison with community and elected officials. In that capacity, he interfaces with "AZ WINS," the campaign organization formed to educate the public on the benefits of the Stadium and Tourism Authority initiative Maricopa County voters will judge in the November, 2000 general election.

Its passage not only will develop a new stadium home for the Cardinals, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, but it also will create revenue streams to buoy the Cactus League (Arizona spring training baseball), provide needed funding for community recreation, and double the state's tourism promotion budget through two tourist (bed and rental car) taxes in Maricopa County.

Bidwill also spearheaded the restructuring of the Cardinals' marketing and sales department during the 1999-2000 off-season, beginning with the hiring of Vice President-Marketing and Sales Ron Minegar and culminating with sweeping, progressive changes. The end result will be much more Cardinal visibility in the market place through new and expended broadcast programming, promotion, and special events.

Bidwill continues as the Cardinals' chief legal officer, a role he has served since 1996.

From 1990-96, he was a federal prosecutor in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and domestic abuse cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

He received seven letters of commendation in his role with the U.S. Department of Justice from various law enforcement agencies, including one from U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno.

Bidwill also is a frequent public speaker. Past engagements include the Youth Against School Violence Conference in Phoenix and the Governor's Conference on Tourism in 2000, lectures at many Department of Justice and Department of Interior seminars during his tenure as a federal prosecutor, and a guest lecture at the Stanford University Law School in 1996.

Bidwill's charity activities include chairing a commission for the Catholic Diocese of Phoenix and serving on the boards of NFL Charities and the West Valley Child Crisis Center as well as serving on numerous dinner committees for various charities.

His civic activities include serving on the boards of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce, East Valley Partnership, Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, and Tempe Sports Authority, in addition to memberships on advisory committees for the Greater Phoenix Black Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council.

Bidwill holds a 1987 bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University and a 1990 law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

While a student in the nation's capital, he also served terms as president and secretary of the university's Sports Law Society.

Bidwill was born December 6, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri. He resides in Tempe, Arizona.

Larry Wilson, one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, has enjoyed a career that spans 41 years as a player and front-office executive.

A 1978 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Wilson received another milestone honor in 1994 when he was named to the NFL's all-time team announced to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary.

A legendary defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960–72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973–76) and director of professional personnel (1977–88). He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

His current duties include responsibility for Cardinal Charities, special events, team travel, and training camp at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Arizona.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona, a position he held through the 1993 season. During that span, Wilson hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active part in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, took a prominent role in the team's draft decision making, and implemented an aggressive approach to free agency.

As a player, Wilson reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games—all as a Cardinal—from 1960–72. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book.

He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), and single-game interception return yardage (115).

Wilson's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on December 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history, and his 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia remains third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

He also held or shared the franchise record for career interception returns for touchdowns (five) until 1997 when current Cardinal cornerback Aeneas Williams tallied his sixth.

In 1966, Wilson enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on October 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on December 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in Card annals.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was a running back at the University of Utah.

Wilson was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1960 NFL Draft. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

BOB FERGUSON GENERAL MANAGER

HOMETOWN: FEDERAL WAY, WASH.

COLLEGE: WASHINGTON

CARDINAL SEASON: 5TH

NFL SEASON: 27TH

2000

Bob Ferguson became the Cardinals' senior football official on May 1, 1999 when President Bill Bidwill promoted him to the newly-created position of general manager.

Later in 1999, he was appointed to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee that oversees competitive aspects of the game on the field and recommends rules and policy changes to the clubs. He currently serves on the committee with Minnesota Vikings Head Coach Dennis Green (co-chairman), Tampa Bay Buccaneers General Manager Rich McKay (co-chairman), Cincinnati Bengals President Mike Brown, Tennessee Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher, Dallas Cowboys Owner and General Manager Jerry Jones, and Indianapolis Colts President Bill Polian.

Ferguson's Cardinal responsibilities include authority over football philosophy, player personnel, the coaching staff, pro and college scouting, the annual NFL Draft, and free agency.

Ferguson also is consulted by Bidwill on salary cap and player contract matters, along with Assistant to the President Rod Graves, who remains the team's primary contract negotiator. Vice President Bill Bidwill, Jr., who continues providing strategic financial planning on salary cap issues, and Player Personnel Administrator Jay Nienkark, who is the club's daily salary-cap administrator and support negotiator.

Ferguson, 49, is a 26-year veteran of various NFL positions. He has formed his philosophies from an impressive list of NFL head coaches with whom he has worked—Chuck Knox, Tom Landry, Marv Levy, Jack Patera, Wade Phillips, Mike Shanahan, and Bill Walsh.

Ferguson joined the Cardinals in February of 1996 following 11 seasons with two rising franchises, the Buffalo Bills and Denver Broncos.

He served as the Broncos' director of player personnel for three seasons prior to joining the Cardinals following eight seasons with the Bills in various personnel positions, including assistant general manager/director of pro personnel in 1989.

The Federal Way, Washington native began his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks as director of sales and special events from 1975–79 before moving into a scouting combine serving Buffalo, Dallas, San Francisco, and Seattle as an area scout from 1981–83.

He joined the Cowboys from 1984–85 to handle performance testing before moving to Buffalo.

Ferguson lettered three times at linebacker at the University of Washington, garnering second team all-Pac-8 Conference accolades as a junior and senior.

He earned a 1973 bachelor's degree in radio/television communications from the Seattle school before free-agent tryouts with the San Diego Chargers (1973), Los Angeles Rams (1974), and Portland Storm of the World Football League (1974).

Ferguson and his wife, Colleen, have three daughters—Vanessa, Nathalie, and Allison. They reside in Gilbert, Arizona.

Rod Graves begins his fourth season with the Cardinals as assistant to the president after 13 years in various personnel capacities with the Chicago Bears.

Graves joined the Cards in June of 1997 and was appointed to assume responsibility for the administration of the team's scouting department in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Graves, 41, also serves as the team's primary contract negotiator in addition to overseeing college and professional scouting efforts, assisting salary-cap management, and consulting on other business aspects of the football operation.

A native of Houston, Texas, Graves began his career in professional football personnel work in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. It was then he first crossed paths with Cardinals' Head Coach Vince Tobin, the Stars' defensive coordinator. In 1983, Graves was promoted to assistant director of player personnel.

He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993, then director of player personnel in 1994.

During his tenure with the Bears, he worked for Bill Tobin, the team's director of player personnel and older brother of Cards' Head Coach Vince Tobin, along with three current Arizona assistant coaches—defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis, wide receivers coach Vic Rapp and running backs coach Johnny Roland.

Graves, who holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Texas Tech, is the son of the late Jackie Graves, the former assistant director of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod Graves is a past member of the NFL College Advisory Committee and the NFL World League Committee.

He resides in Phoenix. 🏠

Arizona Cardinals' "capologist" Jay Nienkark begins his ninth season with the team and his fourth in his current capacity as player personnel administrator after a five-year tenure as a staff assistant in the football personnel department.

Nienkark is one of six members of the NFL Management Council's Technology Group, which has developed new systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management, and information management.

He also serves as the Cards' training camp coordinator.

The 36-year-old Nienkark utilizes his management, accounting, and computer background to serve as a foundation for negotiating player contracts, salary cap projections, implementing analysis methods for salary and player information for the Cardinals and around the NFL, analyzing league rookie pool and free agency trends, and compliance with the NFL collective bargaining agreement and player personnel rules.

Nienkark also assisted in the design and implementation of the Cardinals' computerized professional scouting system.

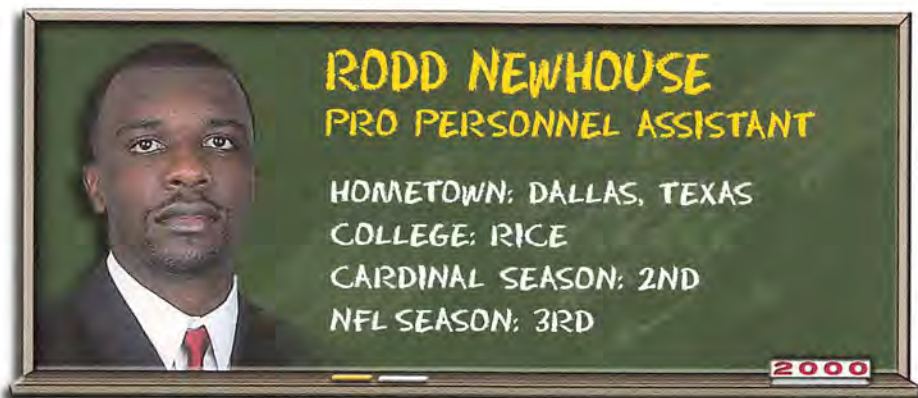

Born and raised in Lost Nation, Iowa, population 500, Nienkark was forced to concentrate on baseball and basketball at Lost Nation H.S., a school too small to field a football team.

Nienkark later served in the U.S. Air Force from 1986-90. Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1992, Nienkark held positions with Lamson (Ariz.) Junior College, Valley National Bank, and the Circle K Corporation.

Nienkark holds an associate's degree in applied science in microcomputer operations from Lamson.

He lives in Chandler, Arizona with his wife, Julie. 🐾

Rodd Newhouse begins his second season with the Cardinals as the club's pro personnel assistant, responsible for overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, providing input into the club's personnel evaluation and decision-making process, handling matters involving the waiver procedure and free agent signings, and advance scouting of future opponents.

Following his collegiate football career as a running back at Rice University where he earned degrees in economics, managerial studies, and sports management, Newhouse signed briefly as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998.

In the spring and fall of 1998, he worked for the Dallas Cowboys as an assistant to his father, Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' player programs director, who played for Dallas from 1972-83 and was a member of three Super Bowl teams. The younger Newhouse facilitated various player community programs and monitored career development opportunities.

In the fall of 1998, Newhouse worked with the National Football League Management Council, NFL Properties (the league's marketing arm), and NFL Security.

As a member of the Management Council staff, Newhouse worked in the area of player programs and labor relations where he helped develop programs in continuing education and financial and career advancement for NFL players, spouses, and their families. He also helped monitor the league's salary cap reconciliation through analysis of contract negotiations and legalities as it pertained to the collective bargaining agreement, and was responsible for preparation of the data base for players obtained by the new Cleveland Browns' franchise via the expansion draft.

As a collegian at Rice, Newhouse gained 484 yards rushing and scored two touchdowns on 95 carries in 44 games (14 starts). He also caught five passes for 135 yards, including a career-long 62-yarder against Ohio State as a junior, and returned seven kickoffs for 114 yards.

Born May 21, 1975 in Dallas, Newhouse, who was selected to the under-16 U.S. National regional soccer team as a teenager, attended Lake Highlands High School in Dallas.

JIM STANLEY PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

HOMETOWN: LYNCH, KENTUCKY
COLLEGE: TEXAS A&M
CARDINAL SEASON: 6TH
NFL SEASON: 18TH

Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (O.S.U.), begins his fifth season in scouting after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983-84, he compiled a 22-14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12-6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He spent 1979 and '80 as defensive line coach for the New York Giants and Atlanta Falcons, respectively.

As the six-year (1973-78) head coach at O.S.U., the Cowboys posted a 35-33-2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9-3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at O.S.U.

Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971-72), the U.S. Naval Academy (1969-70), and O.S.U. (1963-68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959-60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew.

Jerry Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, was promoted to the newly-created position of national scouting coordinator in May, 1999.

In his current capacity, Hardaway has expanded his scouting expertise to the entire nation, cross-checking evaluations of the rest of the Cardinals' scouting staff and offering additional study of top collegiate players.

Hardaway, 48, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 12th season with the Cardinals.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984-86) where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978-83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special-teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49-14-4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975-77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tennessee in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, California prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (13), and a daughter, Jheri (11). They reside in Cary, N.C.

BO BOLINGER SENIOR SCOUT

HOMETOWN: MUSKOGEE, OKLAHOMA

COLLEGE: OKLAHOMA

CARDINAL SEASON: 29TH

NFL SEASON: 29TH

2000

Long-time Cardinal scout Bo Bolinger, a 28-year member of the Cardinals' organization and the team's director of college scouting from 1994-97, assumed the title of senior scout in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Bolinger, a former all-America guard at Oklahoma, evaluates college talent nationally.

Bolinger primarily had been responsible for collegiate scouting in the West Coast during his early days on the Cards' staff.

Before joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League (CFL).

A 1956 draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals, Bolinger played nine games of the 1956 season for the CFL Edmonton Eskimos before returning to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, as a graduate assistant.

After spending the 1957 season as head coach at Miami (Okla.) High School, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958-60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL.

As a collegian at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned consensus all-America recognition in 1955 when he captained the Sooners' national championship team that led the nation in rushing and total offense. Bolinger finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1955. He also was named all-Big Eight Conference twice.

Bolinger holds a bachelor's degree in history from Oklahoma.

The 67-year-old Bolinger, a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tempe, Arizona. They have three grown daughters—Sharon, Susan, and Sandra—and four grandchildren. 🐾

Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his sixth season as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carmody, 61, completed a three-year (1992–94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994, his second stint at Ole Miss.

Before rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961–62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964–66.

He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967–73, and the defensive line at Ole Miss from 1974–77 before the Rebels promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975–77). He later spent 1978–80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37–29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6–3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989–90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris.

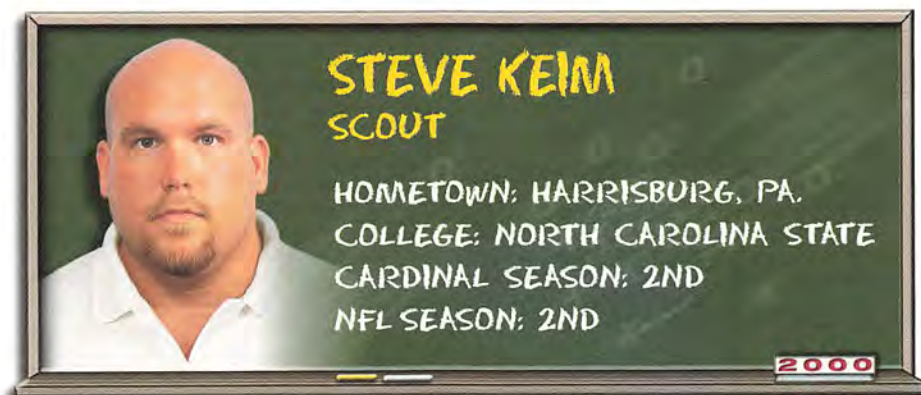

Bill Dekraker, 28, joins the Cardinals scouting staff this season as Northeast area scout after three seasons as a scouting assistant for the Carolina Panthers.

While with Carolina, Dekraker worked on draft preparation, attended workouts, and updated a new pro personnel computer program for the Panthers.

Prior to his time in Carolina, Dekraker spent one and one-half years at Indiana University as a recruiting assistant, where he took part in organizing recruiting visits, and worked with professional scouts visiting the school.

Dekraker also served as a scouting intern for the Washington Redskins from December 1995-January, 1997. His responsibilities in Washington included reviewing videos of draft prospects, charting plays during games, assisting with film breakdown, and coordinating training camp.

Before his time with the Redskins, Dekraker, a 1995 graduate of Old Dominion with a bachelor's degree in sports management, served in a variety of capacities with the Hampton Roads Sharks minor league football team and the National Hockey League's Washington Capitals.

Steve Keim enters his second season with the Cardinals after joining the club in May, 1999 as a regional scout.

His area of responsibility is the Eastern region previously handled by Jerry Hardaway, who was named the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator in May, 1999.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, Pennsylvania and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Bob Mazie, with 36 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his seventh year as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh, Pa. from 1958–63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1965–66 as an assistant coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State, the first of two stints at the Weatherford, Oklahoma school, prior to a five-year tour (1967–71) at Southern Illinois (S.I.U.) as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter was the Cards' offensive line coach from 1996–97.

Mazie left S.I.U. to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6–4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972–75, first as an assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season mark of 1,992 passing yards.

Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1978, compiling a 38–38–2 (.500) composite slate over eight seasons that would have read 44–32–2 (.577), but a player ruled ineligible at the end of the 1981 season dropped that year's 9–2 record to 3–8. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense five times (1978–79, '82–83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference and all-state at tight and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, playing for the U.S. Army service team, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961–62, and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters and a son. They have 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO HEAD TRAINER

HOMETOWN: SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

COLLEGE: WYOMING

CARDINAL SEASON: 34TH

NFL SEASON: 34TH

2000

John Omohundro, who begins his 34th season with the Cardinals and his 30th campaign as the team's head trainer, now boasts the distinction of ranking as the NFL's senior trainer.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, enjoyed a memorable 1993 season when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Gene Freese, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, and performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961-62. He spent 1962-65 in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

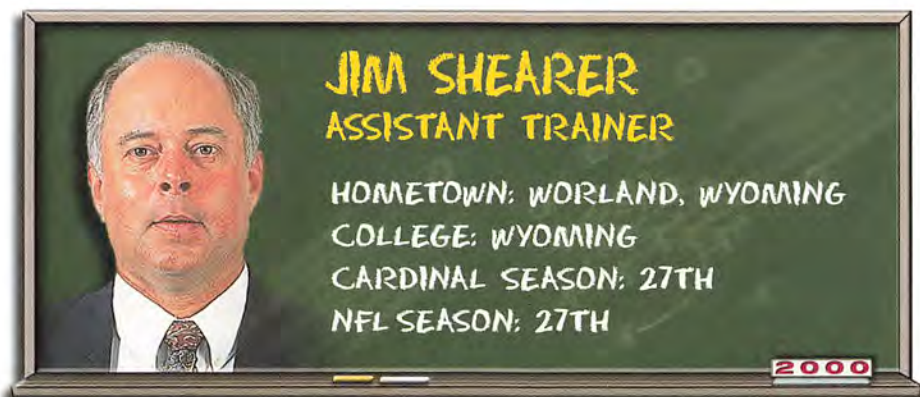

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967-70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976-82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former chairman of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

Omohundro, 57, wife Martha, sons John and Jim, and daughter Neely, reside in Tempe, Arizona. 🍷

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 27th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. They reside in Tempe, Arizona. 🍷

Jeff Herndon enters his 15th season on the Cardinals' training staff.

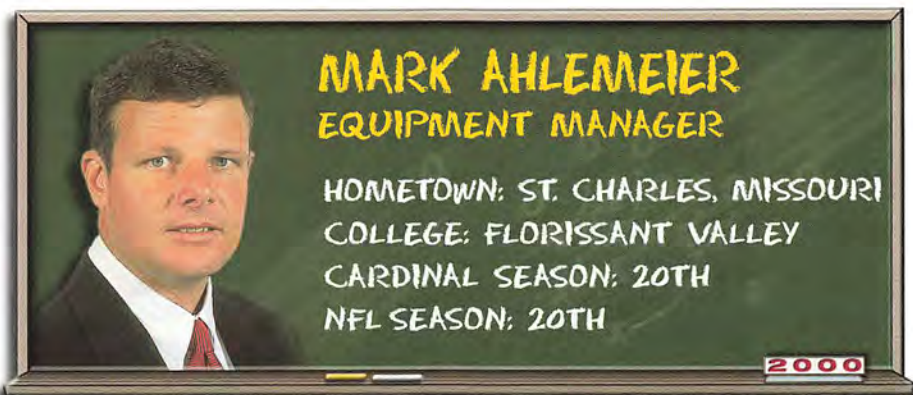

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 39-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985-86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elisabeth Marie (7). 🍷

Mark Ahlemeier enters his 14th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding 21-year equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987. He had served as Simmons' assistant for six years.

Ahlemeier was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Patti, have three children—daughters Mandy (13) and Molly (4), and son Mark (9). They live in Tempe, Arizona. 🍷

Steve Christensen enters his 13th year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 41-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

The father of one daughter, Kelsey (8), Christensen resides in Chandler, Arizona. 🍷

BENNY GREENBERG VIDEO DIRECTOR

HOMETOWN: ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI
COLLEGE: WASHINGTON (MO.)
CARDINAL SEASON: 35TH
NFL SEASON: 35TH

2000

The 2000 season marks Benny Greenberg's 35th year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 74, owned and operated photography stores until the team's move to Arizona in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St.

Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work for the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons, Mark and Barry, and four grandchildren.

COACHES

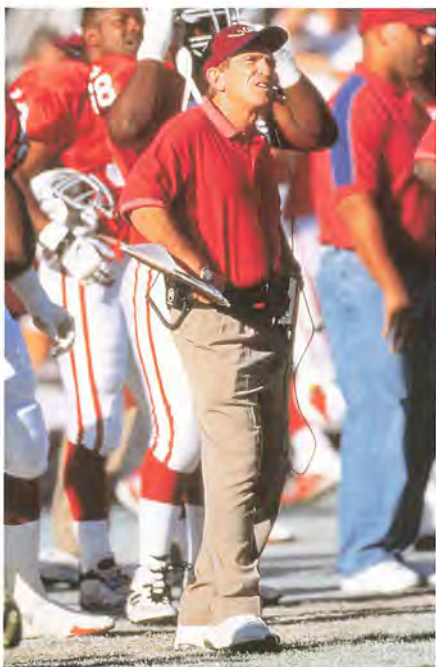

Small-town roots. Big-time success. That's Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Vince Tobin.

A product of the small northwest Missouri farming community of Burlington Junction—population 634—Tobin was named the Cardinals' 35th head coach on February 7, 1996.

He arrived in the Grand Canyon State for his first head-coaching position in 1996 armed with respect around the National Football League after coordinating two of the league's finest defenses at Indianapolis and Chicago.

His dossier also included Midwestern bread-basket values—humility, dignity, family, character, dedication, work ethic, and religion.

Revival

It took Tobin's steady hand just three seasons to snap the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years when his 1998 Cardinals made the franchise's first postseason appearance since 1982 (its first in a non-strike season since 1975), posted its first postseason victory since 1947, a head-turning 20–7 wild-card triumph at Dallas, and registered the team's first winning season since 1984 with its first 10-victory campaign since 1976.

The season perhaps will best be remembered for its harrowing endings. Seven of the Cards' nine regular-season victories were achieved by three points or less, an NFL record. Four of the seven successes came on game-ending field goals by two different kickers.

Tobin handled the success and energized the community with the same character and grace he displayed during his first two rebuilding seasons, and again in 1999, when Arizona fell to 6–10 following its playoff season.

He revived the 4–12 Cardinal squad he inherited in 1996, rallying it from the growing pains of an 0–3 start to a 7–9 record with improvement and promise in evidence in every direction. His resolve and course were sorely tested in 1997 when his second Cardinal squad lost six of nine games decided in the final minute or overtime en route to an exciting but exasperating 4–12 record.

Tobin and Washington's Norv Turner are the only NFC Eastern Division head coaches to author postseason victories.

Small-Town Roots

Tobin learned life lessons as only a farm can teach. He milked cows before dawn. He baled hay. He tended cattle. He slept in an unheated bedroom. He and his six brothers and sisters never missed church. Chores preceded sports and other activities in the family pecking order.

Burlington Junction's streets did not have names. It didn't have high school football, either, so Tobin and his older brother by two years, Bill, a former front-office executive with the Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts, commuted over 30 miles round trip to attend Maryville High School—the Spoofhounds—in order to participate in the sport that would shape their lives as adults.

Mizzou

The Tobin brothers both eventually earned scholarships to the University of Missouri—Bill as a star running back, Vince as an undersized, over-achieving defensive back.

Vince Tobin arrived in Columbia, Missouri in 1961 on a partial football scholarship. After Mizzou varsity Head Coach Dan Devine watched Tobin tackle Kansas Jayhawk running back and future NFL Hall of Famer Gale Sayers three times in the open field during a freshmen game. Tobin had earned a full scholarship.

He also learned how to win. During his four seasons in the Missouri program, the Tigers posted a 28–9–4 composite record. As a starter in 1963–64, Tobin helped Mizzou post back-to-back 7–3 and 6–3–1 campaigns while earning a bachelor's degree in education.

After contemplating the priesthood, Tobin opted for a coaching career, beginning his 29-year journey to the Cardinals at his alma mater in 1965 as a graduate assistant, a position that also eventually led to a master's degree in guidance and counseling. He remained at Missouri as a defensive assistant through the 1976 season, serving as defensive coordinator the final six years.

Coaching stops in the Canadian Football League (British Columbia Lions, 1977-82), the U.S. Football League (Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, 1983-85), and the National Football League (Chicago Bears, 1986-92; Indianapolis Colts, 1994-95) followed. All told, he served as a defensive coordinator for 18 professional seasons. His teams produced non-losing records in 16 of those 18 campaigns.

Tobin's C.F.L. defenses ranked second overall during his six-year tenure. His USFL schemes helped the Stars rank first defensively in 1983-84 and second in '85 while allowing the fewest points all three seasons. En route, the Stars, coached by Jim Mora, future head coach of the New Orleans Saints and Indianapolis Colts, reached the USFL championship game each season, winning the title the final two times.

Da Bears

As Chicago's defensive coordinator, Tobin tutored a Bears' defense that set a still-standing NFL record for fewest points in a 16-game season (187, 1986). His '86 Chicago unit topped the league by allowing just 258 yards total offense per contest. The 1987 Bears ranked first in rushing defense (94.2 yards per game) while holding six opponents under 10 points. The 1988 Bears surrendered the league's fewest points (215) and sported the best rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Tobin also earned victories over Tampa Bay and Washington in '88 as Chicago's interim head coach for the ailing Mike Ditka.

The Colts

Tobin worked his magic again in Indianapolis in 1994-95, overseeing a Colt defense that was a principal cog in an Indianapolis resurgence. The Colts finished 9-7 during the 1995 regular season before defeating San Diego (35-20) and Kansas City (10-7) in the first two rounds of postseason play. They narrowly missed a trip to Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium in a 20-16 loss to Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game.

Tobin earned credit for rebuilding the Colts' defense. The 1993 unit he inherited ranked last (28th) in overall defense. Tobin's first Indianapolis group improved to 20th in 1994 and tied for seventh with Carolina in 1995 at 314.2 yards per game.

In the four seasons prior to Tobin's arrival, the Colts' defense finished 24th or lower against the run. In 1994, Tobin's first Indianapolis defense ranked 12th against the rush, then improved further to sixth in 1995 at 91.1 yards per game, the second-lowest figure in team history. It also was just the third time in Colt history the opposition averaged less than 100 yards per game on the ground.

In scoring defense, the Colts improved to 14th (tie) and fifth (19.8), respectively, in 1994 and '95 after ranking 27th in 1993.

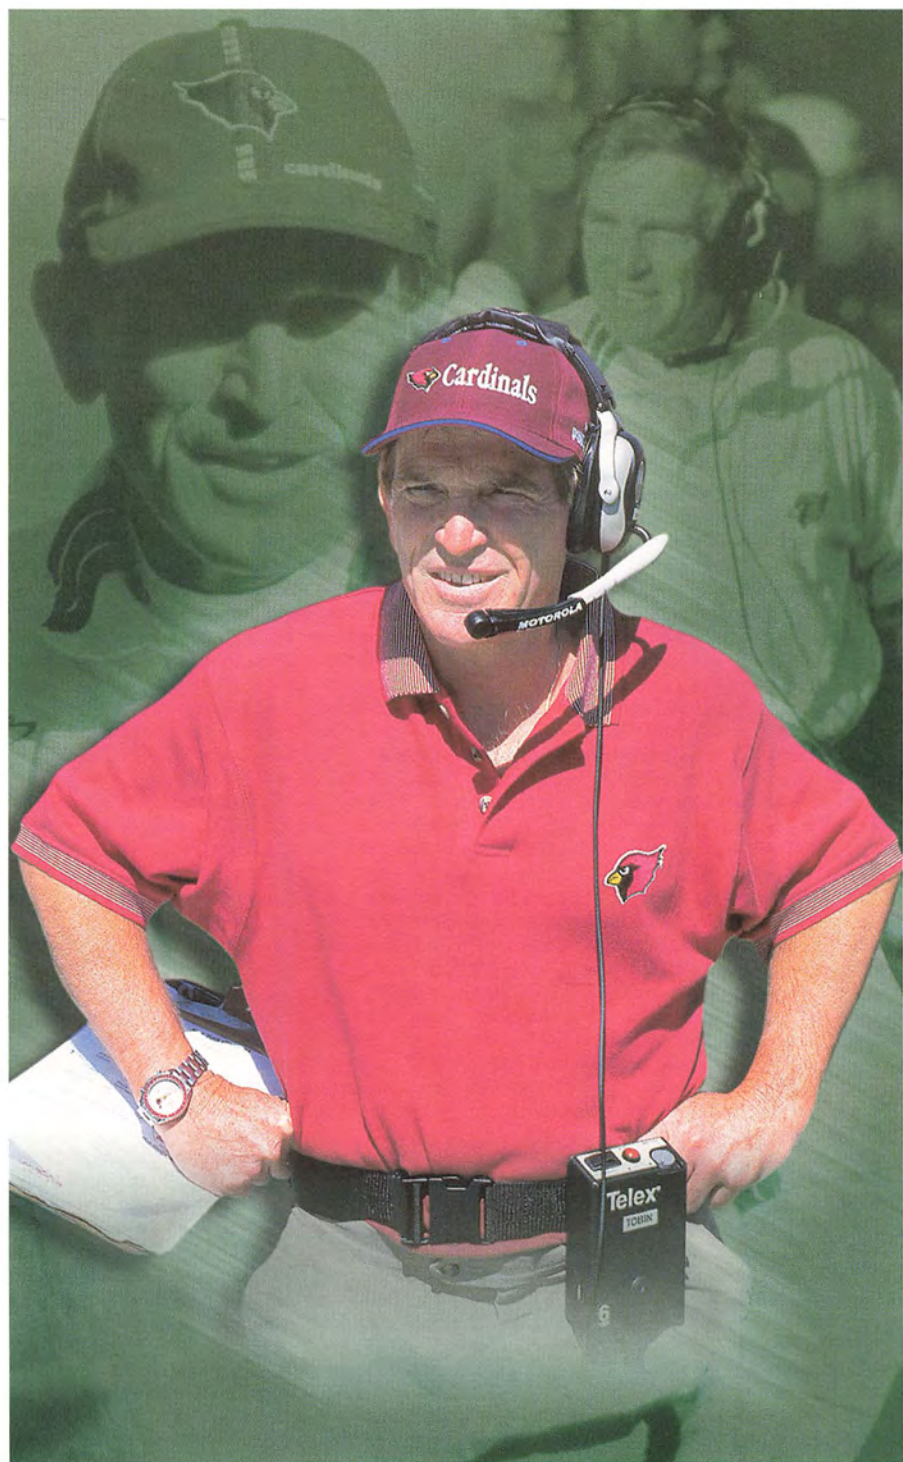

Over his last two seasons in Indianapolis, Tobin's defensive unit did not allow an individual to rush for 100 yards in 24 consecutive games (final 13 games of 1994, first 11 games of 1995).

His 1994 Colt defense also boasted the lowest red-zone touchdown percentage (40) in the NFL and did not allow a touchdown at home in the final three games of the season.

Personal

Born September 29, 1943, Tobin is married to the former Kathy Kautzman of Sidney, Montana. The Tobins' two children are both undergraduate students at the University of Colorado. Son Ryan (Aug. 4, 1979) is a junior, daughter Shannon (Dec. 28, 1981) is a freshman.

DAVE MC GINNIS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

HOMETOWN: SNYDER, TEXAS
COLLEGE: TEXAS CHRISTIAN
CARDINAL SEASON: 5TH
NFL SEASON: 15TH

2000

Dave McGinnis, a 27-year coaching veteran, begins his fifth year as the Cardinals' defensive coordinator in his third stint on a Vince Tobin coaching staff.

McGinnis spent 10 seasons (1986-95) as linebackers coach with the Chicago Bears, a span that included nine playoff games. In his decade with the Bears, the Chicago defense ranked among the top six teams in fewest yards allowed seven times as McGinnis was part of a defensive staff that led the NFL in fewest points allowed in 1986 (NFL-record low of 187) and 1988 and ranked first or second in total defense from 1986-88.

In addition, McGinnis coached Pro Bowl players at all three linebacker positions—outside linebackers Otis Wilson and Wilber Marshall, and middle linebacker Mike Singletary, a 1998 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee who made the Pro Bowl every season under McGinnis' tutelage.

The two players—Dante Jones and Joe Cain—who replaced Singletary following his retirement led the Bears in tackles the next three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, McGinnis spent 13 years coaching at the major-college level. His first assignment was as freshmen coach at his alma mater, Texas Christian University (T.C.U.), in 1973-74. In 1975, he moved to Missouri to coach the linebackers and secondary for Tobin, the Tigers' defensive coordinator. After spending the 1978-81 seasons at Indiana State as secondary coach, McGinnis returned to T.C.U. in 1982 for one season as defensive backfield coach before joining Kansas State as defensive ends and linebackers coach from 1983-85.

McGinnis was a three-time letterman (1970-72) and two-year starter (1971-72) at defensive back at T.C.U. where he earned academic all-Southwest Conference honors twice (1971-72). His five interceptions as a junior tied for the conference lead.

Attrition in the trenches hampered Arizona's overall 1999 defense, yet the group ranked ninth in the NFL against the pass, allowing only 197.3 air yards per game. His latest linebacking protegee, Ronald McKinnon, became the first 200-tackle Cardinal in history.

However, his 1998 Cardinal defense helped lead the Cardinals into postseason play with 39 takeaways, trailing only NFC champion Atlanta (44) and Seattle (42) and nearly doubling Arizona's total from the previous season. Fielding 11 different starting lineups in 16 regular-season games, the unit finished with three rookie or first-year starters (end Andre Wadsworth, tackle Rashod Swinger, and cornerback Corey Chavous) and only four 16-game starters (safety Tommy Bennett, cornerback Aeneas Williams, linebacker Jamir Miller, and end Simeon Rice).

In 1997, the Cards' third-down success on defense was noteworthy. Arizona's defenders held opponents to just 76 third-down conversions, second in the NFC to Tampa Bay (75), and allowed only one conversion in 27 third-and-long (11 or more yards) tries.

Consequently, the '97 Cardinal defense forced more punts—94—than all but three other teams (Detroit-'97, Dallas-'95, and Washington-'95), and 36 percent more than 1996 (69 punts).

In addition, Arizona's defense yielded only 4.85 yards per pass on third down, an improvement of over a yard and one-half compared to 1996 (6.46 yards per third-down passing play).

McGinnis' first year (1996) at the Cardinals' defensive controls produced a unit that climbed from 26th overall in 1995 to 21st in 1996, allowed nine fewer touchdowns, and fought its way from last in the NFL against the run (140.6 yards per game) in '95 to 21st (116.4) in '96. In addition, Card opponents gained almost one full yard less per rushing attempt than in 1995 (4.5-3.6) as eight of 16 Arizona opponents failed to crack 100 yards rushing.

McGinnis holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Christian.

Born August 7, 1951 in Independence, Kansas, McGinnis attended Snyder High School in west Texas. He resides in Phoenix with his wife, Kim.

MARC TRESTMAN OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

HOMETOWN: ST. LOUIS PARK, MINN.

COLLEGE: MINNESOTA

CARDINAL SEASON: 3RD

NFL SEASON: 13TH

2000

Marc Trestman begins his third season as the Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator.

Trestman owns a dossier of 12 seasons in the National Football League with Detroit (1997), San Francisco (1995–96), Minnesota (1985–86, '90–91), Cleveland (1988–89), and Tampa Bay (1987) in addition to Arizona (1998–99).

A native of St. Louis Park, Minnesota, Trestman began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at the University of Miami in 1982 while attending law school. During his first season with the Hurricanes, he worked with two redshirt quarterbacks—Bernie Kosar and Vinny Testaverde. The following season he was promoted to quarterbacks coach when the Hurricanes won the national championship.

Trestman began his professional coaching career as the offensive backfield coach on Bud Grant's Minnesota staff in 1985. After two years with the Vikings, he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as quarterbacks coach before moving to Cleveland where he coached quarterbacks in 1988 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989 when the Browns reached the AFC Championship Game against Denver.

Trestman rejoined the Vikings in 1990 for a two-year stint as quarterbacks coach, then left football from 1992–94 to pursue a career in investment banking before joining the 49ers.

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator under San Francisco Head Coach George Seifert (1995–96), the 49ers' offense featured the NFL's highest-rated quarterback in Steve Young and the league's leading receiver in Jerry Rice. In 1995, Trestman guided a 49ers offense that led the NFL in scoring and passing, and ranked second in total offense.

In 1998, his first Cardinal offense scored 325 points and 37 touchdowns, both club bests since 1993. Included were 18 rushing touchdowns, bettering the combined totals of the two previous seasons (eight in 1996, nine in 1997).

As Trestman's new offensive system began to jell over the final eight regular-season games, the '98 Cardinals averaged 25 points and 392.5 yards per outing.

Trestman played quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1974–76 after earning high school all-America honors. After completing his college career at Moorhead (Minn.) State University, he signed as a free agent defensive back with the Minnesota Vikings in 1978 and '79. The Vikings released him during training camp both seasons.

An owner of a bachelor's degree in political science from Minnesota, Trestman also earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Miami. He has been a member of the Florida Bar Association since 1982.

Trestman, his wife Cindy, and their daughters, Sarahanne (8) and Chloe (6), reside in Phoenix. ☛

Jeff Fitzgerald, a six-year NFL assistant in Washington (1998–99) and Tampa Bay (1990–93) with 17 years of coaching experience at the college and pro levels, has been named to the newly-created position of quality control coach.

Fitzgerald, 39, spent the past two seasons with the Washington Redskins as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach and managed the club's defensive game analysis services in addition to duties as a special-teams assistant.

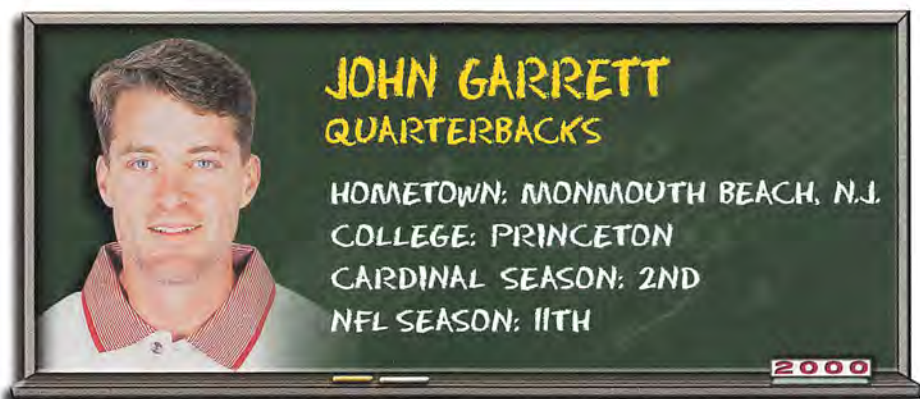

A native of Burbank, California, Fitzgerald initially attended Oregon State University, then transferred to California State-Northridge following a career-ending knee injury.

He entered the coaching arena in 1981 at his alma mater, John Burroughs High School in Burbank, while enrolled at Northridge. Following three seasons at Burbank H.S. (1983–85), he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati (1985–86) and Alabama (1987–90).

In 1990, he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff under Head Coach Ray Perkins where he spent four years working with the defensive backs and special teams and administrated the defensive computer operations and video breakdown and evaluation.

Prior to returning to the pro ranks with the Redskins in 1998, Fitzgerald served five seasons (1993–97) as linebackers coach at San Diego State where he oversaw the football staff's computer and video operations.

Former Cincinnati Bengals' assistant coach John Garrett begins his second season with the Cardinals as the team's quarterbacks coach.

During his first season with the Cardinals, Garrett also was responsible for the Cardinals' offensive quality control.

Garrett a four-year Bengal assistant, served as an offensive staff assistant for Cincinnati Head Coach Bruce Coslet and offensive coordinator Ken Anderson from 1997-98. Among his responsibilities were tutoring the Bengals' wide receivers, a group that included standouts Carl Pickens and Darnay Scott, assisting Anderson with Cincinnati's quarterbacks, and overseeing the team's quality-control operation.

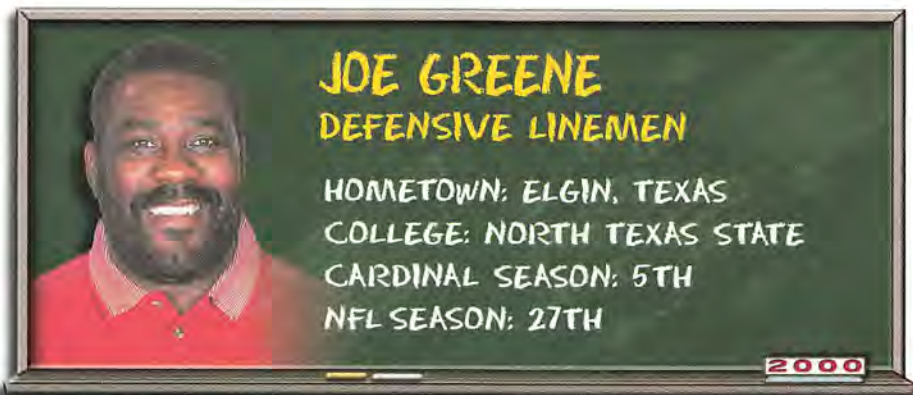

A former Bengals wide receiver with three years experience as a pro personnel assistant at Tampa Bay (1992-94), Garrett comes from a football background. His father, Jim, played pro football and coached in the NFL from 1970-84. Younger brother, Jason, a Dallas Cowboy quarterback from 1993-99, signed with the New York Giants during the off-season. Brother Judd, a former running back for Dallas and in the Canadian Football League, is a new assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins after serving in a similar capacity for the New Orleans Saints.

John Garrett played collegiately at Columbia and Princeton, where he earned his bachelor's degree in history. After playing for the Bengals as a free agent in 1989, he was one of the top receivers in the World League in 1991 for the San Antonio Riders. He also was with the Buffalo Bills in 1991.

Garrett and his wife, Honor, have three children—son John Morgan, and daughters Honor and Olivia.

Charles Edward Greene, known as "Mean Joe" Greene to a generation of football fans and a member of the NFL's all-time team named in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary, is the Arizona Cardinals' fifth-year defensive line coach.

Greene, one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the National Football League, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 to cap his legendary 13-year playing career (1969-81). He was considered the heart of Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense that led the Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. A perennial all-pro tackle for the Steelers who recorded 66 quarterback sacks during his career, Greene was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight consecutively from 1970-77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s."

Greene is a 13-season NFL coaching veteran. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he tutored the Miami Dolphins' defensive line for four seasons (1992-95) following five campaigns (1987-91) as the Pittsburgh Steelers' defensive line coach. During Greene's tenure on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, the Steelers were the AFC's top-rated team in giveaway-takeaway ratio. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five AFC teams in run defense four of Greene's five seasons while also leading the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 1990.

In Miami in 1994, the Dolphins set a club record by allowing only 89.4 yards per game rushing to rank second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL.

In 1999, his only Cardinal lineman to start every game, and Simeon Rice, set a franchise single-season record with 16.5 quarterback sacks, second in the NFL.

During the Cards' playoff run the previous season, 1998, Greene's defensive linemen, despite two rookie or first-year starters most of the season (end Andre Wadsworth and tackle Rashod Swinger), contributed 29 of Arizona's 39 sacks to the cause. The group also was credited with 15 deflected passes.

In 1997, unsung defensive tackle Mark Smith, a seventh-round draft choice from Auburn, led NFL rookie interior linemen with six quarterback sacks. Tackle Bernard Wilson's 66-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. the Eagles on November 2 was the longest six-point pickoff return by a defensive lineman in Cardinal history. Tackle Eric Swann was dominant with a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, or deflected pass in 12 of his 13 appearances.

Swann and Rice earned numerous postseason accolades in 1996 as Arizona improved from 26th to 21st in total defense from 1995, and from last to 21st against the run. Swann earned his second Pro Bowl berth and assorted all-star honors. Rice was the NFL's runaway defensive rookie-of-the-year, tied a then league rookie record for quarterback sacks with 12.5 (Leslie O'Neil, San Diego, 1985), and was voted a Pro Bowl alternate.

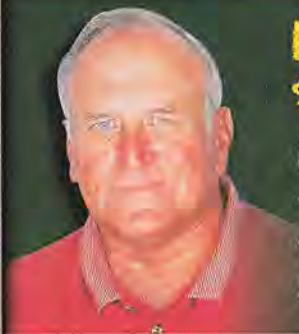

In addition to his numerous awards for accomplishments on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca-Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. The spot has been named the seventh-best television commercial of all time by TV Guide and the most memorable sports commercial by the American Association of Advertising Agencies.

Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area before rejoining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State (now the University of North Texas) in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft. He earned NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year honors the following season.

Greene also has served on his alma mater's board of trustees.

Born in Elgin, Texas, Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three grown children—sons Major and Delon, who both played football at North Texas, and daughter Joquel.

HANK KUHLMANN SPECIAL TEAMS

HOMETOWN: WEBSTER GROVES, MO.
COLLEGE: MISSOURI
CARDINAL SEASON: 8TH
NFL SEASON: 21ST

2000

Hank Kuhlmann coaches his third position in his second tour of duty with the Cardinals in 2000 when he undertakes tutelage of Arizona's special teams.

Kuhlmann owns 35 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels.

A former Cardinal assistant coach and interim head coach, Kuhlmann returned to the team following the 1997 season to coach tight ends after four seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (three as special-teams coach).

Kuhlmann, served as the Cards' running backs coach under Head Coach Gene Stallings from 1986-89, and succeeded Stallings as the club's interim head coach for the final five games of the '89 season.

In 1990, he served as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Missouri, as freshmen coach from 1962-65 before being promoted to running backs coach through the 1971 season.

He received his first professional assignment as special-teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1972-74, then joined Head Coach Dan Devine as running backs and special-teams coach at Notre Dame from 1975-77. The Fighting Irish won the national championship in '77.

After returning to the pro ranks from 1978-82 as running backs and special-teams coach of the Chicago Bears, Kuhlmann joined the Birmingham franchise of the USFL from 1983-85 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator before beginning his first stint with the Cardinals in 1986. Following his departure from the Cardinals after the 1990 season, Kuhlmann served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991.

During his tenure in Indianapolis, Kuhlmann coached the Colts' tight ends in 1994, then spent the next three seasons (1995-97) as special-teams coach. In '96, his efforts resulted in Pro Bowl berths for both Colt kickers—punter Cary Blanchard and place kicker Chris Gardocki.

Blanchard, a Cardinal free-agent signee in 2000, enjoyed his finest professional success as a Colt under Kuhlmann's guidance from 1995-97.

In 1995, Blanchard became the first kicker in Colt history to win a game in his first appearance with the team, a 27-yarder to beat Miami. He finished the 1995 season 19-24 in field-goal accuracy. He also authored one of the most memorable moments in the Colts' improbable three-game postseason run that fell just one game short of the Super Bowl with a 30-yard field goal at Kansas City that provided the difference in Indianapolis' 10-7 victory, sending the Colts to the AFC championship game at Pittsburgh.

In 1996, Blanchard was 36-40 in field-goal attempts en route to the Pro Bowl. His 36 field goals fell one shy of the NFL single-season record of Carolina's John Kasay, who passed Blanchard on the final day of the season, while establishing a single-season Colt record. He also set Colt one-campaign marks with 135 points and 90 percent three-point accuracy.

The following season, Blanchard equalled a Colt record with five field goals against Buffalo.

He also set then-club records of 13 consecutive field goals in both 1996 and '97 broken by Mike Vanderjagt in 1999. Over the '96-97 seasons, Blanchard tallied an NFL-leading 252 points, the best two-season point total in Colts' history.

In 1998, his first season back in the Cards' nest, Kuhlmann's pair of tight ends, Johnny McWilliams and Chris Gedney, combined to catch 48 passes for 555 yards and five touchdowns.

Born in Webster Groves, Missouri, Kuhlmann was a running back at Missouri from 1956-59 before spending four seasons as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization from 1959-62.

DON LAWRENCE TIGHT ENDS

HOMETOWN: CLEVELAND, OHIO

COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME

CARDINAL SEASON: 1ST

2000

Don Lawrence, a 17-year NFL coaching veteran, a member of four consecutive Super Bowl coaching staffs with the Buffalo Bills (1990-93), and the former head coach at the University of Virginia, begins his first season as the Cardinals' tight ends coach.

During eight seasons (1990-97) in Buffalo under Head Coach Marv Levy, the Bills compiled a composite record of 82-46 (.641), won four AFC championships (1990-93), four AFC Eastern Division titles (1990-91, '93, '95), and appeared in 16 postseason games.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Lawrence was a two-way lineman at Notre Dame (1957-59). As a sophomore in 1957, Lawrence and the Fighting Irish snapped Oklahoma's 47-game winning streak with a 7-0 victory at Norman.

Lawrence was a sixth-round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 1959 NFL Draft. He played three seasons (1959-61) for Washington as an offensive guard and defensive tackle.

He began his coaching career at Notre Dame in 1963, then served on the staffs at Kansas State (1964-65), Cincinnati (1966), and Virginia (1967-73).

At Virginia, he spent the first four seasons (1967-70) as the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator before being promoted to head coach, a position he held for three campaigns (1971-73).

After stops at Texas Christian (1974-75) and Missouri (1976), where he served on the staff with current Arizona Head Coach Vince Tobin, Lawrence entered the professional coaching ranks with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League (1978-79) under B.C. Head Coach Vic Rapp, now the Cards' receivers coach.

Lawrence joined the NFL and began his long association with Levy, then the Chiefs' head coach, in 1980, first as special-teams coach (1980), then as defensive line coach (1981-82).

Following stops at Buffalo (1983-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86), Lawrence returned to Kansas City to coach the defensive line for two seasons (1987-88), then traveled north to the CFL again as offensive line coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1989) before rejoining Levy in Buffalo in 1990.

Lawrence, and his wife, Barbara, reside in Phoenix. They have three children—daughters Kay and Betsy, and son Joe.

LARRY MARMIE DEFENSIVE BACKS

HOMETOWN: BARNESVILLE, OHIO
COLLEGE: EASTERN KENTUCKY
CARDINAL SEASON: 5TH
NFL SEASON: 5TH

2000

Former Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie begins his fifth year as the Cardinals' defensive backs coach.

Marmie brought 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Cardinals in 1996 when he accepted his first professional coaching position.

His star pupil, cornerback Aeneas Williams, was recognized with his third, fourth, fifth, and sixth Pro Bowl trips in Marmie's first four seasons with the Cardinals. Williams' two 1997 interception returns for touchdowns led the NFC and raised his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's team mark of five.

Free safety Kwamie Lassiter blossomed in 1998 in his first extended playing time as a starter, equalling the NFL single-game record with four interceptions vs. San Diego in the regular-season finale. Lassiter's eight interceptions for the season led the NFC.

Lassiter scored his first NFL touchdown in 1999, a 78-yard interception return against Philadelphia that ranks as the fifth longest in franchise history.

In 1998 during the Cardinals' return to post-season play, Marmie also tutored a secondary that fielded a rookie starter in every game—free safety Pat Tillman for the first 11, cornerback Corey Chavous for the last seven. Tillman became the Cardinals' first rookie opening-day starter at free safety since the team's arrival in Arizona in 1988.

The Barnesville, Ohio native spent the 1995 season tutoring UCLA's defensive backs following three years (1992–94) as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in his second stint at the Knoxville school.

He was head coach at Arizona State from 1988–91, posting a 22–21–1 composite record, after earlier serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator from 1985–87, a span that included A.S.U.'s 1986 Pac-10 Conference and Rose Bowl championship team. Marmie's '86 Sun Devil defensive unit led the Pac-10 in scoring defense.

The former Eastern Kentucky (E.K.U.) quarterback (1962–65) entered the coaching ranks at Berea (Ky.) High School (1966) following his collegiate playing career before beginning his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (1967–68). A four-year stint as secondary and defensive line coach at Morehead (Ky.) State (1968–71) followed before returning to E.K.U. for five seasons (1972–76) to coach the defensive line and linebackers.

Marmie later served as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1977–78), defensive backfield coach at North Carolina (1979–82), and defensive coordinator in his first stay at Tennessee (1983–84) where he was named the Southeastern Conference assistant coach-of-the-year in 1983.

Marmie, a native of Barnesville, Ohio, holds a bachelor's degree (health, physical education, and recreation) and a master's degree (education) from Eastern Kentucky.

He and his wife, Linda, have three married children—daughters Vicki Ness and Cozy Hays, and son Larry, Jr.—and seven grandchildren.

GLENN PIRES LINEBACKERS

HOMETOWN: NEW BEDFORD, MASS.
COLLEGE: SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE
CARDINAL SEASON: 5TH
NFL SEASON: 5TH

Glenn Pires, a former assistant at Michigan State and Syracuse, enters his fifth season as the Cardinals' linebackers coach.

Pires served as outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State in 1995 following six seasons (1989-94) at Syracuse where he was defensive line coach the first two seasons and outside linebackers coach the last four. He also served the Orangemen as assistant recruiting coordinator for one year (1989).

Pires began his coaching career at Melrose (Mass.) High School (1980-82) before matriculating to Syracuse as a graduate assistant (1983-84). He spent four seasons (1985-88) at Dartmouth coaching linebackers and defensive linemen before returning to Syracuse.

Two of Pires' charges, middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon and new outside linebacker Rob Fredrickson, provided many of the 1999 defensive highlights for the Cardinals. McKinnon became the first Cardinal to crack the 200-tackle plateau with 223 total stops (106 solos). Fredrickson, runner-up to McKinnon with 167.5 total tackles (90.5 solos), set a franchise modern-era single-game record at the New York Jets with 22 total tackles (13 solos). The former Raider and Lion, in his first season with the Cards, also returned an interception 34 yards for a touchdown at Miami, the first interception return for six points by a Cardinal linebacker since 1987 (Peter Noga).

In 1998, his two top pupils, outside linebacker Jamir Miller and McKinnon, ranked one-two on the team in total tackles with 150 and 127, respectively. McKinnon's five interceptions, a first by a Cardinal linebacker since E.J. Junior turned the trick in 1985, tied for the NFL lead among linebackers. Three of McKinnon's five pickoffs occurred against Chicago, a single-game Cardinal linebacker record and an NFL first by a linebacker since Minnesota's Jack Del Rio in 1993.

In 1997, McKinnon, in his first season as a starter, led the Cardinals with 145 combined tackles, logged eight or more tackles in 12 of 16 games, and posted a team-high eight double-digit tackle efforts. Miller ranked second with 139.5 total tackles in 1997.

The Cardinal linebacker corps of Eric Hill, Seth Joyner, and Miller started all 16 games in 1996 as Arizona climbed from 26th in defense in 1995 to 21st, yielded nine fewer touchdowns, and improved from last in '95 to 21st against the run in '96. In addition, the Cards allowed 21.4 fewer yards per game and almost one full yard less per rushing attempt (4.5-3.6). Hill enjoyed a monster season as he nearly cracked the 100-solo tackle (97) and 200-combined tackle (196) barriers.

Pires was a four-time letterman in football (offensive line) and track (hammer) at Springfield (Mass.) College where he earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1980. He also holds a master's degree in education from Syracuse.

Born September 13, 1958 in New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of daughter Jackie (Aug. 8, 1989) and son Michael (July 11, 1991).

Fifth-year Arizona wide receivers coach Vic Rapp's football career has come full circle, continuing in Arizona where it began. He also has reunited with Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin for the third time.

Rapp's 34 years in football that began as an assistant at the University of Arizona in 1965 included seven seasons as a college assistant, 20 as a professional assistant (14 in the NFL), six as a head coach in the Canadian Football League (C.F.L.), one as an advance scout in pro personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, and one as a head coach in Germany.

At Arizona he was an offensive line assistant under Head Coach Jim LaRue before handling the passing game as an assistant at Missouri from 1967-71 when his path first crossed with Tobin. Following five seasons (1972-76) as the offensive coordinator of the C.F.L.'s Edmonton Eskimos, he was named head coach of the British Columbia Lions in 1977, compiling a 55-42-4 record in six seasons that included two conference championships. Two of his staff assistants with the Lions were Tobin and first-year Arizona tight ends coach Don Lawrence.

Rapp earned his first NFL assignment as running backs/tight ends coach with Houston in 1983, followed by similar positions with the L.A. Rams (1984), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985-86), and Detroit Lions (1987-88). After four seasons (1989-92) as wide receivers coach for the Chicago Bears' staff that included defensive coordinator Tobin, Rapp took a two-year hiatus from pro football before he was named a pro personnel scout for the Eagles in 1995.

Rapp spent 1994 in the Division A German Football League as head coach of the Erding Bulls located outside Munich. After assuming the coaching reins of the summer league squad following four early-season losses, he guided the Bulls to the playoffs.

Since joining the Cardinals, Arizona's receivers have prospered. Rob Moore, Frank Sanders, and David Boston have developed into one of the NFL's top trios.

Last fall, Sanders ranked third in the NFL with 30 third-down receptions. His 13 catches at Green Bay in the season finale were his career high and the most by a Cardinal wide receiver since 1962. Moore made his 600th career reception against the New York Jets the same day he cracked the 9,000-yard career receiving yardage milestone. He also caught a 71-yard completion, the Cards' longest pass play in 114 games. The speedy Boston, at age 21, caught 40 passes for 473 yards and two touchdowns in his rookie campaign that included seven starts.

During the Cards' 1998 playoff season, Sanders set a single-season best of 89 NFC-leading receptions for 1,145 yards and 31 third-down grabs that ranked second in the NFL. Moore led Arizona with 11 postseason catches for 132 yards.

In 1997, Moore earned his second Pro Bowl trip with career bests of 97 receptions for 1,584 yards. The former is a single-season record for Cardinal wide receivers and ranked second in the NFC. The latter broke Roy Green's Cardinal single-season mark of 1,555 receiving yards (1984) and led the NFL. Moore logged eight 100-yard games, more than doubling his previous single-season high. His three touchdown grabs December 7 vs. Washington also were a career high and his 68 first-down receptions led the NFL, too.

Sanders authored his first 1,000-yard season with 75 catches for 1,017 yards. He also ranked first in the league with 31 third-down receptions.

As a tandem, Moore and Sanders (172 combined receptions) ranked second in the NFL to Detroit duo Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton in 1984 and became the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season.

In 1996, Moore's 1,016 yards and 17.5-yard average per catch (58 receptions) were his career highs, the latter good for second in the NFC behind Minnesota's Jake Reed (18.3).

Sanders, in his second NFL season, caught 69 passes, most in club history by a second-year player, to rank 11th all-time in team annals.

Rapp's pupils were an integral component of the Cardinal offense that climbed from 24th in 1995 to 12th in 1996 and led the NFL with 214 first downs passing.

Rapp played collegiate football at Southwest Missouri State as a guard and linebacker. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and guidance and counseling from Southwest Missouri State and two master's degrees from Arkansas—one in physical education, the other in guidance and counseling.

Born in Marionville, Missouri, Rapp and his wife, Carol, have three grown daughters—Rhonda, Paula, and Marla.

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key) begins his 11th year as the Cardinals' strength and conditioning coach, a span that covers the tenures of three head coaches—Joe Bugel, Buddy Ryan, and Vince Tobin.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football, involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, mid-section, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki served as the strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89 after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

Rogucki also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

The Rosemont, West Virginia native, born September 27, 1953, was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college football player. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia prior to accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki holds a bachelor's degree in health, physical education, and safety from Glenville State College.

He and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (March 27, 1980), and daughter Katie (Sept. 22, 1984). Charlie is a redshirted freshman quarterback at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa, where his position coach last season was former Cardinal quarterback Timm Rosenbach.

JOHNNY ROLAND RUNNING BACKS

HOMETOWN: CORPUS CHRISTI, TEX.

COLLEGE: MISSOURI

CARDINAL SEASON: 11TH

NFL SEASON: 28TH

2000

Johnny Roland, Head Coach Vince Tobin's former teammate at the University of Missouri and one of the top running backs in Cardinal history, begins the fourth season as the Cards' running backs coach.

A Pro Bowl running back for the Cardinals from 1967-68, Roland is a 21-year NFL coaching veteran.

Roland owns an impressive NFL coaching resume that also includes stops with Green Bay (1974), Philadelphia (1976-78), Chicago (1983-92), the New York Jets (1993-94), and St. Louis Rams (1995-96) with one college stint at Notre Dame (1975).

During 10 seasons in Chicago, his tutelage of running backs Walter Payton and Neal Anderson helped the Bears lead the league in rushing four times, finish second twice, and third once as the Bears were the NFL's leading rushing team in the 1980s, averaging 153.4 yards per game. In a five-year span from 1984-88, the Bears compiled a 62-17 record (.785), made five playoff appearances, and defeated New England 46-10 in Super Bowl XX in New Orleans.

Roland entered the coaching fraternity in 1974 at Green Bay under Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine, for whom he and Tobin played at Missouri. Roland followed his former coach to Notre Dame as an assistant in 1975 before logging three seasons (1976-78) under Dick Vermeil in Philadelphia.

The owner of radio station KIRL (AM 1460) in St. Charles, Mo., Roland spent four years in private business (1979-82) before Chicago Bear Head Coach Mike Ditka summoned him to tutor Payton and Anderson from 1983-92 when the Bears compiled a 10-year record of 103-56, a winning percentage of .648, and won 10 or more games seven times. From 1986-92, Roland and Tobin were assistants on Ditka's staff.

Last season, Roland mentored promising second-year running back Michael Pittman, who opened eyes wide against Detroit in his first NFL start with 133 rushing yards, the Cards' only 100-yard game of the season. Included was a 58-yard touchdown ramble, Arizona's longest run from scrimmage in 52 games. Pittman's 133 yards ranked 10th in the 1990s among NFL players in their first league starts.

Short-yardage back Mario Bates tallied nine rushing touchdowns, a Cardinal high since 1993.

In Arizona's 1998 playoff season, the Cardinals averaged 101.7 rushing yards per game, a team high since 1993. Running backs Adrian Murrell and Bates achieved rushing milestones. Murrell gained 1,042 yards on the ground to become only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons. Bates set a Cardinal postseason single-game record with three rushing touchdowns at Minnesota in the NFC divisional playoff game.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Roland was Tobin's teammate as a two-way (running back and cornerback) starter at Missouri.

Both the NFL Cardinals (fourth round) and the American Football League N.Y. Jets (first round) selected Roland as a "future" choice in the 1965 drafts, respectively.

In 1966, Roland was named the NFL offensive rookie-of-the-year.

After seven years in St. Louis where he was a teammate of Cardinal Vice President and Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson, Roland concluded his playing career with the New York Giants in 1973.

As a pro running back, Roland collected 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 receiving yards, and scored 34 touchdowns.

He remains the Cardinals' no. 4 all-time career rusher with 3,608 yards. He also ranks fourth in career rushing attempts (962), fifth (tie with Elmer Angsman) in career rushing touchdowns (27), and fourth (tie with Johnny Johnson) in most career 100-yard rushing games (six).

Roland's 86-yard punt return for a touchdown at Philadelphia on October 2, 1966 is the third longest in team history. He also scored on a 74-yard punt return at Dallas on November 16, 1970.

He authored three of the 44 runs of 50 yards or more in Cardinal history. The longest, a 70-yarder at Washington on November 5, 1967, rates as the 18th-longest jaunt in franchise history, and the seventh longest without scoring a touchdown. He also registered scoring dashes of 54 (vs. New Orleans, December 3, 1967) and 50 yards (at Washington, October 23, 1966).

Roland remains one of only 22 Cardinals to have rushed for 130 or more yards in a game, and one of only five to record 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a single season (10, 1967).

Roland has two sons, Johnny, Jr. and James, and a daughter, Cynamon.

George Warhop begins his third season as Arizona's offensive line coach following two campaigns as an offensive line assistant with the St. Louis Rams.

A native of Riverside, California, Warhop played football at Mount San Jacinto College (Calif.) and the University of Cincinnati.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, then served on the offensive line staffs at Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt (1987-89), and New Mexico (1990-91).

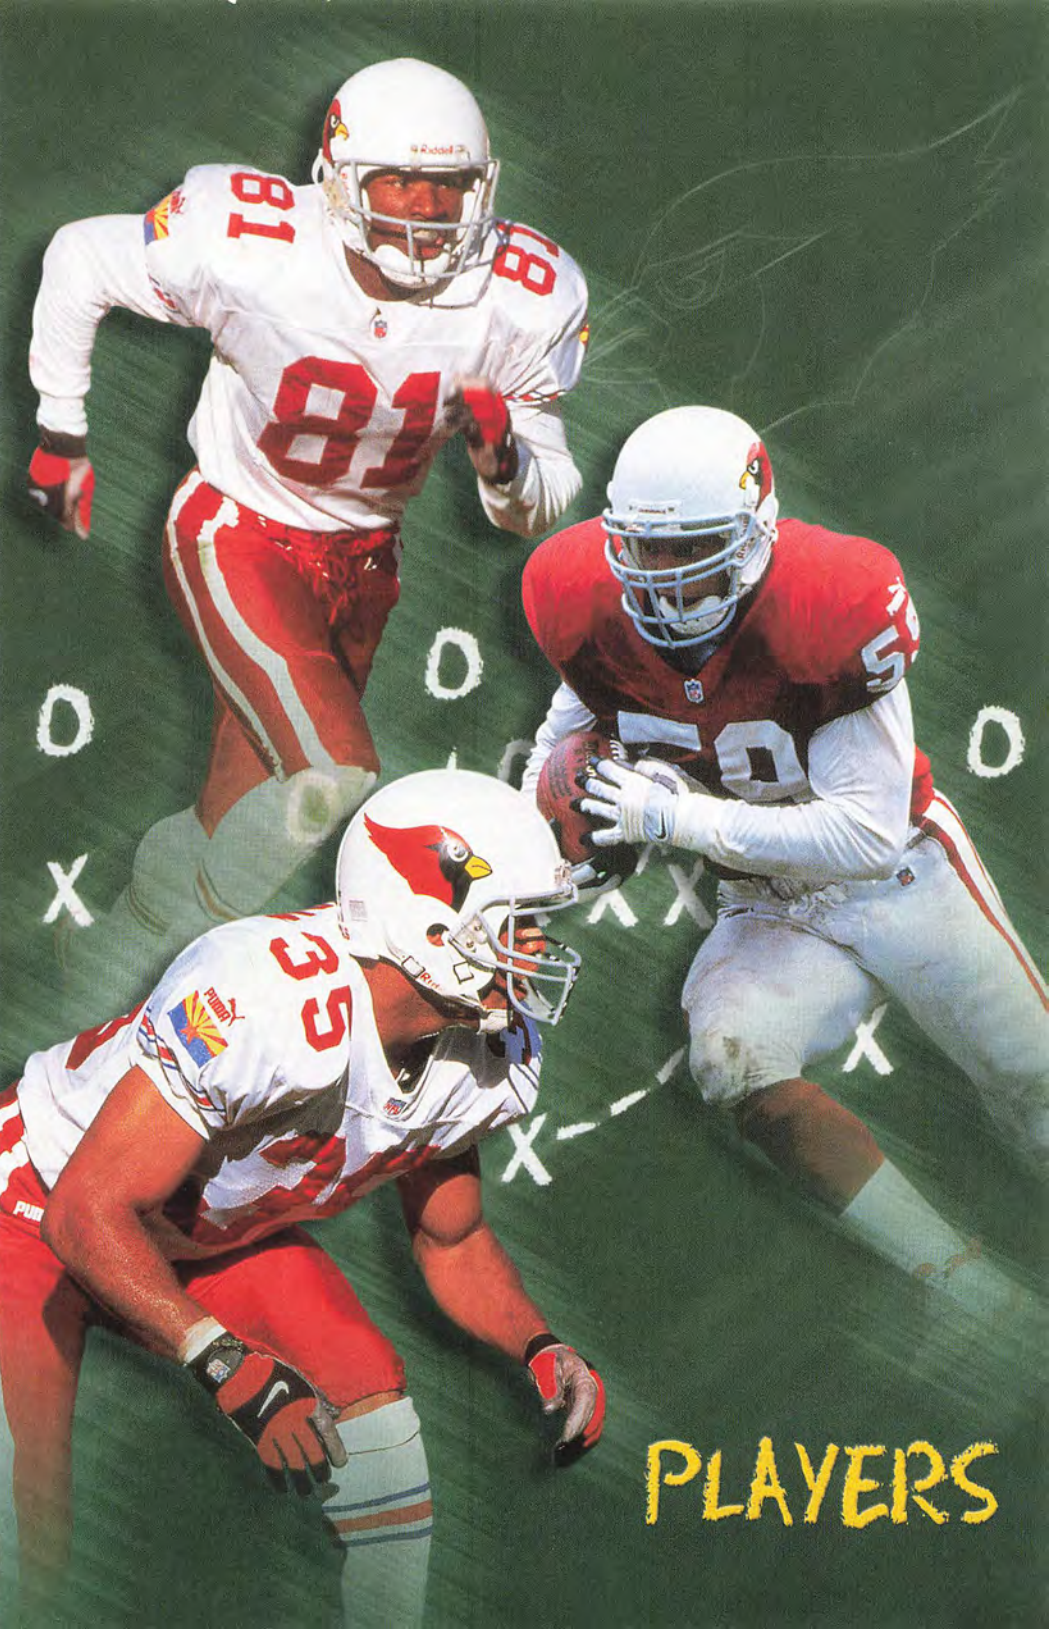

From 1991-92, Warhop was offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World Football League when the team won the World Bowl in his first season. The following season, Warhop, was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist, then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994-95.

In 1999, Warhop began tutoring two promising tackles, first-round draft choice L.J. Shelton, and Anthony Clement. The latter missed all but one game of his 1998 rookie season due to injury. Both quickly became starters.

A year earlier in his first campaign with the Cardinals, his linemen allowed 50 sacks, a 28-sack improvement over the previous season when Arizona allowed a league-high 78 sacks. The Cardinals also held Dallas and Minnesota sackless in two postseason games.

Warhop's first Cardinal line also merited credit for Arizona's 18 rushing touchdowns, exceeding the combined totals of the two previous seasons (eight in 1996, nine in 1997).

Warhop and his wife, Lori, reside in Phoenix with their children, daughter Olivia (Feb. 23, 1996) and son Jacob (June 24, 1997).

UCLA

FREE AGENT, 1996

BORN: FEBRUARY 19, 1973

HOMETOWN: SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

XPro Career: Free agent from UCLA, where he played linebacker as a senior, has established himself as an NFL starter ... physical safety with size and versatility ... career totals of 377 tackles and 22 deflected passes in 60 games (39 starts) ... eclipsed previous two-year total of 107 tackles with 125 tackles in '98, then bettered the mark with 147 tackles last year ... also contributor on special teams ... late-season 1999 knee injury and ensuing reconstructive surgery leaves status questionable entering the 2000 season. X1999: Career-best 147 tackles (73 solos, 74 assists) as 15-game starter before suffering knee injury Dec. 26 at Atlanta ... eight double-digit tackle games, including first six outings of season ... added 4 quarterback pressures, 4 tackles for loss, 8 passes defended, 1 interception, and 1 fumble recovery ... also partially deflected a field goal on special teams ... opened season at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) with four solo stops and six assists for team-best 10 combined tackles in 25-24 victory ... the following week at Miami (Sept. 19), registered 12 combined tackles, swatted down two passes, and snuffed out a Miami score when he ran down Dolphin receiver O.J. McDuffie and punched the ball loose for Card free safety Kwamie Lassiter to recover at the Card 34-yard line ... active game at Dallas (Oct. 3) with 12 combined tackles, a deflected pass, and recovered an Emmitt Smith fumble ... fifth consecutive double-digit outing with nine solo stops and six assists for season-high 15 combined tackles in 14-3 triumph over N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) ... 13 combined tackles vs. Washington (Oct. 17) and deflected Redskin kicker Brett Conway's 44-yard second-quarter field goal that wobbled through the uprights ... two weeks later at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7), credited with eight combined tackles, broke up one pass, and thwarted a Jet two-point conversion try in fourth quarter with end-zone interception ... four tackles and knocked down a pass in 23-19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... 13 tackles in 13-9 win over Dallas (Nov. 21) ... contributed to 34-24 victory at the Meadowlands vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) with six combined tackles and broke up three passes, including two fierce hits on Giant receivers to dislodge the football ... nine tackles and picked off Buffalo passer Doug Flutie at Card 25-yard line to stop scoring threat in second quarter vs. Bills (Dec. 19) ... eight combined tackles at Atlanta (Dec. 26) but played sparingly in second half with right knee sprain, eventually diagnosed as torn anterior cruciate ligament ... inactive for season finale at Green Bay (Jan. 2) as Pat Tillman started at strong safety ... underwent reconstructive surgery on Jan. 19, 2000. 1998: Started all 16 regular-season games and two playoff outings at strong safety ... finished third on team with 123 tackles (59 solos), 3 tackles for loss, 4 passes defended, and 2 interceptions ... earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors following 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) with 13 tackles and 70-yard interception return for a touchdown ... in season opener at Dallas (Sept. 6), picked off a Troy Aikman pass in the third quarter for a 30-yard return to place the ball at the Cowboy 29-yard line as Cards scored first touchdown four plays later to pull within 21-10 ... finished the day with nine overall tackles ... seven tackles at Seattle (Sept. 13) and chipped in with eight overall stops and batted down one pass in 17-3 win vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) ... seven stops and another impressive job on run support in 17-15 win at Detroit (Nov. 1) ... highlight was a two-yard downing of elusive Barry Sanders on third-and-two situation in the fourth quarter to force a Detroit punt as Cards turned the ensuing possession into the game-winning field goal ... nine tackles at Kansas City (Nov. 29) and split 24 tackles (12 apiece) with fellow safety Lassiter vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) ... closed first quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) with 70-yard interception return for a touchdown an added added 5 solo tackles, 8 assists, and 1 deflected pass in fine all-round effort ... five tackles in 19-17 win over New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... season-high 15 tackles, including nine solo stops, in 16-13 playoff-clinching win over San Diego (Dec. 27) ... provided exclamation point on 20-7 wild card playoff win at Dallas (Jan. 2) with interception and 42-yard return to the Dallas two-yard line with one minute remaining ... added five solo stops and three assists ... seven stops and a tackle for loss in divisional playoff defeat at Minnesota (Jan. 10).

1997: Opened at strong safety for seven of 13 contests, including the final three when elevated to the starting role ... in those final three games, collected nearly as many tackles (30) as he did his entire rookie season (32 in 1996) ... finished sophomore campaign with 38 solo tackles, 37 assists, 75 overall stops, 1 tackle for loss, 4 passes defended, and 1 interception, his career first ... in seven starting roles, registered 71 tackles for an average of over 10 per game, including four double-digit efforts ... did not play in three games due to chest (two games) and elbow (one game) injuries ... scored first NFL touchdown with recovery of blocked punt in end zone at Washington (Sept. 14) ... big play came on special teams as he recovered a Redskins punt blocked by teammate J.J. McCleskey (Matt Turk punt) in the end zone for a first-quarter touchdown, the first Cardinal blocked punt for a touchdown in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972) ... with regular Matt Darby (shoulder/concussion) injured, started at strong safety vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) and posted eight tackles and batted away a pass ... doubled season total of tackles (12) with seven solo hits and five assists in second consecutive starting role at strong safety to help key a 31-21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) ... also knocked away two Eagle passes ... led defense with 14 overall tackles, including nine assists, at Dallas (Nov. 9) ... added 14 stops the next week at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) ... declared Friday inactive prior to road game at Baltimore (Nov. 23) due to elbow injury ... named starting strong safety for final three contests ... seven tackles and one deflected pass vs. Washington (Dec. 7) ... tied for team lead with 12 combined tackles at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... season-high 8 solo tackles (11 overall), 1 tackle for loss, and 1 interception of option pass by Falcon running back Jamal Anderson in second quarter, his first career pickoff, in Cards' 29-26 season-ending victory over Atlanta (Dec. 21). 1996: Played in all 16 games with one starting role as a rookie ... led all non-starters with 32 tackles ... quickly became a regular in the "nickel" package on pass coverage and deflected six passes ... opened season with clutch play, recovering an onside kick at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) near the end of the game to give the Cards a chance to tie the contest in Arizona's 20-13 loss ... one solo stop in each of the next four games ... big play vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) when he dislodged the ball from Buccaneer tight end Dave Moore on fourth down in fourth period of 13-9 win ... added four tackles against Tampa Bay ... three tackles and season-high three deflected passes in 31-23 win over N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17) ... two solo stops and an assist in 36-30 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... in first NFL start in place of the injured Darby (thumb), posted six solo stops and six assists at

Minnesota (Dec. 1) ... made fine play on special teams when he batted a punt back toward the playing field from the goal line in third quarter as teammate downed the ball at the five-yard line against Dallas (Dec. 8) ... responded the following week with another clutch effort on special teams vs. Washington (Dec. 15) ... his pressure on Turk forced the Redskin punter to drop the football rather than kick it ... officials ruled the play a fumble, negating a Washington recovery and advance. ✕College/Personal: Coached at UCLA by current Cardinal defensive backs coach Larry Marmie ... missed entire junior year at UCLA due to a suspension over legal problems ... returned to win a starting role at linebacker, a position he never had played, as a senior, registering 61 tackles, 4 forced fumbles, and 3 fumble recoveries (two returned for touchdowns) ... the 61 tackles tied for second on the team ... shared strong safety as a sophomore ... appeared on special teams and returned punts as a Bruin freshman ... three-year letterman as two-way star at Morse High School in San Diego, California ... 68 tackles as a cornerback and 15 receptions for 403 yards and five touchdowns as a senior ... selected to the San Diego all-C.I.F. team ... also all-league, all-conference, and all-California ... received honorable mention in the San Diego Hall of Fame voting ... chosen to Cal-Hi Sports Scholar squad ... also lettered in track as a senior when he advanced to the California championship meet in the 110-meter high hurdles ... political science major at UCLA with interest in corporate law ... participated in "Operation Intercept," a joint educational campaign prior to 1999 training camp to fight telemarketing fraud, by making phone calls to senior citizens warning them of telemarketing scams.✎

XPro Career: The first of two first-round picks the Cardinals held in the 1999 NFL Draft ... selected eighth overall ... relinquished final year of collegiate eligibility at Ohio State to enter draft ... turned 21 the day Cards completed 1999 training camp his rookie season ... first NFL season reflected progressively improved play ... in 16 games (seven starts), caught 40 passes for 473 yards (11.8-yard average) and two touchdowns, netted no yards on five rushing attempts, and returned seven early-season punts for 62 yards ... in first NFL start at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) in season opener, caught four passes for 21 yards in 25-24 win ... also gained one yard on reverse in third period ... showcased big-play ability at Miami (Sept. 19) with 43-yard punt return at end of third quarter he nearly broke for an 81-yard return for a score before being tripped ... finished with four punt returns for 63 yards, caught one pass for five yards, and gained two yards on a second-quarter midfield reverse ... suffered bruise on left shoulder blade on punt return in second quarter vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27), the same area he injured during mini-camp ... two receptions for 11 yards at Dallas (Oct. 3) in starting role for inactive/injured Rob Moore (hamstring) ... "break-out" game vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with eight catches for 101 yards, including a spectacular leaping grab from quarterback Jake Plummer for 11-yard touchdown ... ran past former Arizona State standout Phillip Sparks, then out-leaped the Giant defender in the end zone to give Cards 14-0 lead with 33 seconds left in first half ... began the play with a hard first step off the line, and Sparks reacted so hard he lost his shoe on the move as Boston cruised downfield to make the leaping catch in the right corner ... also caught 37-yarder on crossing pattern against New York cornerback Jason Sehorn near end of first quarter but was stopped inches short of the goal line two plays before Plummer scored on a keeper ... finished first half with seven receptions for 98 yards, then caught one pass for three yards in third quarter from quarterback Dave Brown as Cards played conservatively to protect the win ... four passes for 53 yards in 23-19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14), including 40-yarder over Lion cornerback Bryant Westbrook in first quarter to the Detroit 20-yard line to set up Cards' first points of game ... later snared 11-yarder from own 16-yard line following Cardinal fumble recovery to open touchdown scoring drive six plays later ... three grabs for 47 yards in 13-9 victory over Dallas (Nov. 21) featured 30-yard catch to the Dallas 23-yard line as Cards scored two plays later for 10-7 lead in third quarter ... also gained seven yards on end-around early in fourth-quarter scoring drive that led to a field goal ... provided pair of clutch efforts in 21-17 win over Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... brought Cards within 17-14 with four minutes left with acrobatic leaping grab of four-yard toss from Plummer in right corner of end zone despite defensive pass interference call on the play ... later caught nine-yard pass in game-winning drive on ensuing possession ... snared 43-yard pass over veteran cornerback Darrell Green in first quarter at Washington (Dec. 12) to the Redskins 34-yard line to set up field goal, Cards' only points of the game ... only catch vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19) a 13-yarder from Plummer that converted a third-and-10 in fourth-quarter scoring drive that narrowed the Buffalo lead to 24-21 with less than two minutes left ... finished rookie season with four receptions for 52 yards at Green Bay (Jan. 2) ... nearly scored on six-yard catch to the Packer one-yard line in second quarter as Cards settled for field goal ... caught 15-yarder to convert third-and-12 situation later in quarter, and achieved another third-down conversion with 20-yard catch in eight-play, 77-yard scoring drive to cut Green Bay lead to 21-10 with two minutes left in the quarter. XCollege/Personal: In only three years at Ohio State, established 11 school records, including most career catches (191), yards gained receiving (2,855) and touchdown (David Boston continued on page 58)

catches (34), shattering the previous marks of 168 receptions with 27 scores by current Minnesota Viking Pro Bowler Cris Carter (1984-86) and 2,792 yards by Gary Williams (1979-82) ... averaged 5.16 catches per game, topping the school career record of 4.5 by Carter ... Football Writers Association all-America first-team choice as junior ... added all-Big Ten Conference first-team honors ... ranked fifth in the nation with an average of 120.9 receiving yards per game and ranked 13th with 6.7 catches per outing ... set Buckeye single-season records in 1998 with 85 catches for 1,435 yards (16.9-yard average) and 13 touchdowns, topping his previous mark of 73 receptions in 1997 and 1,411 yards by Terry Glenn in 1995 ... also returned 19 punts for 270 yards (14.2-yard average) and a touchdown while starting every game at split end ... became only the third player in school history to gain over 200 yards receiving in a game with 10 catches for 217 yards and touchdowns of 30 and 43 yards against Michigan ... school-record 14 receptions as sophomore against Penn State totalling 153 yards and a touchdown ... played in every game as a true freshman, starting the final seven contests at split end ... against the Plummer-led Arizona State Sun Devils in the Rose Bowl, returned three punts for 15 yards and made four catches for 20 yards with a pair of scores, including the game-winning five-yard touchdown grab with 1:21 left to give the Buckeyes a 20-17 victory ... Greater Houston prep player-of-the-year in 1995 ... won numerous all-America honors in both football and basketball at Humble (Tex.)

High School ... all-Texas first-team pick as a free safety, adding second-team honors as a receiver ... two-time all-district choice ... as a two-way prep star, posted 88 tackles with nine interceptions and caught 51 passes for 780 yards with eight touchdowns while averaging 23.2 yards per kickoff return and 17.1 yards per punt return as a senior ... second team all-Texas selection in basketball, leading his squad to the state's "Final Four" in 1996 ... earned all-tournament accolades ... also lettered in track ... won the district title in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles ... lettered three times in football and basketball and twice in track and field ... sociology major at Ohio State ... asked in Ohio State game program to name the player he had competed against who he admired most, Boston responded, "Jake Plummer" ... sent an open letter to Ohio State fans in a Columbus newspaper explaining his decision to turn pro and thanking them for their support ... father, Byron, officiated in the Southwest Conference and World League and is now in his sixth year as a line judge in the National Football League ... father has worked two NFC championship games and Super Bowl XXXIV last season ... mother, Carolyn, is president and chief executive officer of Boston Sports Enterprises, Inc. ... older brother, Byron Jr., who played football at Sam Houston State, is a Dallas policeman specializing in crime unit that investigates drug complaints in high-crime areas in Dallas ... sister, Alicia, is a Dallas attorney who collaborated in negotiating Boston's first NFL contract ... born Aug. 19, 1978.

XPro Career: Signed with Arizona as unrestricted free agent on April 29, 1998 after six seasons with the N.Y. Giants ... started 53 of 57 games as a Giant from 1992-97 ... started all 32 games from 1995-96 ... streak of 44 consecutive starts ended in 1997, his final season as a Giant, due to torn chest muscle after six contests ... five starts last year for Cardinals resulted in three victories while Jake Plummer nursed broken finger ... career total of 852 completions in 1,599 pass attempts (55 percent) for 8,781 yards with 42 touchdowns and 55 interceptions ... played in just three games his first two professional seasons ... earned starting role during 1994 training camp and led Giants to 9-7 mark ... originally selected by Giants in first round (16th position) of the 1992 NFL Supplemental Draft. X1999 (Cardinals):

Came off the bench for injured starter Plummer and led the club to a 3-2 record in five starts, including consecutive wins over Detroit, Dallas, and the N.Y. Giants in November to open the second half of the season ... in eight games overall, completed 84 of 169 passes for 944 yards with two touchdowns ... did not play in first three games ... first action of season at Dallas (Oct. 3) ... entered game with 2:11 remaining and 35-7 deficit at own 20-yard line ... completed four consecutive passes for 30 yards, including a 15-yarder to running back Michael Pittman ... sixth attempt intercepted by Cowboy linebacker Darren Hambrick near midfield ... after Plummer was sidelined with a hip pointer midway through the third quarter vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10), came in for final two series of third period and first two of fourth quarter in 14-3 win ... connected on first three passes to tight end Terry Hardy (eight yards for third-down conversion), Hardy again on next play (23 yards) to the Giant 19-yard line, then to wide receiver David Boston (three yards) to the Giant 16-yard line, but kicker Chris Jacke's 34-yard field-goal try was blocked ... finished with four completions in eight attempts for 41 yards ... came off bench again the next week vs. Washington (Oct. 17) with 11 minutes left in third quarter after Plummer suffered fractured right ring finger on sack ... after tossing an interception on his second attempt near the end of third period, rebounded in fourth quarter with eight completions in 18 attempts for 117 yards and a touchdown ... brought Cards to within 17-10 midway through the final period with 91-yard, nine-play drive, capped by 10-yard strike to wide receiver Rob Moore with seven minutes left ... moved into starting role vs. New England (Oct. 31) and opened game with six completions in first eight attempts for 54 yards in first quarter, but saw two deflected passes in second quarter end up in New England defenders' arms as he managed just two more completions in 13 passes for remainder of half ... finished game 12-33-107 as rookie quarterback Chris Greisen finished game for final two series ... though winds were swirling in the Meadowlands, posted impressive first half of seven completions in 10 attempts for 144 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7), including career-long 71-yarder to Moore to set up Cards' only touchdown and 7-3 halftime lead ... after one sack in first half, dropped five times in second half, including a fierce hit by James Farrior just prior to the two-minute warning in fourth quarter that sent the passer to the bench for one play as Greisen came in for a single snap ... returned to game and finished 16-26-199 yards ... first of three consecutive wins began with 23-19 triumph over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... solid first half vs. Lions provided Cards 16-7 halftime lead with 12-22-200 effort, including three completions over 30 yards—wide receiver Frank Sanders (33 yards), Boston (40 yards), and Pittman (46 yards) ... finished with 16 completions in 30 attempts for 209 yards as Cards ran ball effectively in second half ... also converted third-and-two situation with four-yard run in second-quarter scoring drive and added nine-yard run on third-and-six play in third quarter for another first down rushing ... the two third-down runs for first down were more than the Cards achieved in their prior eight games (one-for-nine in third-down rushing tries) ... duplicated the feat the following week vs. Dallas (Nov. 21) ... steady effort vs. Cowboys with 13 completions in 29 attempts for 115 yards in 13-9 win ... also rushed for 17 yards on four carries, including five-yard run on third and two for first downs in the first quarter, then 10-yard run for another first down on third-and-four play at end of third quarter in scoring drive that resulted in field goal and 13-7 lead ... started fifth consecutive game at old stomping grounds, Giants Stadium (Nov. 28) ... in first-half action, completed 11 of 17 passes for 126 yards, including a 44-yard connection with Moore in second quarter drive to field goal ... facing 10-6 halftime deficit, Plummer opened second half and completed the 34-24 win ... did not play in final five games as healthy Plummer went the distance. ✕1998 (Cardinals): Played in just one contest in first season as a Cardinal ... ironically, the appearance came against former teammates at Giants Stadium (Oct. 18) ... entered game for the beleaguered Plummer (seven sacks, two interceptions) midway through fourth quarter for Cards' final offensive series ... connected on two of five passes for 31 yards and was sacked on fourth-down play ... first pass completion as a Cardinal was 12-yarder to fullback Larry Centers. ✕1997 (Giants): Reunited with former Card offensive coordinator and new Giants' Head Coach Jim Fassel, Brown's offensive coordinator during his first season with New York ... started first six games before a chronic torn chest muscle forced him to the bench ... after a four-week recovery period, Fassel had named second-year passer Danny Kanell the starter ... prior to the injury, Brown completed 91 of 171 passes for 1,009 yards with five touchdowns and three interceptions ... logged a 3-3 mark as a starter ... streak of 44 consecutive starts was third among active quarterbacks behind Green Bay's Brett Favre (84) and Cincinnati's Jeff Blake (47) ... led Giants to 31-17 win over Philadelphia (Aug. 31) in season opener by completing 13 of 27 passes for 193 yards ... passed for one touchdown and ran for another ... connected with fullback Charles Way in opening scoring drive when he faked a reverse and tossed a short pass to Way, who turned the play into a 62-yard gain to the Eagles' eight-yard line ... two plays later, Brown ran up the middle from shotgun formation for a three-yard scoring run ... completed 16 of 35 attempts for 182 yards at Jacksonville (Sept. 7) ... career-high 28 completions in 46 attempts for 269 yards and a score vs. Baltimore (Sept. 14) ... knocked out of game at St. Louis (Sept. 21) for two series with concussion ... helped break a three-game losing skid with 16-25-194 effort in 14-9 win over New Orleans (Sept. 28) ... threw pin-point 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Alexander in the corner of the end zone in the first quarter ... in second quarter, completed eight of nine passes for 82 yards in a 12-play, 84-yard scoring drive, capped by a 14-yard touchdown toss to wide receiver Chris Calloway ... suffered the chest muscle injury on a sack by Saint cornerback Alex Molden at the end of the game ... started the next week vs.

Dallas (Oct. 5), but left the game in the second quarter after aggravating the injury following a blitz by safety Bill Bates ... completed two of seven passes for eight yards before the injury ... inactive third quarterback the next four weeks ... did not play in five more ... first action since injury came in season finale at Dallas (Dec. 21) resulted in 2-9-14 performance in the second half ... it marked the first time he entered a game in a reserve role since finishing the Giants' 44-3 divisional playoff loss at San Francisco in 1994 (Jan. 15). X1996 (Giants): Concluded third year as starter with 214 completions in 398 attempts for 2,412 yards with 12 touchdowns and 20 interceptions ... connected on 11 of 27 attempts for 169 yards in season opener vs. Buffalo (Sept. 1), including a short loss Way turned into a 37-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 17-0 lead in the second quarter of eventual 23-20 overtime loss ... struggled with 10 completions in 19 attempts for only 55 yards at Dallas (Sept. 8), including an interception by Cowboy Kevin Smith on the game's first play from scrimmage ... it marked the second consecutive season Brown was intercepted on the first play from scrimmage at Texas Stadium ... career-high four interceptions the following week against Washington (Sept. 15) ... guided Giants to consecutive wins with 9-13-111 showing in 13-6 win over N.Y. Jets (Sept. 22) ... 18-29-167 effort in 15-10 victory over Minnesota (Sept. 29) ... opened Viking game with five consecutive completions in first-quarter scoring drive ... sacked eight times in 19-10 loss to Philadelphia (Oct. 13) ... completed then career-high 26 passes in 43 attempts for 298 yards at Washington (Oct. 20), including 216 yards in the second half ... opened third quarter by completing five of seven passes for 82 yards in 10-play, 91-yard scoring drive, capped by a 31-yard scoring toss to wide receiver Thomas Lewis ... completed two of three passes for 33 yards in first quarter vs. Arizona (Nov. 3), but forced from game with a bruised back and back spasms after hit by Cardinal defensive end Simeon Rice ... Kanell finished in the Giants' 16-8 win ... started the following week at Carolina (Nov. 10) without much practice and completed six of seven passes for 91 yards in the Giants' first two possessions, capping both drives with touchdown passes ... also tossed two interceptions in the fourth quarter of 27-17 loss ... connected on 12 of 18 attempts for 110 yards and a score in 20-6 win over Dallas (Nov. 24) ... replaced by Kanell in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 1) after completing just three of 11 passes for 31 yards with two interceptions and suffering four sacks in 24-0 shutout loss ... directed scoring drives of 80 and 78 yards en route to 14-7 halftime lead at Miami (Dec. 8), including 4-5-51 statistics on first series ... aggravated bruised left shoulder on sack by Dolphin cornerback Calvin Jackson but returned after receiving special padding beneath shoulder pads ... finished the game 21-28-169 with one score ... completed eight of 18 passes for 42 yards and a pair of interceptions in first half vs. New Orleans (Dec. 15) before yielding to Kanell in the third quarter ... concluded season with 14 completions in 38 attempts for 215 yards vs. New England (Dec. 21). X1995 (Giants): Career single-season bests with 254 completions in 456 attempts for 2,814 yards and a 73.1 passer rating as 16-game starter ... also rushed 45 times for 228 yards (5.1-yard average) with four touchdowns ... single-game highs with 50 attempts (sixth most in Giant history) and 23 completions at Green Bay (Sept. 17) and 299 yards passing yards at Seattle (Nov. 5) ... 254 pass completions and 456 attempts most by a Giant since 1988 (Phil Simms, 254-479) ... opened season with 20 completions in 34 attempts for 155 yards vs. Dallas (Sept. 4) ... 10 of 14 passes for 151 yards and a score in 20-17 overtime loss at Kansas City (Sept. 10) ... engineered Giants' first victory with 19-27-258 effort in 45-29 triumph over New Orleans (Sept. 24) ... connected with Calloway on 38-yard touchdown play for the Giants' go-ahead points, a 21-17 second-quarter lead ... played into second half vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) with nine completions in 18 attempts for 82 yards but was sacked five times and replaced by Tommy Maddox ... connected with wide receiver Mike Sherrard for 57-yard scoring strike in 24-15 win at Washington (Oct. 29) ... career-high 299 yards at Seattle (Nov. 5) by virtue of 20 completions in 41 attempts and two touchdowns ... also booted 15-yard quick kick against Seahawks ... sacked seven times at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) ... broke four-game losing skid with 17 completions in 27 attempts for 144 yards in 10-6 win at Arizona (Nov. 30) ... guided club 83 yards in 12 plays with second-half kickoff, capped by a 12-yard scoring strike to Sherrard ... established single-game efficiency mark with 10 completions in 12 attempts (.833) in 20-13 victory over Washington (Dec. 10) ... broke 13-13 tie with 40-yard touchdown pass to Calloway with 1:18 left ... equalled career single-game high with 47 yards rushing in narrow 21-20 loss at Dallas (Dec. 17) ... completed 10 of 20 passes for 111 yards and four of his five rushing attempts netted first downs against the Cowboys ... closed season with 209 yards passing on 21 completions and 36 attempts vs. San Diego (Dec. 23). X1994 (Giants): Earned starting job prior to third preseason game after training camp and preseason challenges from Kent Graham ... in 15 starts, Giants forged 9-6 record ... completed 201 of 350 pass attempts (57.4 percent) for 2,536 yards with 12 touchdowns and 16 interceptions ... led Giants to final-minute victories in three of final four games

... in first game as a starter, threaded 10 of 20 passes for 171 yards and a 51-yard scoring strike to Calloway—his first NFL touchdown—in 28–23 victory over Philadelphia (Sept. 4) ... also booted 33-yard quick kick vs. Eagles ... followed with 11–17–119 showing in 20–17 win at Arizona (Sept. 11), including two more touchdown passes ... took the Giants to their third consecutive win vs. Washington (Sept. 18) with 221 yards passing on 14–19 afternoon, highlighted by a 30-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard in the second quarter ... after throwing four touchdown passes and two interceptions in first three games, managed just three scoring tosses and suffered 10 interceptions in next six outings as Giants battled through six-game losing skid ... four of the losses occurred by 5, 7, 4, and 3 points ... low lights of the stretch included seven sacks and two interceptions at New Orleans (Oct. 2), four sacks and three interceptions vs. Minnesota (Oct. 10), and a 4–17–56 passing evening in 38–10 “Monday Night Football” loss at Dallas (Nov. 7) ... did not play in 10–9 loss at Arizona (Nov. 13) the following week when Graham started and played the entire game ... resumed starting role at Houston (Nov. 21) but was knocked out of the game with a concussion on helmet-to-helmet collision with Oiler linebacker Lamar Lathon in the second quarter after completing four of seven passes for 19 yards ... Giants eventually won 13–10 ... threw two touchdown passes and ran for another in 21–19 win at Washington (Nov. 27) ... completed 10 of 17 passes for 161 yards, including touchdowns of 34 yards to Calloway and six yards to Sherrard ... one-yard scoring run in first quarter ... completed 17 of 33 passes for 266 yards in 16–13 win at Cleveland (Dec. 4) ... orchestrated game-winning drive against Browns by completing four of seven passes for 53 yards, including a 26-yard pass on third-and-15 to Calloway, a 13-yard pass to Sherrard on third-and-nine, and a seven-yard run on third-and-one to keep the drive alive ... again rose to the occasion vs. Cincinnati (Dec. 11) with 16–26–222 production ... in final two minutes, connected on all three pass attempts for 45 yards as Giants marched 66 yards in four plays, capped by Rodney Hampton’s three-yard touchdown run in 27–20 win ... kept game-winning drive going at Philadelphia (Dec. 18) with 34-yard pass play to Dave Meggett on third-and-16 in fourth quarter to set the stage for a game-winning field goal in 16–13 victory ... closed season with 11 completions in 19 attempts for 141 yards and a 49-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard in 15–10 win over Dallas (Dec. 24) ... prompted another key score when his 24-yard quick kick pinned the Cowboys inside their own 10-yard line and they fumbled the ball out of the end zone for a safety. ✕1993 (Giants): Rotated with Graham as the number two quarterback behind Phil Simms for the final five games of the season, including both postseason contests ... inactive for 13 games ... only appearance was at New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... finished playoff loss at San Francisco (Jan. 15) with six completions in 10 attempts for 56 yards and one interception. ✕1992 (Giants): Signed with just five days remaining in training camp ... appeared in two games, inactive for 10 ... first action of season in relief of Graham at Dallas (Nov. 26) resulted in two completions in three attempts for six yards, but was sacked three times in the Thanksgiving Day contest ... two weeks later at Phoenix (Dec. 12) completed two of four passes for 15 yards in relief, but left contest with broken thumb and spent final two games of the season on the injured reserve list. ✕College/Personal: Led the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing with 2,794 yards and 20 touchdowns in 1991 as a junior at Duke ... a redshirt freshman in 1989, started the final three games for the Blue Devils and averaged 432 yards passing with 11 touchdowns to lead Duke to a berth in the All-America Bowl ... set a school record as a freshman with a 479-yard passing effort against North Carolina ... finished the season with a 161.0 passer rating ... prep all-America at Westfield (N.J.) High School where he passed for more than 2,000 yards as a senior ... also earned most-valuable-player honors in basketball and achieved first-team all-New Jersey notice in lacrosse ... bachelor’s degree with double major in history and political science from Duke ... ambidextrous—naturally left-handed but throws the football right-handed ... the first touchdown pass of his senior year at Duke was thrown with his left hand ... born Feb. 25, 1970 in Summit, New Jersey ... avid golfer ... wife Katy. ☞

XPro Career: Began 1999 season on waiver wire and finished campaign as the leading punt returner in the NFC ... claimed by Arizona via waivers from St. Louis on final roster cutdown (Sept. 6) ... played in shadow of St. Louis Rams standout Isaac Bruce at University of Memphis ... prior to his first NFL game, already had posted professional totals of 172 pass receptions for 2,719 yards with 25 touchdowns, 57 punts returns for 619 yards and one touchdown, and 55 kickoff returns for 1,080 yards and two six-pointers in 51 games over four seasons in the Canadian Football League (CFL) and Arena League ... undrafted out of college, unsuccessful free agent showings with Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League (1994) and the Indianapolis Colts (1995) ... later in '95, played for Birmingham of the CFL, then with Hamilton in 1996 ... spent 1997 with Arena League's Orlando Predators ... returned to CFL in 1998 with Montreal. X1999: Waiver claim by Cardinals from St. Louis after the 53-man roster cutdown ... finished season as NFC punt-return leader with 11.7-yard average ... 11.7-yard average a Cardinal best since Johnny Bailey's 13.2-yard mark in 1992 ... returned 32 punts for 373 yards, 4 kickoffs for 76 yards, and 6 receptions for 60 yards and one touchdown ... opened season inactive for first three contests ... first NFL action at Dallas (Oct. 3) provided one of few bright spots in 35-7 defeat ... after a fair catch of a punt at his own five-yard line, regrouped with four punt returns for 59 yards, including 31- and 18-yarders, the latter to set up the Cards' only score of the game ... 31-yard return was the net yardage after a holding penalty negated a 67-yard return to the Cowboy 23-yard line in the second quarter ... also caught one pass for 11 yards to convert third-and-seven situation in fourth quarter and induced 20-yard pass interference penalty ... again flashed talents with four punt returns for 52 yards for 13-yard average in 14-3 win at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) ... caught 16-yard toss from quarterback Dave Brown for first NFL reception vs. Washington

(Oct. 17) ... averaged 16.3 yards on three returns vs. New England (Oct. 31), including a season-long 31-yarder in third quarter ... struggled in swirling wind conditions of Giants Stadium vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) ... two ill-advised punt returns featured a 59-yard laser by Tom Tupa in first quarter that Cody downed in the end zone for a touchback, and a muff of a 69-yarder by Tupa in the fourth quarter at the 15-yard line Cody eventually recovered but was tackled at the six-yard line ... Tom Knight replaced him for the final two punt-return situations ... regrouped in 23-19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) with 17-yard punt return and five overall returns for 55 yards ... added 35 yards on three returns in 13-9 win over Dallas (Nov. 21) ... 39 yards on four punt returns and caught one pass for five yards in second quarter at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) ... also attempted to return a first-quarter punt out of the Cards' end zone after a Giant player touched the ball in the end zone, an apparent "free" return ... his return only reached Arizona's six-yard line ... officials incorrectly spotted the ball at the six-yard line instead of the 20-yard line, a mistake the league office confirmed the next day ... the Cards should have had their choice of the ball at the end of the return or spot of first touch by Giant player, which was the 20-yard line as an end-zone touch ... later returned third-quarter punt 14 yards to the Giant 38-yard line ... authored key play in fourth-quarter scoring drive vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 5) with 15-yard reception on third-and-10 from own 20-yard line, then added four-yard grab later in drive as Cards completed the 16-play, 4:31 march to cut the Eagle lead to 17-14 with 4:31 remaining of 21-17 win ... outstanding effort vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19) with 19-yard first-quarter punt return, then gave Cards ideal field position in second quarter with 26-yard return to the Buffalo 46-yard line as Cards drove to game-tying score ... nearly broke a second-quarter punt return for the distance at Atlanta (Dec. 26) by squirting through three tackles and stumbling into

Pro Career: Rare every-down linebacker in age of specialization ... signed by Arizona as unrestricted free agent on March 26, 1999 after four seasons with Oakland (1994-97) and one campaign with Detroit (1998) ... career-best 167.5 tackles last year in first season in Cardinal uniform ... in 58 games (51 starts) for the Raiders, collected 288 tackles, 5 quarterback sacks, 4 fumble recoveries, 1 interception, and 17 passes defended, the latter an indication of his fine pass-coverage talents ... considered one of the NFL's best cover linebackers ... started all 16 games for the Lions in 1998, ranking third on the club with 116 tackles, and recorded 2.5 sacks, 1 interception, 5 passes defended, and 2 recovered fumbles ... originally selected by Oakland in the first round (22nd overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft. ★1999 (Cardinals): Authored perhaps the most consistent campaign of any Cardinal ... as 16-game starter at left linebacker, finished second on club with 167.5 tackles (90.5 solos), 2.5 quarterback sacks, 14 hurries, team-best 8 tackles for loss, 3 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, and 2 interceptions, including one for a touchdown ... set Cardinal modern-era single-game tackle total record at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) with 22 total tackles (13 solos) ... opened Cardinal career with seven tackles in 25–24 win at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) ... outstanding overall game at Miami (Sept. 19) with five solo tackles, 11 assists, and a 34-yard interception return for a touchdown off legendary Dolphin quarterback Dan Marino ... it was Fredrickson's second career touchdown but his first by interception ... the six-pointer also made him the first Card linebacker to return an interception for a score since Oct. 4, 1987 at R.F.K. Stadium in Washington, D.C. against the Redskins when Peter Noga turned the trick in a "replacement game" ... another active game vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) with 7 tackles, 2 hurries, and 1 separation of 49er receiver J.J. Stokes from the football in the first quarter after a one-yard catch ... Stokes recovered his own fumble ... also recorded two hurries, one which forced passer Steve Young to throw toward fellow linebacker Zack Walz, who batted the ball in the air as defensive tackle Jerry Drake made the interception in the first quarter ... seven combined tackles at Dallas (Oct. 3) and his second consecutive game with a forced fumble when he separated Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith from the ball near midfield in the third quarter that safety Tommy Bennett recovered ... outstanding all-round game in 14–3 win over N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with 15 tackles, including 12 solo stops, 1 tackle for loss, and 1 hurry ... career game at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) with 22 tackles, including 13 solos and added 1 sack, 1 hurry, and 1 tackle for loss ... outstanding series in fourth quarter, forcing Jet passer Rick Mirer to throw the ball away with a first-down pressure, sacking Mirer on second down, then pushing the scrambling Mirer out of bounds on third-and-long just short of the first-down marker ... productive game against former Lion teammates with 8 tackles, 1 stop for loss, and 1 deflected pass in 23–19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... eight combined tackles vs. Dallas (Nov. 21), including a shared sack with tackle Eric

Swann near the end of the first half to force a punt as Cards turned the ensuing possession into a field goal and cut the Dallas lead to 7–3 going into half-time of 13–9 win ... six tackles at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) and intercepted Giant passer Kerry Collins on first play of second half ... returned a pass deflected by cornerback Tom Knight to the Giant 16-yard line as Cards scored five plays later to take 13–10 lead in eventual 34–24 victory ... all over the field in 21–17 victory over Philadelphia (Dec. 5), defending the run and pass with 8 solo stops, 8 assists, 1 tackle for loss, 1 deflected pass, and 1 fumble recovery on end Simeon Rice's sack of quarterback Donovan McNabb at Card 18-yard line to end Eagles' third-quarter scoring threat ... 10 tackles at Washington (Dec. 12) included a quirky play in the first quarter ... on third-and-two at the Redskin 41-yard line, deflected the football as Redskin passer Brad Johnson's arm went forward ... the ball fluttered into the hands of Washington running back Stephen Davis for a six-yard gain and a first down ... though Fredrickson was credited with a sack and forced fumble on the play, Davis bolted 50 yards two plays later for a touchdown and 7–0 Redskin lead ... 11 tackles vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19) ... four stops at Atlanta (Dec. 26) ... concluded season with nine tackles and three hurries in season finale at Green Bay (Jan. 2). ★1998 (Lions): One of Detroit's most productive acquisitions ... obtained by Lions in a trade with Oakland on March 25 in exchange for a fourth-round draft choice ... started all 16 games at strong-side linebacker and participated in 98 percent of the Lions' defensive plays ... finished third on the club with career-best 116 tackles (67 solos, 49 assists) ... added 2.5 quarterback sacks, 1 interception, 2 forced fumbles, and 5 deflected passes ... notched three double-digit tackle outings ... opened season with 10 tackles (six solos) at Green Bay (Sept. 6) ... eight tackles in 27–6 win over Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... nine stops with a pass defended in nationally-televised Thursday night 27–20 victory vs. Green Bay (Oct. 15) ... sacked quarterback Randall Cunningham and shared another sack vs. Minnesota (Oct. 25) ... season-high eight solo tackles (11 combined) at Philadelphia (Nov. 8) ... impressive three-game stretch with 20 tackles, 1 interception, 2 passes defended, and 1 forced fumble in three consecutive Detroit victories ... six stops in 26–3 win over Chicago (Nov. 15) ... four tackles with a pass defended in 28–25 triumph at Tampa Bay (Nov. 22) ... outstanding all-round effort to key 19–16 overtime win vs. Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26) with 10 tackles, 1 interception, 1 pass defended, and 1 forced fumble ... the following week at Jacksonville (Dec. 6) posted 11 tackles and knocked away a pass. ★1997 (Raiders): Started 13 of 16 games and collected 75 tackles son with turf-toe injury ... originally selected in fourth round (95th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft. X1999: Flashed glimpses of talent and productivity in frustratingly-short sophomore season marred by turf-toe injury ... in 10 games (two starts), rushed for 289 yards on 64 carries for team-best 4.5-yard average per attempt with two touchdowns ... also caught 16 passes for 196 yards and returned four punts (16 yards) and two kickoffs (31 yards) ... in first pro starting role vs. Detroit (Nov. 14), amassed 177 yards offense with 133 rushing yards on 23 carries and two receptions for 44 yards in 23-19 win ... featured plays were 58-yard scoring run and 46-yard pass reception ... the 58-yard run was the longest by a Cardinal in 52 games and the longest scoring jaunt in 53 contests (LeShon Johnson, 70 yards at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996) ... the 133 rushing yards rank 10th among NFL players in their first starts in the 1990s ... the effort also was Arizona's only 100-yard rusher during the 1999 season ... extensive action both from scrimmage and on special teams in season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) ... caught two passes for 26 yards, and returned four punts for 16 yards and one kickoff 22 yards in 25-24 win ... converted key third-and-eight play with 13-yard grab from quarterback Jake Plummer in third-quarter scoring drive, then made diving catch for 13-yard gain to open game-winning drive with less than two minutes left to place the ball at the Eagle 30-yard line with 1:43 to play ... also posted two assisted tackles on kick-coverage units ... netted minus one yard on five combined carries at Miami (Sept. 19) but showed a new wrinkle with 26-yard completion to wide receiver Frank Sanders to the Dolphin eight-yard line midway through first quarter, but Cards were unable to score ... popped loose for 12-yard run in first half vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27), then added back-to-back runs of 15 and seven yards in third-quarter drive to a field goal ... also caught 11-yard pass in final quarter and finished with 5.8-yard rushing average on six carries (35 yards) ... increased playing time from scrimmage at Dallas (Oct. 3) with four rushing attempts for nine yards and caught season-best four passes for 42 yards, including third-down catches of 18 and 15 yards in the fourth quarter ... 20 tough yards on eight carries from scrimmage and caught 21-yard pass near end of first half to the Giant 11-yard line, setting up a Plummer-to-David Boston 11-yard touchdown toss on the next play to give Cards 14-0 lead at halftime of 14-3 win at the Meadowslands (Oct. 10) ... left outing early vs. Washington (Oct. 17) with concussion after two carries for 15 yards and a pair of pass receptions for another 33 yards ... four carries for 29 yards vs. New England (Oct. 31) included 21-yarder up the middle near the end of the first half ... scored first NFL touchdown on four-yard burst up the middle to give Cards 7-3 lead at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) ... finished game with nine rushing attempts for 41 yards and 4.6-yard average per carry ... earned first NFL start the following week vs. Detroit (Nov. 14) ... enjoyed outstanding success with 133 yards rushing and 44 yards receiving for 177 yards of offense on 25 handles of the football, an average of 7.1 yards per touch ... warmed up in first quarter with 27 yards on seven carries ... rambled 46 yards with screen pass on third play of second quarter to the Lion three-yard line as Cards scored two plays later ... later bolted 58 yards to the end zone on third quarter draw play as he took the ball inside, bounced outside, and streaked down the left sideline and outraced the Detroit secondary to the end zone to give Cards a 23-7 lead with 11 minutes remaining in the period ... nearly spoiled starting debut in fourth quarter with fumble at Arizona 35-yard line ... Lion defensive back Terry Fair scooped up the loose ball and ran untouched into the end zone to cut the Cardinal lead to 23-19 with just over five minutes left ... inactive next three games ... returned to starting lineup at Washington (Dec. 12) but lasted for just three carries for eight yards and a pair of pass receptions as he left game in second quarter after aggravating the toe ... declared Friday inactive for final three games. X1998: Played in 15 of 16 games, primarily on special teams ... exhibited ample promise and talent despite limited playing time from scrimmage ... 91 rushing yards on 29 carries (3.1-yard average), 4 kickoffs returns for 84 yards (21-yard average), and 17 tackles and 50 "blocks" on special teams ... played almost exclusively on special teams in season opener at Dallas (Sept. 6) where he teamed with defensive back J.J. McCleskey to put fierce stop on Deion Sanders in first quarter for three-yard loss on punt return ... first action from scrimmage with two carries for two and five yards in second quarter at Seattle (Sept. 13) ... nailed Ram kickoff returner Tony Horne with fierce hit on second-quarter kickoff at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... later penalized after he hammered Ram punt returner Eddie Kennison on fourth quarter fair-catch attempt with 10 minutes left in game ... Kennison lay on the turf for several minutes before exiting on his own ... three carries for four yards in first half vs. Chicago (Oct. 11), then opened in second half to collect 14 carries for 52 yards, including fourth quarter that produced 54 yards on 13 attempts with runs of 8, 10, and 11 yards ... however, lost the ball at Bear 17-yard line in final period to set up Chicago's only score of the day in 20-7 Card victory ... finished with 17 carries for 56 yards ... no carries from scrimmage at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 28), but returned two kickoffs 22 and 18 yards and made a solo tackle and assist on coverage units ... five yards on four carries at Detroit (Nov. 1) ... took lateral from

Eric Metcalf vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) on kickoff following Cowboy touchdown in first quarter and gained eight yards ... Metcalf caught the ball one yard deep in the end zone, came out to the seven-yard line, then lateralled to Pittman going against the grain for eight more yards ... contributed mightily on special teams in 45-42 win at Washington (Nov. 22) ... recovered a muffed punt by Redskin Brian Mitchell in first quarter at the Washington 29-yard line as Cards scored six plays later to take 3-0 lead ... in fourth quarter, returned a Washington squib kick 20 yards to the Card 45-yard line, setting stage for 10-play, 55-yard drive to take 45-35 lead with 3:49 left in game ... also sparkled with four tackles on coverage units ... opened with bursts of eight and seven yards on Cards' second possession of game at Kansas City (Nov. 29), but only one carry for two yards in second half ... sustained broken bone in right hand on opening kickoff vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) and did not play remainder of game ... Friday inactive the next week for Cards' assignment at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) ... casted hand limited him to special-teams play vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20), but still managed three solo stops on coverage units ... the next week contributed to key play vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) when Metcalf followed him up the right hash mark on 46-yard kickoff return with 16 seconds left to set the table for the game-winning field goal in play-off-clinching 16-13 victory over the Chargers ... scored three touchdowns rushing in preseason finale at Oakland (Aug. 29). College/Personal: Regarded as one of the best pass-catching running backs in college football in 1997 ... third player in Fresno State history to better 3,000-yard career rushing plateau (3,017) ... second on Fresno State's all-time rushing list behind Ron Rivers (3,473 yards, 1991-93) ... tied school record with four consecutive 100-yard rushing performances vs. Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, and Nevada-las Vegas ... set Bulldog single-game record with 39 rushing attempts for 151 yards and a pair of touchdowns vs. Oregon ... set Fresno State weightlifting record for a running back with bench press of 435 pounds ... two-time all-Western Athletic Conference first team and all-America third-team pick as a senior all-purpose back ... played in the final 11 games as a senior, leading the team with 1,057 yards rushing and eight touchdowns on 238 carries (4.4-yard average) ... also caught 32 passes for 255 yards and two scores ... brother, Wayne, who played football at San Diego State, is a certified personal trainer ... all-Eastern League first-team pick as a senior at Mira Mesa (San Diego, Calif.) High School ... also played defensive back ... corrections major at Fresno State ... dedicated weightlifter ... one of the more noticeable results is 19 1/2-inch biceps ... tattoo on right bicep reads "The Real Black Superman" ... wife Melissa ... infant son Mycah (June 15, 2000) ... born Aug. 14, 1975 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

XPro Career: Second time was the charm when the perseverant Player made the Cardinals' roster in his second training camp with the team in 1998 ... accurate directional punter ... finished 1998 season with 81 punts for 41.7-yard gross average and 35.9-yard net mark ... bettered those numbers last year with 42-yard average on 94 punts with 36.7-yard net figure ... originally signed as a free agent with Cardinals in 1996 ... waived Aug. 20, 1996 during preseason ... signed with N.Y. Giants on Feb. 18, 1997 ... released on Aug. 25, 1997 ... added to N.Y. Jets' developmental squad after try-out on Aug. 26, 1997 ... released two days later ... received subsequent tryouts during 1997 season with Miami, St. Louis, Washington, Tampa Bay, and the Jets again ... re-signed by Cards on March 3, 1998 ... spent spring of 1997 in the World League with Frankfurt Galaxy on assignment from Giants ... punted 60 times for 2,617 yards, 43.6-yard gross average, and 34.3-yard net mark with 17 punts inside the 20 ... also had one punt blocked ... posted 43.8-yard average on 143 punts for Birmingham of the Canadian Football League in 1995 ... his position coach at Birmingham was Al Everest, the Cards' special-teams coach from 1996-99. X1999: Voted second alternate to NFC Pro Bowl squad ... finished sixth in NFC with 42-yard average, tied for fourth with 36.7-yard net mark, and ranked second with 94 punts ... 94 punts is the third most by a Cardinal in a season ... opened season with 34.4-yard average on five well-placed punts as Eagle returners were forced into three fair catches and one return for just two yards in 25-24 victory ... sailed first punt vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) 45 yards into end zone for a touchback, then placed three of next five inside the 20-yard line to finish game with six boots for 42-yard average and 36.3-yard net mark ... finest game of season at Dallas (Oct. 3) with 45.3-yard average on eight punts, seven in the first half ... near-flawless execution of direction and hang time with anticipated return of Dallas return specialist Deion Sanders, but the Pro Bowler was limited to returns of -4, 8, 6, 7, -1, and 16 yards ... second consecutive solid game with 46.6-yard average on nine punts in 14-3 win over N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10), including two inside-the-20 efforts and net mark of 38.8 ... punts covered over 50 yards four times and shortest of the game, a 34-yarder, pinned the Giants at their own nine-yard line ... also made touchdown-saving tackle of returner Tiki Barber on fourth-quarter punt after a 36-yard return ... outstanding first half with punts of 55, 58, and 49 yards vs. Washington (Oct. 17) ... finished game with 44.1-yard average and 44.9-yard net mark with seven boots for 309 yards and two efforts inside the 20-yard line ... Redskins' dangerous return specialist Brian Mitchell was limited to two punt returns that netted minus five yards and two fair catches ... 40-yarder in third quarter bounce off Washington's Darryl Pounds at midfield that Card teammate Mario Bates recovered ... career-high 10 punts in windy Giants Stadium at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) netted 34-yard average ... rebounded with 45-yard average on five efforts in 23-19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... impressive day vs. Dallas (Nov. 21) with 42.2-yard average on five punts, including first-half boots of 51, 48, and 49 yards ... Sanders fielded just one punt and ran out of bounds after five yards ... also did fine job of baiting Cowboy rushers on first-quarter fake punt as he feigned high snap over his head as up-back Pat Tillman took the snap from center Trey Junkin and ran up the middle for four yards and a first down ... also took intentional safety near end of the 13-9 win as he ran 14 seconds off the clock late in fourth quarter, then knocked Sanders out of bounds after the ensuing free kick ... punts of 39, season-long 60, 52, and 53 yards translated into season-best 51-yard average in 21-17 win over Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... three punts for 44.3-yard average at Atlanta (Dec. 26) ... concluded season with three for 43.3-yard average and two inside-the-20 efforts at Green Bay (Jan. 2). X1998: As a 28-year-old NFL "rookie," punted 81 times for 3,378 yards which translated into rankings of 11th in NFC in gross average (41.7 yards) and 10th in net (35.9 yards) ... ranked third in NFC with just six touchbacks in 81 punts for 7.4 percent mark ... also dropped 12 punts inside the 20-yard line ... one blocked punt ... hit the ground running in first NFL game at Dallas (Sept. 6) with six punts for 44.2-yard average in first half, eight for 46-yard mark for the day ... suffered calf muscle pull on scout team in practice Wednesday prior to game vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) ... after considerable treatment throughout week, able to kick by Friday and managed seven punts for 36.4-yard average vs. Eagles ... first two punts were good for 46 and 50 yards, but final five showed effects of the calf injury ... steady effort with five punts for 40-yard average and 39.6-yard net in 20-17 win at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... best effort since season opener with 44-yard average on six punts vs. Oakland (Oct. 4), including three inside-the-20 efforts ... punted for 41 and 55 yards in first half vs. Chicago (Oct. 11) ... fourth-quarter punt blocked by Ricky Bell, only to have teammate Ronald McKinnon snatch the ball out of the air and run for a first down ... closed game with season-long 67-yarder to the Bear three-yard line with 1:15 left in 20-7 win ... solid 42.6-yard average and 35.2-yard net mark vs. the N.Y. Giants at the Meadowlands (Oct. 18) ... rose to the challenge of Cowboy returner Sanders vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with directional boots of 48 and 46 yards ... the former pinned Sanders on the sideline for a one-yard return, the latter was downed ... outstanding 47-yard gross and 46.5-yard net average for the day ... punted three times for 39.7-yard average in first half at Washington (Nov. 22), including a 47-yarder in first quarter that Redskin Brian Mitchell muffed and Cards recovered and converted into 3-0 lead ... later booted 20-yarder to the Redskin 16-yard line with 1:30 left as Cards were treading water against Redskins' relentless comeback from 31-point deficit to pull within 45-42 ... however, Washington was penalized for 12 men on the field on that fourth-and-six play, giving Arizona a fourth-and-one that was stopped by Washington ... impressive game at Kansas City (Nov. 29) with 46.8-yard average on five punts, including first half boots of 52, 51, and 51 yards ... after kicker Joe Nedney was injured on fourth-quarter kickoff that had to be re-kicked due to offsides penalty, handled the place-kicking duty, a squib kick the Chiefs covered on their own 33-yard line ... had to re-kick his first attempt, however, when he booted the ball before the referee gave him the signal to put the ball in play ... averaged 43.4 yards on seven punts with one inside the 20-yard line in 16-13 win over San Diego (Dec. 27), his best average in four weeks and top net (39.4) since Nov. 15 vs. Dallas (46.5) ... unspectacular but near-flawless effort in 20-7 wild card victory at Dallas (Jan. 2) with eight punts for 37.9-yard average and three inside-the-20 efforts at the 11, 10, and 1-yard lines ... forced Sanders into two fair catches, Tyrone Hughes into one, and allowed Hughes one 11-yard return until Sanders shook loose for a 41-yard return in the fourth quarter to set up Dallas' only touchdown of the game ... capped the victory with 36-yard punt with one minute left that Fred Brock downed at the one-yard line ... two punts for 36-yard average in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10).

XCollege/Personal: Former walk-on at Florida State University (F.S.U.) ... originally played collegiate baseball (catcher) in Florida at Flagler College and Florida Community College ... rotator cuff injury later stalled baseball career ... despite F.S.U. having two punters on scholarship, handed the punting duties as a senior ... punted 45 times for 1,820 yards, good for a 40.4-yard average for the 11-2 Seminoles ... in 1991 season-ending 14-9 loss to Florida, posted 50-yard average on six punts, highlighted by two 60-yarders and a 57-yarder ... played football and baseball at St. Augustine (Fla.) High School ... interests include classic cars and golf ... owns bachelor's degree in education from F.S.U. ... wife Julianne ... born Dec. 17, 1969 in St. Augustine.

XPro Career: Hometown hero who starred as a collegian at Arizona State University (A.S.U.) has emerged as one of the NFL's brightest young stars ... in 1998, his first full season as a starter, guided Cardinals to their first playoff appearance since 1982 and their first postseason victory since 1947 ... elected offensive co-captain by his teammates during 1998 training camp at 23 years of age with just 10 NFL games (nine starts) under his belt ... uncanny ability to produce amid the mayhem and pressure of last-minute situations ... in 38 pro games, has led Cards to 11 comeback victories (defined as tied or trailing in the fourth quarter or overtime) ... suffered through frustrating 1999 season that included finger, thumb, hip, and groin injuries ... in 38 NFL games (36 starts), has completed 682 of 1,224 passes (.557) for 8,051 yards with 41 touchdowns and 59 interceptions ... also owns 554 rushing yards on 129 attempts with eight scores, including four in 1998, the most by Cardinal quarterback in over 20 years. X1999: Five-week absence due to pre-season thumb injury and mid-season broken finger—both on his right (throwing) hand—dashed expectations ... suffered sprained thumb in second preseason game, broken finger in mid-season, and nagging hip and groin injuries spelled frustrating campaign as NFL's lowest-rated passer at 50.8 with 201 completions in 381 attempts (52.8 percent) for 2,111 yards, 9 touchdowns, and league-leading 24 interceptions ... the 24 interceptions were the most by a Card quarterback since Jim Hart's 30 pickoffs in 1967 ... troubles began in preseason vs. Tennessee (Aug. 20) ... early in first quarter, while Titan defensive end Mike Jones was sacking Plummer, defensive tackle Jason Fisk slapped at the ball in Plummer's hand and yanked his thumb ... diagnosed with a sprained thumb, Plummer saw little or no practice time in the coming weeks while the injury healed ... threw just 10 passes in preseason play due to the sprained thumb ... inactivity was obvious over the first six weeks of the regular season as he completed just 93 of 181 passes (51.4 percent) for 928 yards, 3 touchdowns, and 14 interceptions ... broken finger vs. Washington (Oct. 17) forced him to miss five starts ... in the week leading up to his return to action in second half at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28), had participated in just nine practices since preseason due to the myriad of injuries ... shook off nightmarish first quarter in season-opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) of 2-9-15 with two interceptions to rally Cards from 21-0 deficit to thrilling 25-24 victory, his 10th fourth-quarter comeback in just 27 pro starting assignments ... both first-quarter interceptions led to Eagle touchdowns ... finished the first half 10-25-78 with three interceptions ... found his rhythm in the third quarter with 10 completions in 14 attempts for 105 yards, including a perfect five-for-five for 58 yards on third down ... responded in comeback bid with outstanding first-down efforts in fourth quarter, another perfect showing with four completions in as many attempts for 71 yards, including a 47-yarder to wide receiver Rob Moore to the Eagle 18-yard line, then a strike to Moore on a slant between two defenders for a 20-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 24-22 with 4:03 to play ... key play was a naked bootleg on second-and-11 at Eagle the 21-yard line with 1:24 left when he scooted around right end before being pushed out of bounds at the four-yard line, a call only he and offensive coordinator Marc Trestman knew would be a Plummer bootleg ... three kneeldowns set up Chris Jacke's game-winning 31-yard field goal as time expired ... by his own admission, Plummer endured perhaps his worst game as a pro at Miami (Sept. 19) the next week with just 11 completions in 27 attempts, four interceptions, and numerous poor throws ... tender throwing thumb dictated back-up Dave Brown take nearly all the snaps during team drills during the week ... once again started slowly vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) with first-half numbers of 8-17-85, 1 interception, and 4 sacks ... opened second half with supportive running game on opening series of the third quarter in 11-play, 80-yard touchdown drive as he connected on two of three passes for 20 yards ... also dove for 10 yards on third-and-11 in fourth quarter, then converted the fourth-and-one with one-yard dive for a first down at own 44-yard line with five minutes left ... struggled out of the starting blocks again at Dallas (Oct. 3) as third-down pass bounced off wide receiver Andy McCullough's hands into the arms of Cowboy safety George Teague, who raced 32 yards for a touchdown on the Cards' third play from scrimmage ... finished the game with 16 completions in 33 attempts for 111 yards, 1 touchdown, and 3 interceptions ... all three interceptions bounced off the hands of Cardinal receivers ... completed two-yard scoring toss to rookie fullback Joel Makovicka to cap 38-yard scoring drive in second quarter, one play after finding wide receiver Frank

Sanders for 26-yard gain with 24 seconds left in first half ... found his rhythm with first-half numbers of 13-17-156 vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10), including seven connections for 98 yards and a touchdown to rookie wide receiver David Boston and five tosses for 37 yards to Sanders ... also sneaked over goal line from one-yard away near end of first half to give Cards 14-0 lead that held up in the 14-3 win ... attempted just two passes in second half ... sandwiched between Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead and defensive end Michael Strahan on third-and-10 scramble on third play of second half, however, suffering bruised left hip that sent him to the locker room for four series as Brown relieved ... with x-rays clean, returned for final two series and finished the game, his first of the year without interception ... practiced only briefly during week prior to home game against Washington (Oct. 17) due to left hip and right rib injuries ... looked sharp in first quarter with six completions in nine attempts for 50 yards, taking the Cardinals 52 yards in 12 plays to the Redskin 27-yard line for a field goal and 3-0 lead ... midway through second quarter, however, made mistake on out route to Boston that Redskin rookie cornerback Champ Bailey intercepted and returned 59 yards for a touchdown ... on ensuing possession, Moore broke wide open behind the Redskin rookie, but underthrew the ball on the run, leading to Bailey's second interception ... on opening possession of second half, sacked by Washington linebacker Shawn Barber who came in untouched on fierce blindside hit ... Plummer's ring finger on his right hand lodged between Barber's facemask and helmet, bent sideways ... in-stadium x-rays disclosed a spiral fracture that sidelined Plummer indefinitely ... declared inactive the next four weeks as Brown saw his first starts in a Cardinal uniform ... Plummer returned to action by opening the second half at the Meadowlands vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) in relief of Brown with Cards down 10-6 at halftime ... on second possession following a turnover, guided Cards 16 yards in five plays to a touchdown with two-yard toss in left corner of end zone that Moore stole from Giant defender to give Cards 13-10 lead ... connected with tight end Johnny McWilliams for nine-yard touchdown toss to open fourth quarter and extend Card lead to 20-10, completing five consecutive passes on the drive ... again responded with nine-play, 60-yard drive and 27-17 lead with four minutes left, key plays an 11-yard toss to Sanders to convert third-and-eight situation, then 23-yarder to running back Adrian Murrell on next play to the Giant 24-yard line five plays before running back Mario Bates vaulted over from two yards out in 34-24 win ... back in starting saddle the next week vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... after three quarters, had completed just eight of 15 passes for 53 yards and faced a 17-7 deficit ... with 10:50 left in the game, Cards had managed just 79 yards offense to the Eagles' 252 yards ... rallied the Cards in the fourth quarter with two touchdowns in the final five minutes for his 11th come-from-behind victory by completing 12 of 19 passes for 126 yards, throwing for one touchdown and running for another, in 21-17 win ... took Cards on consecutive scoring drives in final stanza ... commanded 16-play, 80-yard drive climaxed by four-yard scoring toss to Boston in right corner of the end zone on scrambling throw as he changed the play at the line of scrimmage ... then guided club on 69-yard, eight-play drive he finished with one-yard sneak for the score to give Cards 21-17 lead with less than a minute to play ... on the first drive, perfect four-for-four to convert third-down situations, then added two more third-down conversions with completions on game-winning drive, highlighted by a 38-yard diving catch by Sanders to the one-yard line to set up the quarterback sneak on the next play ... overall, 11-12 on third-down passing (100 yards) ... the rally marked Plummer's fourth consecutive comeback against Philadelphia ... miserable effort at Washington (Dec. 12) with sub-50 percent completion mark (15 completions, 32 attempts) 147 passing yards, 5 sacks, and 3 interceptions for fourth time in 1999 ... performed admirably against Buffalo's third-rated defense with 11 completions in 30 attempts for 119 yards (Dec. 19) ... only interception occurred on game-ending desperation play ... down 24-14 with 3:01 to play, took Cards 65 yards on six plays, including a 13-yard third-and-10 completion to Boston near midfield, found Sanders for 26 yards on the next play, then connected with Moore for 26-yard scoring strike with two minutes left to cut Buffalo lead to 24-21 ... came out smoking at Atlanta (Dec. 26) with 7-8-75 first quarter and 10-14-116 first half, guiding Cards to scoring drives of 86 yards (13 plays) and 74 yards (8 plays) and 14-7 lead in second quarter ... three third-down runs of 5, 2, and 2 yards produced first downs ... threw ill-advised interception near end of first half as Atlanta converted the turnover into field goal and 20-14 lead at intermission ... other interception was desperation pass near end of game ... impressive showing on first-down plays with 11-13-179 as only misfires were an incompletion and game-ending interception ... also connected with Sanders for 63-yard gain in fourth quarter ... concluded frustrating, injury-plagued season with career-high 35 completions in 57 attempts for 396 yards (second highest) and a pair of touchdowns against three interceptions at Green Bay (Jan. 2) ... excellent first-down results (20-29-246) ... after a first half of 15 completions in 27 attempts for 149 yards and two interceptions, heated up in second half with 20

completions in 30 pass attempts for 247 yards and two scores ... seven times converted third-down situations with pass completions for first-down yardage and showed authority on his passes and good decision-making in three second-half scoring drives for touchdowns, two with scoring passes of six yards to Sanders and nine yards to Mae Cody ... first interception slipped through the hands of Sanders, the second was batted at the line of scrimmage, spelling his fifth game of the season with three or more interceptions. X1998: Earned Pro Bowl alternate status ... ranked second in NFC with 547 pass attempts and 324 completions to Green Bay's Brett Favre (347-551) ... guided Cards to single-season league record seven wins in eight games decided by three points or less ... franchise-record 15 consecutive completions to open second half of 29-27 win vs. Washington (Nov. 8) ... 16-17-138 in second half vs. Redskins ... in second half of consecutive comeback victories at Detroit (Nov. 1) and vs. Washington (Nov. 8), combined to complete 26 of 33 pass attempts for 292 yards ... opened season just three-for-nine in first quarter at Dallas (Sept. 6), finished first half 7-15-53 yards with two sacks, and lost a fumble on a fierce blind-side hit by Cowboy Hurvin McCormack near midfield late in the second quarter ... warmed up in third period with four-of-nine accuracy for 91 yards and long connections of 41 and 27 yards to Moore on opening drive of second half, but misfired to wide open Sanders in back of end zone as Cards settled for a field goal ... two series later, scored on one-yard keeper as he dove to the goal-line pylon to bring Cards within 21-10 at end of third period ... finished with 14 completions in 36 attempts for 166 yards ... suffered sub-par performance at Seattle (Sept. 13) against fierce Seahawk pass rush that sacked him seven times and pressured him throughout the game ... two interceptions returned for touchdowns of 56 and 28 yards ... impressive in first half with seven-of-10 accuracy for 79 yards but was sacked five times and had one pass returned by Seattle for a score ... brought Cards to within 20-7 in third quarter, however, but again sacked twice late in third period as Seattle scored on ensuing possession, then returned the second interception for a touchdown to balloon its advantage to 33-7 in eventual 33-14 Arizona loss ... showed patience with just 137 yards passing on 35 attempts (21 completions) in home opener vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) ... connected on key seven-yard scoring play to McWilliams on third-and-seven play with seven minutes left to give Cards 10-3 lead ... on next drive, found McWilliams again on third down for 26 yards to midfield as Cards eventually scored for 17-3 final ... efficient, near error-free game at St. Louis (Sept. 27) with 211 yards on 21-31 accuracy with 1 touchdown, 1 interception, and 1 sack in 20-17 victory ... connected with Sanders for 13-yard scoring play in second quarter on fine throw and catch on fade route in back corner of end zone ... later sealed game by completing final five passes, including four-for-four marksmanship for 21 yards on game-winning 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive for 20-17 lead at four-minute mark ... later threaded a seven-yarder to Sanders on third-and-six play after the two-minute warning to maintain possession and run out the clock ... opened vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) with three completions in first four attempts for 23 yards in first quarter and battled through two early sacks ... found McWilliams for two-yard scoring toss and threaded a rope to Moore in back of end zone for 13-yard score midway through second quarter ... endured forgettable second quarter with 46-yard interception return for a touchdown by Raider cornerback Charles Woodson with five minutes left in first half ... on next possession, another interception at his own 32-yard line was returned to the Cards' four-yard line as Oakland converted three plays later for 23-14 halftime lead ... finished the game with 23 completions in 39 attempts for 208 yards ... 72 percent completion vs. Chicago (Oct. 11) with 18-25 effort for 157 yards ... outstanding third-down numbers of seven completions in 10 attempts for 67 yards ... twice converted fourth-and-short plays with quarterback sneaks of one and three yards ... the first kept a drive going for eventual touchdown and 10-0 lead in first half ... later converted third-and-seven situation at Chicago 11-yard line with nine-yard throw to Sanders on crossing pattern beneath linebacker to set up Bates' second score and 17-0 Card lead in eventual 20-7 triumph ... frustrating, error-filled game at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 18) as he tossed two interceptions, was sacked seven times, lost a fumble, and connected on just 12 of 21 attempts for 139 yards ... frustration on eight first-down plays—five sacks and just one completion in three pass attempts for only 10 yards ... relieved by veteran Brown midway through fourth quarter on Cards' final possession ... weathered inauspicious start at Detroit (Nov. 1) to engineer hard-fought 17-15 victory against pressing Lion defense ... in first quarter, sacked on three consecutive third-down plays, once after guard Jerome Daniels stepped on his foot, fumbled twice (losing one), and tossed an interception to open second quarter that Detroit converted into a field goal and 3-0 lead, ... regrouped, however, and tossed 16-yard scoring pass to Sanders midway through second period, finishing the first half with five completions in nine attempts for 44 yards with 4 sacks, 1 interception, and 1 lost fumble ... came out in second half throwing with 28-yard completion to Moore on first play after intermission ... on next possession, hit Moore for 21 yards, McWilliams for 19, then found Moore over the middle in the end zone from 36 yards to give Cards a 14-9 lead ... guided team into field goal range in fourth quarter with nine-yard toss to Moore, runs of five and three yards by backs Larry Centers and Bates, a 14-yard completion to Centers, and two four-yard tosses to wide receiver Eric Metcalf to the Lion 35-yard line as kicker Joe Nedney booted home the game-winner from 53 yards with 2:46 left ... finished contest with 15 completions in 25 attempts for 198 yards ... after non-descript first half of six completions in 13 attempts for 48 yards vs. Washington (Nov. 8), opened second half in record-breaking fashion with 15 consecutive completions to set club record ... 16 completions in 17 attempts for 138 yards in second half, 22 connections, 30 attempts, 186 yards overall for single-game best 73.3 completion percentage in 29-27 win ... tossed four-yard touchdown pass to Centers in third quarter, but saved his best for last when he took Cards 50 yards in five plays and 22 seconds to set up the game-winning field goal with two seconds left ... key play occurred in first half on third-and-seven play at Redskin 24-yard line when he ran for 16 yards on quarterback draw up the middle to the Washington eight-yard line as Cards scored three plays later to pull within 10-7 ... also scrambled for 27 yards to Redskin 22-yard line in opening drive of second half to set up another touchdown when he called his own number unbeknownst to his teammates ... playing before a national television audience and sold-out Sun Devil Stadium vs. Dallas (Nov. 15), authored one of the most improbable comeback efforts in recent NFL history ... rallied Cards from 28-0 deficit with 465 passing yards—314 in the second half—in furious comeback to within 35-28 and possession of the football on the Cowboy five-yard line ... had either of the two game-ending end zone incompletions been completed and led to a Cardinal victory, the outcome would have equalled the greatest regular-season comeback in NFL history, matching an effort authored by a quarterback to whom Plummer is frequently compared—Joe Montana—vs. New Orleans, Dec. 7, 1980 when the 49ers overcame a 35-7 deficit and won 38-35 in overtime ... in second half, completed 18 of 33 attempts for 314 yards and two touchdowns ... the 465 passing yards set a Sun Devil Stadium NFL high and ranked third overall in Cardinal history, trailing only 522 yards by Boomer Esiason at Washington (1996) and 468 by Neil Lomax at Washington (1984) ... the 56 attempts rank fourth in team history, 31 completions rate eighth ... 465 passing yards is just five yards shy of most by second-year player in NFL history behind Dan Marino (470 in 1984), Vinny Testaverde (469 in 1988), and Johnny Lujack (468 in 1949) ... finished first half in non-descript manner with 13 completions in 25 attempts for 151 yards ... down 28-0, came out throwing on scoring drive at end of first half ... marched the Cards 74 yards in 11 plays, capped by two-yard scoring toss to Sanders to shave lead to 28-7 at intermission ... opened second half with consecutive touchdown drives of 60 and 73 yards, the first capped by a two-yard Bates run, the second a four-yard touchdown toss to Moore to cut the Dallas lead to 35-21 ... marched Cards 70 yards in eight plays and only one minute, 30 seconds at 4:39 mark of fourth quarter to pull within 35-28 ... Arizona regained possession of the ball with 52 seconds left at its own 22-yard line with no timeouts left ... connected with Metcalf for 16 yards, and after an incompletion, found Moore deep over the middle for a 57-yard gain to the Cowboy five-yard line as clock ticked down ... a spike stopped the clock with 11 seconds left, and after an incompletion near the back of the end zone toward Sanders, three seconds remained ... lofted a fade to Moore with Dallas defender Kevin Smith's back turned to the play, but a no-call for pass interference ended the storybook comeback ... finished with 31 completions in 56 attempts for 465 yards and three touchdowns ... the next week using a variety of rollouts and scrambles to buy time to find his receivers at Washington (Nov. 22), along with mixing in the no-huddle offense, pushed Cards to 31-0 lead in first half, but saw Redskins stage improbable comeback in wild 45-42 Arizona victory ... connected on eight of 16 attempts for 154 yards and a touchdown in first half, and added scoring runs of 10 and one yards as Arizona vaulted to 31-6 lead at halftime ... found Centers in the back corner of the end zone following a scramble to daylight in third quarter as he evaded a sack attempt by Redskins lineman Kenard Lang for nine-yard scoring pass to give Cards 38-13 lead with 4:01 left in third period ... after Washington scored on next three possessions to pull within 38-35 with nine minutes left, took Cards 55 yards in 10 plays, capped by a one-yard sneak for his third touchdown of the game and 45-35 advantage ... key play in that drive was a 35-yard pass to Sanders who eluded three Redskin defenders to shake free ... finished with 17 completions, 28 attempts, 251 yards with two touchdowns and one interception ... three rushing touchdowns were most by an NFL quarterback since Saint Archie Manning vs. Chicago (Oct. 2, 1977) ... completed 20 of 37 attempts for 250 yards with one touchdown plus two interceptions at Kansas City (Nov. 29) as Cards battled poor field position (average drive start was own 21-yard line) and played catch-up the entire game ... fired completions of 13, 11, 18 yards in second quarter scoring drive to get Cards on the board ... then connected on five of six passes for 61 yards in touchdown drive in second quarter, capped by a

10-yard toss to Moore to cut Chiefs' lead to 14-10 at halftime ... found wide open Sanders over the middle for 40-yard gain to set up third-period touchdown ... sacked five times, however, and saw winds gusting to 35 mph carry his passes away from open receivers on numerous occasions ... though first play from scrimmage vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) was an aborted play, regrouped in grand fashion with 108 yards passing in first quarter (five completions in nine attempts), including 20-yard shovel pass scoring play to running back Adrian Murrell and another short pass, long run of 54 yards to Centers ... then suffered through stretch of 11 consecutive incompletions before righting the ship in fourth quarter ... finished with 18 completions in 40 attempts for 263 yards ... waved the magic wand again at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) with his seventh fourth-quarter comeback victory in just 23 NFL starts, a 20-17 overtime win ... in first half, completed five of nine attempts for 65 yards, then responded in second half with 13 completions in 17 attempts for 169 yards ... completed eight of final 10 pass attempts in fourth quarter and overtime, including a nine-yard scoring strike to Moore, a 30-yard completion to Moore in overtime, and a perfect fade route to Moore for 16 yards three plays later to set up the game-winning field goal ... celebrated his 24th birthday (Dec. 19) with another impressive comeback effort as he took Cards 73 yards on six plays with just 1:21 left to allow kicker Chris Jacke to nail game-winning 36-yard field goal as time expired in 19-17 win over New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... started game red hot with 22 completions in 30 attempts for 239 yards in first half, including eight connections for 85 yards to Sanders ... but Cards faced 10-6 deficit after New Orleans' Sammy Knight returned a second-quarter interception 39 yards for a touchdown ... rose to the challenge in fourth quarter, facing 17-16 deficit with 1:21 to play ... backed up to his own eight-yard line, connected with Sanders over the middle for gains of 25 and 28 yards on consecutive plays ... following a procedure penalty that resulted in a second-and-15 near midfield, scrambled up the middle for 21 yards to the New Orleans 23-yard line, ran a quarterback keeper for four yards with 30 seconds left, then saw Jacke send home the game-winning points ... completed 22 of 30 passes for 239 yards in first half, finishing 32 of 44 for 394 yards ... amazingly, posted first-down numbers of 19 of 24 for 293 yards ... honored as NFL player-of-the-week by Miller Lite ... capped improbable season in unlikely fashion in finale vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) ... delivered the Cardinal franchise its first post-season berth since 1982 by completing 10-yard pass to Sanders with three seconds left to set up a 52-yard game-winning field goal by Jacke in 16-13 win ... started game with only one completion for eight yards in first five attempts ... later settled down to connect on 10 of 14 tosses for 150 yards as the half ended with two key plays ... connected with Centers for 23-yard gain on third-and-nine play in first-quarter scoring drive for a touch-down ... later in first half completed 20-yarder to Sanders on third-and-15 play as Cards settled for field goal and 10-0 lead ... started slowly again in second half with four consecutive incompletions and a sack ... after San Diego tied game at 13-13 with fourth-and-20 touchdown pass with 16 seconds left, came through in the clutch on the final toss to Sanders after Metcalf's 46-yard kickoff return to set up Jacke's game-winning kick ... guided Arizona to its first postseason victory in 51 seasons as he led the way in a 20-7 upset victory in the wild card playoff win at Dallas (Jan. 2) ... connected on 19 of 36 pass attempts for 213 yards while avoiding a sack for only the second time in 1998 ... started game with four completions in first six attempts, highlighted by a 59-yard connection with Sanders over the middle to the Cowboy 14-yard line ... completed the scoring drive when he patiently drew the Dallas defense on a blitz before delivering a perfect shovel pass to Murrell, who danced into the end zone untouched from 12 yards out for a 7-0 lead ... in second quarter, completed eight of 14 attempts for 82 yards with one interception ... near end of first half, connected with Moore for 15 yards on third-and-10 play, found Metcalf over the middle for another 20 yards, then set up a field goal with seven-yard completion to Centers as Cards converted field goal for 10-0 halftime lead ... finished first half with 12 completions in 20 attempts for 165 yards ... on first possession of second half after Murrell dashed 74 yards to the Dallas three-yard line, found Centers in the back of the end zone on the right side for three-yard scoring toss and 17-0 lead ... completed two more third-down passes for first-down yardage in time-consuming possession near end of third quarter ... successfully eluded the Dallas pass rush and bought time scrambling away from pressure, capping the upset win with two kneel-downs at the Cowboy two-yard line as time expired ... suffered through a nightmarish start in divisional playoff at Minnesota (Jan. 10) with no completions in four attempts and two interceptions by the midway point of the second quarter ... after Vikings sailed to 17-0 lead, regrouped to guide Cards on 13-play, 80-yard scoring drive that consumed 7:52 and cut deficit to 17-7 ... connected on five of six passes for 59 yards on the drive, twice hitting receivers to convert third-down yardage and keep drive alive ... after first-half stats of six completions in 12 attempts for 65 yards with two interceptions, settled down in second half to complete 17 of 29 passes for 177 yards ... selected to All-Madden team ... rewarded each offensive linemen with a digital video disc player for Christmas. ✕1997:

Established himself, to quote former San Francisco 49er Head Coach and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Walsh, as " ... one of the bright young stars in the NFL in years ... " with a memorable rookie season ... opened season as the third quarterback behind starter Kent Graham and backup Stoney Case ... after Graham started the first six games and yielded to Case due to a knee injury, Plummer received his first NFL action in week seven at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... he never looked back ... in 10 appearances (nine starts), recorded Cardinal rookie passing records by completing 157 of 296 passes (53 percent) for 2,203 yards and 52 touchdowns with 15 interceptions ... sacked 15 times during rookie season (-291 yards) in 10 games (nine starts) ... in what amounted to little more than one-half of a season, nearly equalled the season touchdown pass totals of such marquee quarterbacks as San Francisco's Steve Young (19), Dallas' Troy Aikman (19), Detroit's Scott Mitchell (19), Jacksonville's Mark Brunell (18), Baltimore's Vinny Testaverde (18), Washington's Gus Frerotte (17), and Miami's Dan Marino (16) ... average per attempt of 7.44 yards ranked sixth in the league, bettering Denver's John Elway (7.24), New England's Drew Bledsoe (7.10), Seattle's Warren Moon (6.97), Marino (6.90), Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (6.86), Mitchell (6.84), Minnesota's Rob Johnson (6.72), Frerotte (6.67), Tampa Bay's Trent Dilfer (6.62), Tennessee's Steve McNair (6.42), Aikman (6.34), Chicago's Erik Kramer (6.31), and the N.Y. Giants' Danny Kanell (5.92) ... led the league with an average-per-completion mark of 14 yards, a full one-half yard ahead of Oakland long-baller Jeff George (13.5) ... in just his fourth NFL start against the N.Y. Giants at the Meadowlands (Nov. 16), set an NFL rookie single-game passing record with 388 yards, breaking Aikman's previous mark (379 yards) established against the Cardinals in 1989 ... four touchdown passes vs. Washington (Dec. 7) were most by NFL rookie since Bledsoe also notched four in 1993 ... joined Aikman, Bledsoe, and Jim Plunkett as the only NFL quarterbacks to throw four touchdown passes in one game as a rookie (all three later led their teams to the Super Bowl) ... named NFC offensive rookie-of-the-month for November with 76 completions in 133 attempts (57.1 percent) for 1,156 yards and five touchdowns, a passer rating of 82.7 ... concluded pre-season play with 16 completions in 43 attempts for 218 yards with four interceptions ... inactive third quarterback first six games ... in first NFL appearance, provided a spark at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) as Card offense faltered into the fourth quarter ... entered game at 10:26 of the fourth quarter in hostile, loud Veterans Stadium with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line ... marched the Cards 98 yards for a touchdown in 14 plays, the longest touchdown drive in the NFL in 1997, in his first NFL series ... also became the first NFL quarterback to take his team more than 66 yards for a score in his opening possession ... after Centers bolted for an eight-yard gain, converted third-and-two play with five-yard gain on rollout ... capped with a 31-yard slant pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams for a touchdown that gave the Cards a 10-7 lead with 3:07 left to play ... after Cards won the overtime coin toss, scrambled 18 yards to the Eagle 40-yard line on the first play from scrimmage ... on next play he was whistled for intentional grounding when his pass attempt hit Centers' feet, pushing the ball back to the Cards' 43-yard line ... Arizona punted and Philadelphia drove for the game-winning field goal and its 13-7 win ... forgettable first NFL start the following week vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) in Sun Devil Stadium with 21 completions in 40 attempts for 195 yards ... 4 interceptions, 1 lost fumble, and 6 sacks ... managed two touchdown passes to Moore (12, two yards) and recorded 34 yards rushing on six attempts ... struggled in first half against constant Oiler blitzes with five-for-13 accuracy for only 56 yards with three interceptions, the first of which was returned 39 yards for a touchdown by Oiler cornerback Denard Walker ... second consecutive start in return match vs. Eagles (Nov. 2) ... struggled through three quarters ... Graham relieved him in the fourth period of Cards' 31-21 victory ... connected with Moore on impressive 31-yard scoring strike in third quarter ... completed 13 of 22 attempts for 148 yards at Dallas (Nov. 9) and gained 51 yards on seven rushing attempts, but suffered eight sacks ... established NFL rookie passing mark at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) with 388 yards on 22 completions in 33 attempts ... impressive nine completions in 11 attempts for 133 yards in first half and guided Cards to six of nine third-down conversion success ... answered with 12 of 22 for 255 yards in second half ... scrambled away from pressure for 70-yard scoring toss to Sanders on third play of the second half, Arizona's longest play from scrimmage in 1997 ... endured another pounding with eight sacks, pushing his total to 16 over two games ... fought through frustrating first half at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with just seven completions, 15 attempts, 64 yards, and 2 sacks ... responded in second half to connect with Sanders on four-yard touchdown pass on fourth down with four minutes left in the game ... took Cards 55 yards in six plays and 34 seconds with four completions in five attempts to set up game-winning 43-yard field goal ... also suffered just two sacks after hitting the turf 16 times in previous two games ... endured rough first half with just three completions in nine attempts for 53 yards and sacked five times vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... bounced back in second half with 12-for-17 marksmanship for 217 yards and two passing touchdowns, including one stretch of eight consecutive completions (two in second quarter, six in third quarter) ... guided Cards to touchdowns on first two possessions of second half with seven completions in eight attempts for 61 yards with scoring tosses to Sanders (three yards) and tight end Chris Gedney (11 yards) ... sacked by Steelers for team single-game high 10 times as Cards pushed sack total to team single-season mark of 66 ... smoked Washington's fourth-ranked pass defense, including talented cornerbacks Darrell Green and Cris Dishman, for 337 yards and four touchdowns vs. Redskins (Dec. 7) ... brought Cards back from numerous deficits along the way ... faced with a 17-0 hole in second quarter, took Arizona to two quick scores to narrow the lead to 17-14 at the half ... highlight of the game was a 37-yard touchdown toss to tight end Gedney in third quarter when Plummer rolled out on a naked bootleg, juked a Redskin defender in the flat, and delivered a perfect throw to the middle of the field ... saw Dishman return a third-quarter interception 29 yards for a touchdown and lost a fumble on a sack midway through the fourth quarter as Washington converted the turnover into a 38-28 lead ... became only the fourth rookie in NFL history to throw four touchdowns in a game (Rob Moore, 3; Gedney, 1), joining Plunkett, Aikman, and Bledsoe, all of whom eventually led their clubs to Super Bowl appearances ... cruised through impressive first half at New Orleans (Dec. 14) with 13-for-21 accuracy for 142 yards and just one sack ... guided Cards on impressive 15-play, 80-yard scoring march to open the game and stake Arizona to a 7-0 lead ... scrambled 10 yards for his first rushing touchdown as a pro to cap the drive in run reminiscent of his Rose Bowl touchdown against Ohio State as he stepped around numerous defenders and dove head first into the end zone ... in second half, however, managed just 4 pass completions, 16 attempts, 38 yards, 4 sacks, 1 fumble, and 2 interceptions ... also fumbled on a sack inside the Saints five-yard line near the end of the first half ... recorded first NFL pass completion to himself when he snared a batted pass on the same series in second period ... memorable performance in the season finale against Atlanta (Dec. 21) ... though he completed just nine of 20 attempts in the first half, tossed a one-yard scoring pass to Gedney and vaulted over from the one-yard line in the second quarter ... after a single possession in the third quarter resulted in two incomplete passes and a sack, regrouped for scintillating fourth-quarter comeback ... trailing 26-14 with less than eight minutes remaining, guided Cards 69 yards in eight plays with a 21-yard scoring toss to Moore to cut the lead to 26-21 with five minutes left ... worked his magic on a 12-play, 80-yard drive in the final two minutes, highlighted by a four-yard run to convert a fourth-and-one situation with 24 seconds left, and connected with Centers for a one-yard touchdown pass with nine ticks left on the clock for a 27-26 advantage ... capped the improbable finish with a two-point conversion run on the following play for the 29-26 final. ✕College/ Personal: Captured hearts and imagination of college football fans nationwide with his exciting, improvisational style that carried Arizona State to an undefeated 1996 regular season and the Rose Bowl ... third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish for a Pac-10 Conference player since Washington defensive tackle Steve Emtmann placed fourth in 1991 ... rare four-year starting quarterback as a collegian who started 40 consecutive games ... 15-8 record as a starter in Sun Devil Stadium (.652) ... arguably rates as the most popular football player in Sun Devil history ... the Cardinals' second-round (42nd overall) draft choice and the second quarterback selected behind Jim Druckenmiller of Virginia Tech, (San Francisco, first round, 26th overall) ... set A.S.U. career records for completions (632), pass attempts (1,142), and passing yards (8,827) ... the latter surpassed the mark (6,717 yards) of future Dallas Cowboy Danny White (1971-73) ... Plummer's 65 touchdown passes also surpassed White's Sun Devil record ... only Steve Stenstrom of Stanford (75 touchdowns, 1991-94) and John Elway of Stanford (77 touchdowns, 1979-82) threw more touchdown passes in Pac-10 Conference history ... consensus all-America selection and unanimous Pac-10 offensive player-of-the-year as a senior ... first A.S.U. player named Pac-10 Conference player-of-the-year ... completed 198 of 348 passes (56.9 percent) for 2,776 yards and 24 touchdowns ... also scored four touchdowns on 95 rushing attempts and posted a pivotal 16-yard touchdown reception at UCLA ... led the Sun Devils to a stunning 19-0 shutout of defending national champion Nebraska at Sun Devil Stadium, completing 20 of 36 passes for 292 yards ... it marked the Cornhuskers' first loss since the 1993 Orange Bowl and their first regular-season setback since a 19-10 defeat to Iowa State in 1992 ... the outcome also marked only the second time during Tom Osborne's 24-year Cornhusker coaching career his team was shut out ... first team all-Pac-10 Conference honors as a junior with 173 completions in 301 attempts for 2,222 yards and 17 touchdowns ... first true freshman quarterback in 1993 to start at Arizona State since John Walker in 1984 ... led A.S.U. to a 4-2 record as a freshman starter, including wins in four of the last five outings ... prep all-America at Capital High School in Boise, Idaho ... passed for 6,097 yards and 68 touchdowns in his final two years ... completed 205 of 297 passes (69 percent) and rushed for 645 yards and 10 scores as a senior ... two-time all-Idaho selection as quarterback and punter ... captained football and baseball teams as a senior ... brother, Brett, holds Brown University's 800-meter dash record ... created the Jake Plummer Foundation in 1999, founded to provide opportunities for children's causes as well as raise funds and generate awareness for Alzheimer's disease organizations ... Plummer's foundation holds a Bowl-O-Rama each spring in Phoenix ... the first two events in 1999-2000 raised over $100,000 for Arizona Biltmore Charities, Phoenix Children's Hospital, and the Alzheimer's Association ... 100 percent of proceeds from Jake Flakes (Famous Fixins, Inc.) benefits the Jake Plummer Foundation ... breakfast cereal also benefits his foundation ... cover subject for Sport Magazine's July, 1999 NFL preview issue ... established a scholarship fund at Capital High School in Boise to rebuild the physical plant for athletics ... held children's instructional camps in Tempe and Boise in 1999-2000 ... appeared on "Wheel of Fortune" game show in January, 1999 as one of 12 NFL players participating for their charities featured during Super Bowl week ... won the nationally-televised Quarterback Shootout during the past two off-seasons ... owns two basset hounds named Willis and Shelby ... avid golfer ... recreation major at Arizona State ... born Dec. 19, 1974 in Boise ... given name is Jason Steven Plummer.

XPro Career: One of the sleepers of the 1997 NFL Draft ... knee injury as a senior at Auburn dropped him to seventh-round draft status ... thick, powerful defensive lineman with impressive quickness and agility ... arrived in NFL as a defensive end, but quickly found a home at defensive tackle ... after token playing time early in 1997 season, impressed with increased snaps ... finished rookie season with 56 tackles (31 solos) ... six quarterback sacks in 1997 were a Cardinal rookie record for a defensive tackle and also led NFL rookie interior linemen ... followed with 74 tackles and nine sacks in 1998. X1999: Contract holdout, then early knee injury spoiled promising season ... after agreeing to one-year deal early in week prior to game vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27), played in nickel situations ... made fine play when he chased down running back Lawrence Phillips from backside on screen pass for one-yard gain in second quarter ... rotated at defensive tackle at Dallas (Oct. 3), providing one solo stop ...

declared inactive vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) after seeking second opinion on knee ailment ... inactive the following two weeks ... underwent arthroscopic procedure on right knee Oct. 25 ... placed on injured reserve Nov. 1 for remainder of season. X1998: Though ankle injury limited him to 14 games (13 starts), still led Card defensive linemen with 54 solo tackles (74 overall), including team-best eight tackles for loss ... finished second on club with nine sacks ... assumed burden of interior leadership after tackle partner Eric Swann was sidelined for the remainder of the season after the Oct. 18 game at the N.Y. Giants ... led defensive line with 4 solo stops, 2 assists, and 1 hurry in season opener at Dallas (Sept. 6) ... four tackles and a sack of Eagle passer Rodney Peete late in 17-3 win over Philadelphia (Sept. 20) ... four tackles and a hurry in 20-17 victory at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... six tackles and a pair of hurries vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) ... active, impact day with seven combined tackles, sacked Bear passer Erik Kramer in second quarter to force a punt, and recovered a fumble by Kramer at own 10-yard line after a sack by Swann in third quarter of 20-7 win over Chicago (Oct. 11) ... dynamite effort at Detroit (Nov. 1) with 10 combined tackles, three stops for loss, and sack of Lion passer Frank Reich with 1:57 to play as teammate Tony McCombs recovered the fumble and Cards ran out the clock in 17-15 win ... impressive play in first quarter when he dropped Lion speedster Barry Sanders for six-yard loss near midfield, then added another stop of Sanders for a four-yard loss later in the game ... key play early in fourth quarter on two-point conversion attempt when he trapped Reich as he was handing off to Sanders, forcing a fumble to foil the effort and keep the Cards' deficit at one point (15-14) ... set the tone for his second straight fine outing when he dropped Washington tailback Skip Hicks for three-yard loss on first play of game vs. Washington (Nov. 8) ... added a fourth-quarter sack to force Washington to punt from own end zone as ball was long-snapped out of the end zone for a safety in 29-27 Cardinal win ... active day vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with 7 tackles, 1 hurry, 1 deflected pass at the line of scrimmage, and 1 fourth-quarter tackle for loss of Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith ... strong inside game at Washington (Nov. 22) produced 2 sacks, 4 overall tackles, and 2 hurries in 45-42 win ... fourth-quarter drop of Chief passer Rich Gannon at Kansas City (Nov. 29) gave Smith five sacks in five games ... also contributed seven solo tackles and four assists for career-high 11 tackles ... two tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) before low block by Giant tackle Roman Oben sent him crashing to the ground ... left game with a severe ankle sprain and was inactive for next two contests at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) and vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... returned for season finale vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) and provided Cards a push in the middle on passing downs with a pair of fourth-quarter sacks and four tackles overall ... also batted down one pass at the line of scrimmage in 16-13 post-season-clinching victory ... first sack in final period came on third-and-two situation at Card seven-yard line as Chargers had to settle for a field goal and 13-6 deficit ... other sack was on San Diego's final possession to force a second-and-20, only to see Chargers complete 309-yard fourth-down pass for a touchdown ... also nailed Charger running back Tremayne Stephens for one-yard loss in fourth quarter ... made his presence known in the middle at Dallas (Jan. 2) with 5 tackles, 1 stop for loss, and 1 hurry in 20-7 wild-card victory ... rotated with Bernard Wilson at tackle in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10). X1997: Earned numerous all-rookie honors at tackle ... 56 tackles and six sacks in 16 games with four starting roles ... ranked third on team with 12 quarterback hurries ... also knocked down five passes at the line of scrimmage and forced two fumbles ... no tackles in first pro game at Cincinnati (Aug. 31)

... two stops at Washington (Sept. 14) ... first NFL sack at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) on fourth-and-11 play near midfield at the end of the first half ... continued to make the most of limited playing time with five tackles and a deflected pass vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) ... two tackles and impressive back-to-back plays near end of the game at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... batted down a pass at the line of scrimmage, then sacked Eagle passer Rodney Peete for an eight-yard loss on the next play ... also batted down a pass at the start of the drive ... 4 tackles, 3 hurries, and 2 batted passes in 31-21 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) ... in first NFL start at Dallas (Nov. 9) with Swann (hamstring) out, collected five tackles and a hurry ... four solo stops and three assists at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) as he rotated with starter Brad Ottis ... three tackles in 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) and forced Raven quarterback Vinny Testaverde to fumble on a fourth-quarter sack that Ravens recovered ... four tackles vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) and sacked quarterback Kordell Stewart in the second period ... starting role in place of Wilson vs. Washington (Dec. 7), managing three solo tackles ... season-best eight tackles in second consecutive starting role at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... saved best for last in season finale vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21) with 4 solo stops, 2 assists, 2 sacks, and 4 hurries in 29-26 victory ... nailed Falcon passer Chris Chandler twice in opening drive of the second half as Atlanta settled for a field goal and a 20-14 lead ... later teamed with linebacker Mike Caldwell to stop Falcon running back Jamal Anderson for a three-yard gain in the fourth quarter, again limiting Atlanta to just a field goal after getting to the Cards' eight-yard line with five minutes remaining. XCollege/Personal: Transferred to Auburn from Navarro (Tex.) Junior College and Hinds (Miss.) Community College ... in two seasons for the Tigers, started 12 of 20 games, posting 74 tackles (42 solos), 11 sacks, 14 tackles for loss, 7 pass deflections, and 2 forced fumbles ... started five games at defensive end as a senior before a knee injury limited his playing time ... still managed team-high 29 tackles (14 solos), 5 sacks, 2 pass deflections, 3 tackles for loss, and 2 caused fumbles ... played in all 12 games with eight starting roles as a junior ... third on the team with 45 tackles (28 solos), 6 sacks, 11 stops for loss, and 5 deflected passes ... tabbed third-best junior college linebacker and all-America at Hinds (Miss.) C.C. with 55 solo tackles and 13 sacks ... junior college all-America as a sophomore middle linebacker ... played freshman season at Navarro (Tex.) J.C. ... standout football star at Vicksburg (Miss.) High School despite playing only one season ... criminal justice major at Auburn ... wife DeVaughn holds a bachelor's degree in education from Auburn ... sons Mark Anthony II (Oct. 22, 1998) and James (Feb. 9, 1994) ... born Aug. 28, 1974 in Vicksburg.

XPro Career: One of the NFL's premier cornerbacks ... Pro Bowler the past six seasons, including the first four as a starter ... NFL co-leader in interceptions in 1994 with nine pickoffs ... led or shared the NFC interception lead among cornerbacks three times (1991-6, 1994-9, 1997-6) ...

six-time Cardinal interception leader or co-leader (1991, '94-97, '99) ... blends talent with impeccable work ethic, physical conditioning, and mental toughness ... Cardinal starter since rookie arrival in 1991, performing like a seasoned veteran from the outset ... 141 consecutive starts ... 41 career interceptions gives him possession of second place on Cards all-time list, trailing Hall of Fame leader Larry Wilson's 52 ... six career interception returns for touchdowns, a Cardinal record ... scored as many touchdowns (two interceptions, one blocked field goal) as the Cardinal offense did rushing—three—in 1995 ... although known for interceptions, also recovered at least one fumble in each of his first six NFL seasons.

X1999: Ninth NFL season produced sixth consecutive Pro Bowl ... 70 tackles (44 solos), 2 interceptions, team-best 14 pass deflections, 3 hurries, 1 forced fumble, and 1 fumble recovery ... key contributor to season-opening 25-24 win at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) with 3 tackles, 3 deflected passes, and 1 interception that snuffed an Eagle scoring try at the Cards' 19-yard line midway through the first quarter ... three tackles vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) included well-documented dawning of 49er quarterback Steve Young late in the first half on corner blitz from the right side as J.J. McCleskey blitzed from the blind side ... McCleskey hit Young low, Williams impacted Young in the chest ... Young suffered a concussion on the play when his head struck a teammate's leg as he fell ... it was the final play of Young's career ... two tackles and a hurry in 14-3 win over N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) when Giant starting wide receivers made just two receptions entering the fourth quarter ... outstanding game vs. Detroit (Nov. 14) with 3 tackles, 5 deflected passes, and 1 forced fumble when he popped the ball out of the hands of Lion wide receiver Germane Crowell on a pass inside the Cards' 20-yard line ... Williams recovered the ball to thwart a Detroit scoring chance in 23-19 win ... prevented a turnover when he recovered a muffed punt by returner Mac Cody in the fourth quarter and added five blocks on special teams ... nine combined tackles and batted away two passes in 13-9 win over Dallas (Nov. 21) ... key play when he combined with McCleskey to cut down Dallas receiver Raghib Ismail on fourth-down stop to secure win ... three tackles and diving interception in fourth quarter of 34-24 victory at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) ... three tackles and a pass deflection the next week in 21-17 victory over Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... matched season-high nine total tackles with four solo stops and five assists at Washington (Dec. 12) ... eight tackles at Atlanta (Dec. 26) included five solo stops to match season best ... concluded campaign at Green Bay (Jan. 2) with four tackles and provided a pressure on mishandled center snap on Packer 43-yard field-goal try in second quarter as he tackled holder Matt Hasselbeck at the 42-yard line. X1998: Voted to fifth consecutive Pro Bowl ... sparkled in pass coverage ... only one regular-season interception, but three pickoffs in two postseason games ... finished season with career-best 85 tackles (51 solos), 10 passes defended, 1 quarterback sack, 2 tackles for loss, and 1 interception ... in season opener at Dallas (Sept. 6), recorded 7 solo tackles, 3 assists, 2 deflected passes, 1 hurry, and 1 tackle for loss ... matched primarily with Joey Galloway at Seattle (Sept. 13), limiting the speedy wide receiver to two catches for 20 yards and posting 1 tackle, 1 stop for loss, and 2 deflected passes ... four solo stops and knocked away one pass in 17-3 win over Philadelphia (Sept. 20) as Eagles threw the ball 46 times ... first quarterback sack since 1996 with eight-yard drop of Ram passer Tony Banks at St. Louis (Sept. 27) on corner blitz near end of first half ... also added four combined tackles as over one-half of Ram pass completions (8–15) were to backs in 20–17 victory ... along with corner J.B. Brown, held tandem of Tim Brown (two receptions) and James Jett (three receptions) to five catches for 25 yards vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) ... added six tackles and a hurry ... in 20–7 win over Chicago (Oct. 11), made only regular-season interception, a 15-yard return on Bears' opening drive, as Cards converted the turnover into field goal and 3–0 lead ... sustained ankle sprain on the return, however, and did not return ... eight tackles at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 18) ... three stops at Detroit (Nov. 1) ... seven tackles and batted down one pass in 29–27 win over Washington (Nov. 8) ... Redskin wide receiver Leslie Shepherd's 35-yard touchdown catch in fourth quarter was one of only three receptions by a Washington wide receiver ... shut down Cowboy receiver Michael Irvin to zero catches vs. Dallas (Nov. 15), snapping the Dallas receiver's streak of consecutive games with at least one reception at 117 ... added two solo stops and four assists ... seven tackles at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) ... three stops vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20) before a toe injury took him out of the ball game in the first half ... five tackles in season-ending, postseason-clinching 16–13 win over San Diego (Dec. 27) ... clutch performance in 20–7 wild-card victory at Dallas (Jan. 2) with 4 tackles, 2 interceptions, and 2 deflected passes while limiting Irvin to four receptions for 32 yards and a long catch of 11 yards ... first interception came on outstanding leaping grab near sideline in second quarter on quick out pattern while shadowing Irvin ... second pick came on first play of fourth quarter, again on pass intended for Irvin, as Cards converted the turnover into a field goal and stunning 20–0 lead with 12:55 left ... in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10), plucked an interception in end zone on first play of second quarter to stop a Minnesota scoring threat ... snared the pass five yards deep in the end zone, then raced down the left sideline before Viking running back Leroy Hoard caught him after a 47-yard return to save a 105-yard return for a touchdown. ✕1997: Breezed to his fourth Pro Bowl berth and stretched string of consecutive starts to 109 ... tied for third in NFL with six interceptions ... returned two interceptions for touchdowns to raise his career total to six, breaking Wilson's Cardinal career record of five (1960–72) ... selected 1997 defensive back-of-the-year by NFL Alumni ... also contributed 70 tackles (39 solo), 17 passes defended, 2 quarterback pressures, and 1 forced fumble ... named NFC defensive player-of-the-week for his work against Irvin following Cards' 25–22 upset win over Dallas (Sept. 7) ... first interception of the season in second quarter ... limited perennial Pro

Bowler Irvin to just four receptions and 18 yards, his lowest average-per-catch mark in a game since 1991, in thrilling 25–22 overtime win over Cowboys ... Irvin caught his final pass with two minutes gone in the third period as Williams shut him out for the final 12 minutes of the third quarter, all 15 minutes of the fourth quarter, and eight minutes of overtime, a combined total of 36 minutes ... returned a third-quarter interception 42 yards for the fifth touchdown of his career at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28), adding six tackles and bating away two passes ... third interception of the season with five tackles and a forced fumble vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... left game in first half with jammed neck, but returned in the second half to finish the contest ... returned a second-quarter interception 30 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) for his sixth career touchdown via interception return, breaking the team record held by Wilson ... added four solo stops and a pair of assists ... three tackles in 31–21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) and limited Eagle receiver Irving Fryar to two receptions before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with an ankle/foot injury ... again harnessed Irvin to just two receptions (16 and 20 yards) in return match at Dallas (Nov. 9) with three solo stops ... quiet but effective day in 16–13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with four tackles as Raven passer Vinny Testaverde was held to just 193 yards passing and the leading receiver was fullback Bam Morris (six receptions) ... five tackles and batted away two passes vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... picked off Redskin passer Jeff Hostetler in the first quarter vs. Washington (Dec. 7), collected six tackles, and batted away another pass later in game ... left contest midway in the fourth period with jammed neck and did not return ... thrown at just one time in New Orleans homecoming (Dec. 14), an end-zone interception ... three solo tackles and one assist in 29–26 season finale victory over Atlanta (Dec. 21). ✕1996: Forged splendid season with third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance and 74 combined tackles ... also 20 passes defended, 6 interceptions, 1 sack, and 1 fumble recovery ... three tackles in opener at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... recovered a fumble by Dolphin running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar on first play of second half vs. Miami (Sept. 8) ... in New Orleans homecoming, made two tackles and swatted away two passes in 28–14 win over the Saints (Sept. 22) ... in classic match at Texas Stadium (Oct. 13), went head-to-head with Irvin in the Dallas star's first game following a five-week league-imposed suspension ... held Irvin to 51 yards receiving on five catches and a long reception of 13 yards, pulled down an interception, batted away two passes, and posted seven tackles ... four tackles and four deflected passes vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 20), including one pass in the end zone to thwart a Buccaneer scoring threat and another on the final play of the game to seal the 13-9 victory ... fourth career double-interception game with a pair of thefts vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 27) ... six tackles at Washington (Nov. 10) and matched favorably with Henry Ellard who managed just one reception for 19 yards ... fine all-round game in 36-30 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 24) with nine tackles, his fifth interception of the season, and a key sack near midfield in the second quarter to force a punt ... in return outing against Dallas (Dec. 8), Irvin answered the call with eight receptions for 198 yards and a touchdown ... five tackles and swatted down two passes in 27-26 win over Washington (Dec. 15) ... placed an exclamation point on his season with a 65-yard interception return for a touchdown in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 22). X1995: Second consecutive Pro Bowl berth ... consensus all-pro notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, Pro Football Writers Association, The Sporting News, and USA Today ... second team choice by Football Digest ... also named all-NFC by Football News and United Press International ... 46.5 solo tackles, 11 assists, 6 interceptions, 12 deflected passes, and 2 recovered fumbles ... scored three touchdowns—interception returns of 28 and 48 yards, and a blocked field-goal return of 72 yards ... six interceptions tied him with nine other players for fifth in the NFL ... five solo stops in the season opener at Washington (Sept. 3) ... four tackles the following week vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... sustained a mild knee sprain at Dallas (Sept. 24) and left the game in the second quarter ... 4 tackles, 3 deflected passes, and 1 interception return, a 28-yarder off quarterback Gus Frerotte for a touchdown to give the Cards a 10-7 lead in the second quarter of their 24-20 victory over Washington (Oct. 15) ... heroic effort in 20-14 overtime win vs. Seattle (Oct. 29) with a first-quarter interception, fourth-quarter fumble recovery, and two of the season's top hustle plays ... ran down Seahawk running back Lamar Smith from behind after a 68-yard run ... teamed with fellow defensive back Brent Alexander to strip Seattle's Chris Warren of the ball inside the Arizona 10-yard line after a 52-yard fourth-quarter run, preventing what could have been the game-winning points ... Williams recovered Warren's fumble in the Cardinals' end zone ... four tackles and three deflected passes vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... scooped a field-goal attempt blocked by teammate Seth Joyner and raced 72 yards for six points on the final play of the first half at Carolina (Nov. 19) ... authored key play vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) when he stripped Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski of the ball on a fumbled overtime snap to set the table for a 28-yard game-winning field goal on the next play in Arizona's 40-37 triumph ... four take-aways at San Diego (Dec. 9)—two second-quar- ter fumble recoveries and interceptions in the third and fourth periods ... added six tackles against the Chargers ... fifth interception of the season at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) but a mild knee sprain limited him to reserve duty in the second half ... returned an interception of Aikman 48 yards for his third touchdown of the season and posted eight tackles in Christmas night season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). X1994: Earned first Pro Bowl honor when he tied Cleveland safety Eric Turner for the NFL lead with nine interceptions ... nearest competitor among cornerbacks was the trio of San Francisco's Merton Hanks, L.A. Raiders' Terry McDaniel, and New England's Maurice Hurst, all with seven interceptions ... the nine pickoffs matched the Cardinals' entire team total of 1993 ... first team all-pro honors from Sports Illustrated and USA Today ... second-team notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football Digest ... all-NFC acclaim by Football News and United Press International ... flourished in new Head Coach Buddy Ryan's pressure-minded defensive scheme that isolated the cornerbacks ... responded to the challenge with the most interceptions (nine) by a Cardinal since safety Ken Stone in 1978 and the most by a Cardinal cornerback since Pat Fischer collected 10 in 1964 ... four interceptions during the months of October and November ... 46 tackles, 1 recovered fumble, and 16 deflected passes ... blocked a fourth-quarter punt in the home opener vs. the N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11) to set up the Cards' final score and close the Giants' lead to 20-17 ... squelched Cleveland's opening drive with his first interception at the Cards' 22-yard line in loss to Browns (Sept. 18) ... added six tackles ... four tackles, batted away one pass, and halted a Minnesota scoring drive at the Cardinal 20-yard line with a 21-yard return of his second interception of the season in 17-7 victory (Oct. 2) ... along with bookend cornerback James Williams, collected two interceptions in 19-16 overtime win at Washington (Oct. 16) to highlight effort that earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors ... first halted a Redskin scoring drive at the 16-yard line, then returned his second interception 43 yards to the 22-yard line to set up a fourth-quarter touchdown and bring the Cards within five points ... also recovered a blocked field goal in overtime ... frequently matched against Irvin, posting two tackles, two pass deflections, including an impressive "jump ball" against the taller Irvin in 28-21 loss (Oct. 23) ... set up Cards' opening touchdown with first-quarter interception in 20-17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... though he posted just two tackles, swatted away two passes as Giants completed nine of 26 attempts in 10-9 Arizona victory at the Meadowlands (Nov. 13), the Cards' first victory at Giants Stadium since 1983

... after Eagle receiver Fred Barnett burned the Cardinals for 11 receptions, 173 yards, and two touchdowns in the season's first meeting, Williams covered Barnett one-on-one in the rematch in Arizona, rising to the challenge to harness Barnett to four catches for 24 yards in Cards' 12-6 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... also pulled down an interception at the goal line to halt an Eagle drive and recovered a Herschel Walker fumble in Cardinal territory with nine minutes left in the game to preserve a 9-3 lead ... snuffed a Chicago drive with his seventh interception of the season at the 26-yard line vs. Bears (Nov. 27) ... eighth theft of the season and knocked away two passes in 30-12 victory at Houston (Dec. 4) ... ended a Redskin scoring threat with a goal-line interception near the end of the first half to preserve a 7-6 lead in 17-15 win over Washington (Dec. 11) ... swatted away four passes in 28-7 victory over Cincinnati (Dec. 18) ... closed season with five tackles at Atlanta (Dec. 24). ✕1993: Complemented a steady, reliable performance at left cornerback with big-play ability to generate 42 tackles, 2 interceptions, 15 passes defended, 2 hurries, and 2 fumble recoveries ... memorable effort against New Orleans with his first two professional touchdowns—a 20-yard fumble return in the first quarter, then a zig-zagging 46-yard return of a second-quarter interception off Saints' quarterback Bobby Hebert ... Williams' 12 points outscored seven NFL teams that day ... also added four tackles and knocked away a pass ... during the course of the season, his unheralded effectiveness was a key to a Cards' defense that allowed just 14 touchdown passes, tying for fourth in the league ... called upon for just 12 tackles and three passes defended over first six contests ... set up Cards' only touchdown with 41-yard interception return in first quarter of 16-3 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... four solo stops and swatted away two passes at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... impressive play came when Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith broke three tackles to turn a seven-yard gain into a footrace, but Williams caught the Dallas Pro Bowler from behind to stop an 86-yard pass play at the two-yard line, running through field judge Don Orr near midfield to make the play ... underscored his "never-say-quit" attitude again the following week at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 21) by chasing down New York running back Rodney Hampton after a 62-yard gain, forcing him out of bounds at the 11-yard line ... 2 solo stops, 1 deflected pass, and 1 recovered fumble to stop a Lion scoring drive at the Cards' 25-yard line vs. Detroit (Dec. 12) ... 2 tackles, 1 pass defended, and 2 hurries on blitzes from his corner spot in 17-6 victory vs. the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26). ✕1992: Rebounded admirably from a trying start during his sophomore season to finish impressively ... started all 16 games at right cornerback, posting 48 tackles, a team-high 13 passes defended, 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... after just 10 tackles (none in two contests) and only three passes defended in the first five outings, regrouped to collect 38 stops, 3 interceptions, and 10 pass deflections in the last 11 games as a key element in the Cardinals' defensive resurgence ... broke slump with his first interception and three passes defended at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) as the Eagles managed just nine pass completions ... appeared to be headed for the end zone on the interception but was stopped short when he ran into a roadblock of an Eagle player and a game official near the goal line ... two touchdowns nullified by officials' rulings ... scooped a fumble and raced 61 yards for an apparent game-winning score in fourth quarter at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8), but touchdown was nullified when teammate Eric Swann was flagged for an illegal block during Williams' return ... Cards scored the go-ahead touchdown on the ensuing possession in 20-14 victory ... two weeks later vs. Dallas (Nov. 22), made diving interception and raced 78 yards for another potential touchdown and 14-3 Cardinal lead, but he was ruled down by contact ... also posted seven tackles vs. Cowboys ... played solid game in 19-0 shutout over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) with three solo tackles and two passes defended as Giants completed just nine of 25 pass attempts ... five solo stops and fourth-quarter interception in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ✕1991: Posted one of the most memorable performances by an NFL rookie cornerback in recent seasons ... named NFC defensive rookie-of-the-year by the NFL Players' Association ... consensus all-rookie selection at cornerback ... six interceptions gave him a share of the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve that notoriety since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1981 ... prior to that, the last rookie to turn the trick was Detroit Hall of Famer Lem Barney (10) in 1967 ... additionally, posted 48 tackles, 17 passes defended, and 2 forced fumbles ... lined up for 852 of 967 defensive snaps to rank second in playing time to free safety Michael Zordich (861) among Cardinal defensive backs ... in first NFL start, collected 3 tackles, 1 interception, and 4 deflected passes in Cards' 24-14 victory at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... second interception the following week against the Eagles (Sept. 8) plus a fumble recovery in end zone ... both efforts thwarted Philadelphia scoring drives in 26-10 victory at Veterans Stadium ... did not start at Washington (Sept. 15) due to ankle sprain but still saw duty as reserve ... seven tackles and a pass defended at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... played all 55 defensive snaps and collected three tackles and batted away a pair of passes against Atlanta's "Red Gun" offense in 16-10

Injuries and inexperience scuttled the 1999 Arizona Cardinals from the outset, ending their hopes of returning to the playoffs for the second consecutive season.

A four-game mid-season winning streak pulled the Cards to the .500 plateau at 6-6, salvaging the wounded campaign that began with a training camp automobile accident that injured three players, continued with the five-week loss of quarterback Jake Plummer and an assortment of other physical setbacks, and ended in Green Bay with eight starters sidelined due to injuries.

Offense

Arizona's offense reaped few rewards for its efforts in 1999.

Rookie starters Joel Makovicka (fullback) and L.J. Shelton (left tackle), and two more youngsters Anthony Clement (right tackle), a second-year player who appeared in only one game as a rookie, and Terry Hardy (tight end), who played in just nine games primarily on special teams in 1998, steepened the learning curve.

Offensive line flux hindered continuity. Seven players—Shelton, Clement, Matt Joyce, Chris Dishman, Aaron Graham, Lester Holmes, and James Dexter—formed five combinations of starting units. Joyce, Dishman, and Dexter made starts at two positions. Only Graham, the center, started all 16 games. Holmes' season was jeopardized when he suffered severe head wounds in the August automobile accident. He returned in time for the season opener, but eventually was sidelined for the season's final three games with a knee injury. The playing career of versatile guard/tackle Ernest Dye, who figured to contribute, ended in the accident when his right arm was nearly severed.

The ominous trend continued the weekend following the accident when Plummer sprained his right thumb in the second preseason game against Tennessee. Hampered by the injury, Plummer saw little or no practice time in the weeks ahead. Offensive continuity suffered. But he played, without practice, when the regular season began on September 12 at Philadelphia.

His inactivity was obvious in the first six games when he completed 93 of 181 (51.4 percent) passes for 928 yards and three touchdowns while throwing 14 interceptions. In the home contest against Washington on October 17, Plummer suffered a spiral fracture of his right ring finger. He missed five starts and over a month of practice while mending.

Veteran Dave Brown responded during Plummer's absence by leading the Cardinals to a 3-2 record in his five starts. For the season, Brown completed 84 of 169 (49.7 percent) passes for 944 yards, 2 touchdowns, and 6 interceptions in eight appearances (five starts).

By the time Plummer returned to action on November 28 at the New York Giants in a relief role, the season was 10 games old. He continued to play catch-up both at practice and on Sundays. By season's end, he was the NFL's lowest-rated passer (50.8) and led the NFL with 24 interceptions, the most by a Cardinal quarterback since Jim Hart (30) in 1967. Plummer's closing numbers were 201 of 381 (52.8 percent) passes for 2,111 yards, 9 touchdowns, and the 24 interceptions.

However, Plummer found moments to flash his freshman and sophomore ways. In the season opener at Philadelphia, he registered his 10th career game-winning comeback by driving Arizona to 19 second-half points and 10 points on its final two possessions.

His 11th career comeback also came at the expense of the Eagles in the December 5 rematch in Arizona when he led the Cards to two touchdowns in the game's final five minutes en route to a stirring 21-17 victory. The outcome was Plummer's fourth consecutive "comeback" against Philadelphia.

In defeat in the season finale at Green Bay on January 2, 2000, Plummer enjoyed his best passing day of the season, completing 35 of 57 passes for 396 yards, 2 touchdowns, and 3 interceptions. The attempts and completions were career highs and rank in the top five efforts in Cardinal history.

Plummer's longest completion of 1999 came one week earlier, a 63-yarder to wide receiver Frank Sanders at Atlanta on December 26.

Sanders, Rob Moore, and the blending of rookie David Boston concocted a formidable receiving trio.

Sanders ranked third in the NFL with 30 third-down receptions. His 13 receptions at Green Bay were his career high and the most by a Cardinal wide receiver since Sonny Randle's club record of 16 in 1962. Sanders completed his fifth NFL season with a team-leading 79 receptions for 954 yards and one touchdown to rank seventh on the Cardinals' career receiving list with 364 catches.

Moore made his 600th career reception November 7 against the New York Jets, his old teammates. One of his receptions on the day when he also cracked the 9,000-yard barrier in receiving yardage was a 71-yard completion from Brown, the longest Cardinal pass play in 114 games, and the longest in the careers of Brown and Moore. Moore ended the season among the NFL's top 20 career leaders with 628 receptions (19th) for 9,368 yards (19th) and 49 touchdown receptions (13th among active players).

The speedy Boston, who turned 21 the day the Cardinals completed training camp, caught 40 passes for 473 yards and two touchdowns in his rookie campaign that included seven starting assignments. He enjoyed a breakout game with eight receptions for 101 yards and one touchdown vs. the New York Giants on October 10.

The running-back position was shared by Adrian Murrell, Michael Pittman, and Mario Bates. The trio combined for 1,044 of Arizona's 1,207 rushing yards, the lowest team total since 1953 (1,179) when the Cardinals played only 12 games.

Murrell, who also caught a team runner-up 49 passes, led in rushing for the second consecutive season with 553 yards, but failed to record a 100-yard game or score a touchdown for the first time since 1994.

Pittman, who entered the season as a third-down back, recorded the team's only 100-yard game in his first NFL start November 14 vs. Detroit. He seized his opportunity with 133 yards on 23 carries and a touchdown, a 58-yard ramble that was Arizona's longest run from scrimmage in 52 games and its longest scoring jaunt in 53 outings. Pittman's 133 rushing yards against the Lions ranked 10th in the 1990s among NFL players making their first league starts. However, the promising Pittman missed most of the rest of the season with a turf-toe injury.

Bates continued his amazing short-yardage work, scoring a team-leading nine rushing touchdowns, his single-season best and the most by a Cardinal since 1993.

Defense

The Cardinals envisioned fielding one of the NFL's most formidable defensive fronts, consisting of ends Andre Wadsworth and Simeon Rice, and tackles Eric Swann and Mark Smith. But the quartet never appeared in the same game.

Only Rice, whose 16.5 quarterback sacks set a team record and finished second in the NFL to the Rams' Kevin Carter (17), answered the call each week. He posted six two-sack outings, a Cardinal single-season record en route to the Pro Bowl as a "need" player. He also raised his career sack total to 44 to rank fifth in team annals.

Wadsworth was sidelined for five games and hampered for the final four outings following mid-season arthroscopic knee surgery. Swann, still recovering from two more knee surgeries from October-December, 1998, played sparingly in nine mid-season games as a pass-rush specialist. However, he found time to tally his first career touchdown, a 42-yard Thanksgiving weekend interception return at the New York Giants. Smith, after missing the season's first two contests due to a contract impasse, appeared in only two games before knee surgery ended his season.

The missing were replaced by a committee that included rookie Thomas Burke, Jerry Drake, Brad Ottis, Angel Rubio, Corey Sears, and Rashod Swinger. Swinger, who paired with Drake in the interior for most of the season, suffered a knee injury December 26 at Atlanta that required reconstructive surgery. Before the injury, however, Swinger collected 119 combined tackles (52 solos, 67 assists), the most by a Cardinal defensive lineman since 1994 (Michael Bankston, 138) and the second best total since reliable defensive statistics began being recorded in the 1970s.

Linebackers Ronald McKinnon in the middle and first-year Cardinal Rob Fredrickson on the left filled the void.

The 6-0, 240-pound McKinnon, despite his somewhat undersized frame, became the first Cardinal to crack the 200-tackle plateau with 223 total tackles (106 solos, 117 assists). His single-game tackle totals hit double figures in 14 of 16 outings.

Fredrickson, runner-up to McKinnon with 167.5 total tackles (90.5 solos, 77 assists), set a franchise modern-era single-game record November 7 at the New York Jets with 22 total tackles (13 solos). His 34-yard interception return for a touchdown at Miami on September 19 was his second NFL six-pointer but his first via interception. It also was the first interception return for a touchdown by a Cardinal linebacker since Peter Noga turned the trick in 1987.

Cornerback Aeneas Williams was named to his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl squad with another workmanlike year that translated into only two pass interceptions due to opponents' penchants for avoiding his side of the field. The two pickoffs raised his career total to 41, giving him possession of second place in team annals behind Hall of Famer Larry Wilson (52). Williams' two interceptions tied for the team lead, the sixth time he has led the Cards in interceptions to equal Wilson's franchise career record.

Third-year cornerback Tom Knight enjoyed his first healthy season to entrench himself as Williams' complement. He appeared in every game and started 11 times. The former first-round draft choice made his first two career pass interceptions in back-to-back December games at Washington (Dec. 12) and vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19).

Safeties Kwamie Lassiter (free) and Tommy Bennett (strong) enjoyed their first full season together as the Cards' last line of defense. Both posted career-best tackle totals—Bennett with 147, Lassiter with 140. Lassiter scored his first NFL touchdown December 5 vs. Philadelphia with a 78-yard interception return, equalling the fifth longest in team history. The play also provided Arizona its only first-quarter touchdown of the season. Like Swinger, Bennett's season ended in Atlanta on December 26 when he suffered a knee injury that required reconstructive surgery.

Special Teams

Kicker Chris Jacke's 31-yard game-winning field goal at Philadelphia in the season opener made him the first kicker in NFL history to win four consecutive regular-season games with walk-off field goals dating to the final three outings of 1998. Jacke, in his first full season as a Cardinal, led the team in scoring with 83 points (19-27 field goals, 26-26 points after touchdown).

Punter Scott Player, a second alternate Pro Bowl alternate, finished second in the NFC with 96 punts, fourth with a 36.7-yard net punting average, and sixth with a 42-yard gross average.

Diminutive wide receiver Mac Cody, claimed from the St. Louis Rams prior to the season opener, led the NFC with an 11.7-yard punt-return average, the best by a Cardinal since Johnny Bailey's 12.3-yard figure in 1992.

Bates ranked seventh in the National Football Conference (NFC) with a 23.7-yard kickoff-return average.

Pat Tillman led special teams with 20 solo tackles and 10 assists. A safety by trade, he also logged his first two career interceptions.

Long snapper Trey Junkin raised his career games played total to 250 to rank sixth on the active list.

Arizona won its first season opener in eight years by overcoming Philadelphia's 21-0 first-quarter lead behind quarterback Jake Plummer's 10th career come-from-behind victory and four Chris Jacke field goals. Four first-half Cardinal turnovers (three Plummer interceptions, one fumble by fullback Joel Makovicka on his first NFL rush) led to 17 short-field Eagle points, staking Philadelphia to a 24-6 halftime lead. In the second half, Arizona's defense held Philadelphia scoreless, limited it to 82 total yards, and contributed a pivotal 32-yard third-down interception return by safety Kwame Lassiter on Philadelphia's final possession. Meanwhile, the Cards' offense began to percolate, scoring nine points on its first two post-intermission possessions. Trailing 24-15 after regaining the ball with 6:26 to play, Plummer found wide receiver Rob Moore for 47 yards and again two plays later for a 20-yard touchdown, cutting the Eagles' lead to 24-22 with 4:03 left. Lassiter's third-down pickoff five plays into the Eagles' ensuing drive gave the ball back to Plummer at the Eagles' 43-yard line with 1:49 remaining. Plummer milked the clock while inching the Cards closer to the Philadelphia end zone. His 17-yard naked bootleg to the Eagles' four-yard line turned Jacke's game-winning field-goal attempt into a 31-yard "chip shot" on the game's final play. Philadelphia's 205 total yards and 75 net yards passing were the lowest totals by a Cardinal opponent in 30 and 61 games, respectively. The victory was Arizona's fourth consecutive regular-season triumph over two seasons, the franchise's longest winning streak since 1984-85. All four were decided by final-play walk-off three-pointers by Jacke.

Squandered offensive opportunities cost the Cardinals the chance to upset the home-standing Miami Dolphins, who prevailed 19-16 in a game dominated by defense. Each team scored only one first-half touchdown—the Cards on defense, the Dolphins on offense. The two teams traded field goals (Miami-4, Arizona-3) and turnovers (four apiece) throughout the contest until the Cardinals blinked when Chris Jacke missed his first field-goal attempt in 10 tries, a 31-yard boot at 11:48 of the fourth quarter with Miami holding its final 19-16 advantage. Quarterback Jake Plummer threw four interceptions, including one on the Cards' second possession with Arizona poised at Miami's six-yard line. The Cardinal offense failed to score a touchdown for the first time since Nov. 9, 1997 at Dallas, a span of 25 games. Arizona's lone touchdown, a 34-yard interception return by outside linebacker Rob Fredrickson, followed Jacke's second field goal to give the Cards a sudden 13-6 lead late in the second quarter. Miami marched 71 yards in 13 plays with its final first-half possession to tie the score at 13-13 on a 10-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Dan Marino to tight end Troy Drayton. Two second-half field goals by Miami's Olindo Mare proved the difference when Arizona's eight second-half possessions ended in three interceptions, three punts, Jacke's third field goal, and his errant three-point attempt. Arizona gained just 184 total yards and only 74 following intermission. Four Arizona drives that penetrated Miami's 20-yard line notched only six points. Plummer suffered through his most trying day as a professional, completing just 11 of 27 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions.

49ers 24, Cardinals 10

September 27, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (70,993)

The Cardinals dug an early hole for the third consecutive week in their first appearance on ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football" in four years. The first three of four Arizona turnovers proved pivotal. San Francisco capitalized on the first two turnovers in the early going—muffed punt by David Boston, pass interception of Jake Plummer—to tally two short-field touchdowns (four plays/37 yards, one play/11 yards) in the first quarter. Then just before halftime, the Cards were poised to cut into the 49ers' advantage when wide receiver Frank Sanders tumbled a five-yard completion from Plummer at San Francisco's one-yard line, ending a promising 12-play, 84-yard drive. The Cardinals clawed to within 17–10 late in the third quarter on a 43-yard Chris Jacke field goal and a six-play, 34-yard drive that running back Mario Bates capped with a one-yard leap into the end zone. San Francisco running back Lawrence Phillips cracked Arizona's packed defense for a 68-yard touchdown burst with 1:42 to play to ice the outcome. The contest marked the third consecutive game Arizona committed four turnovers. It also was the first time in six straight regular-season games the outcome was decided by more than three points. Wide receiver Andy McCullough, the 1999 World Bowl most valuable player, made his first NFL reception, a 31-yarder. The contest proved to be the last career appearance for 49er quarterback Steve Young, who was driven from the game late in the first half with a concussion.

Cowboys 35, Cardinals 7

October 3, 1999 Texas Stadium (64,169)

The turnover bugaboo, inefficient offensive production, and poor field position sentenced Arizona to its fourth consecutive slow start and third straight defeat. Dallas turned two of Arizona's season-high five turnovers (four interceptions, one fumble) into defensive touchdowns—safety George Teague's 32-yard interception return on the game's third play from scrimmage, and defensive end Greg Ellis' deal-sealing fourth-quarter 98-yard fumble return. In between, Cowboy quarterback Troy Aikman found streaking wide receiver Raghbir Ismail for a 63-yard touchdown pass, and Dallas drove twice for two more touchdowns. Arizona's lone touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to rookie fullback Joel Makovicka just before halftime, was the latter's first NFL score. The Cardinal offense, which gained only 208 total yards and punted seven consecutive times in the first half, started five of 14 possessions inside its 20-yard line, including two at the five- and three-yard lines. It went three-and-out eight times. The final four possessions ended with three interceptions and a fumble. Plummer suffered his 10th, 11th, and 12th interceptions of the season. Diminutive wide receiver Mac Cody registered 85 total yards (59 punt returns, 15 kickoff return, 11 receiving) in his first NFL appearance. Scott Player's eight punts equalled his career high.

Cardinals 14, Giants 3

October 10, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (43,968)

Arizona's first turnover-free outing of the season, coupled with a staunch defensive effort and a breakout performance by rookie wide receiver David Boston, propelled the Cardinals to their first victory over the N.Y. Giants in the past five meetings. The defensive struggle featured balanced statistics (less than 300 total yards for both teams, 15 combined punts, low third-down conversion rates). The first of two New York turnovers proved to be the difference, leading directly to the first of two Arizona touchdowns. Cards' defensive end Andre Wadsworth stripped New York quarterback Kerry Collins deep in Giant territory late in the first quarter. Safety Kwame Lassiter recovered the fumble at New York's 30-yard line. A quick four-play scoring drive, highlighted by a 37-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to Boston and Plummer's one-yard touchdown plunge, ensued. Arizona closed the first half with its other touchdown, an 11-yard alley-oop connection between Plummer and Boston, who finished the day with eight receptions for 101 yards, to cap an eight-play, 68-yard drive. The Cardinal defense limited New York to 285 total yards (178 passing, 107 rushing) and five-for-17 third down success while posting three sacks (-24 yards). Wide receiver Frank Sanders extended his streak of consecutive games with receptions to 53. The game included noteworthy career "firsts" by Cardinals: Safety Pat Tillman's interception, defensive end Thomas Burke's sack, and Boston's touchdown reception. Mario Bates's 51-yard third-quarter kickoff return was his career long. New York's three-point offensive outburst marked the first touchdownless outing for an Arizona opponent and the lowest opposition point total in 18 games (Cards 17, Eagles 3, Sept. 20, 1998). The outcome was Arizona's largest margin of victory over the Giants since the Cards' 17-6 triumph at Sun Devil Stadium on Dec. 26, 1993.

Redskins 24, Cardinals 10

October 17, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (51,789)

A back-breaking interception and a finger-breaking sack cost the Cardinals the game and their quarterback. Redskin cornerback Champ Bailey's 59-yard interception return for a touchdown snapped a 3-3 second-quarter tie, handing Washington a 10-3 lead and the game's momentum. On the Cards' first second-half possession, Arizona quarterback Jake Plummer fractured the ring finger of his right hand on the third play of the third quarter when it became lodged between the helmet and face mask of Redskins linebacker Shawn Barber during his blind-side sack. Following an exchange of four punts, Washington extended its lead to 17-3 late in the third quarter when tight end Stephen Alexander capped a 12-play, 90-yard march with a one-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Brad Johnson. Dave Brown, Plummer's replacement, drove the Cardinals 91 yards (nine plays) to their only touchdown, a 10-yard fourth-quarter pass to wide receiver Rob Moore. Chris Jacke's early 44-yard field goal provided Arizona's initial first-quarter points of the season and a 3-0 advantage. Bailey made three interceptions, equalling the Cardinals' single-game opponent record, accomplished most recently by the Colts' Mike Prior (Dec. 20, 1992). Johnson suffered his first interception of the season in 127 pass attempts by reserve cornerback J.J. McCleskey, making his first Cardinal start and only the second of his career. Arizona's three interceptions (Plummer two, Brown one) raised the Cards' turnover total to an NFL-leading 20. The contest marked Arizona's first meeting against former Cardinal fan favorite Larry Centers, who caught five passes for 34 yards and rushed three times for 18 yards. The Arizona defense held the Washington offense touchdownless in the first half for the first time in 1999.

Patriots 27, Cardinals 3

October 31, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (47,300)

The visiting Patriots were dominant in their never-in-doubt 27-3 victory, displaying a big-play offense and stifling defense. The Cardinals, held without a touchdown for the first time in 30 games (24-6 loss at Dallas, Nov. 9, 1997), failed to gain 100 net yards passing (90) and running (76). The 166 total net yards and eight first downs were Arizona's lowest outputs in both categories since gaining 96 total yards and seven first downs at Carolina on Nov. 19, 1995 (60 games). The Cards, who went three-and-out seven times, ran five plays or less in 13 of their 15 possessions. New England quarterback Drew Bledsoe, in command throughout, blitzed Arizona with four touchdown passes, including three of 35 yards or longer. Wide receivers Shawn Jefferson (64, 35 yards) and Terry Glenn (36 yards) caught the three long scoring tosses. Card quarterback Dave Brown, making his first NFL start since October 5, 1997 as a New York Giant, suffered through a 12-for-33 outing for 107 yards and two interceptions. Bledsoe set the table for New England's first touchdown with a 38-yard completion to running back Terry Allen, followed three plays later by a three-yard touchdown pass from Bledsoe to running back Lamont Warren. The Cardinal defense failed to force a turnover for the first time in 13 games (vs. Dallas, Nov. 15, 1998). Field position also haunted the Cards in the Halloween game. Seven Arizona possessions began inside its 20-yard line, including five of the final six in the first half. Four other possessions started between the Cards' 20- and 30-yard lines. Rookie first-round draft choice L.J. Shelton made his first NFL start at left tackle. Rookie quarterback Chris Greisen made his first NFL appearance.

N.Y. Jets 12, Cardinals 7

November 7, 1999 Giants Stadium (77,857)

Strong swirling winds and stronger swarming defenses prevailed in the Cardinals' first 1999 trips to Giants Stadium to face the Jets. Wind dictated field position and strategy throughout. Three of the game's four scoring plays came with the wind at the back of the offense. New York called time-outs on two consecutive plays late in the first quarter in an attempt to force the Cards to punt into the stiff wind. Three punts—two by Arizona's Scott Player, one by New York's Tom Tupa—were knocked below 30 yards by the wind. A wind-aided 69-yard third-quarter Tupa punt was the second longest in history by a Cardinal opponent. New York kept its offense grounded, running 46 times, including 38 totes (131 yards) by running back Curtis Martin, equalling the Cardinals' opponent single-game record (L.A. Ram and Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson, 1986). Arizona gained the upper hand in the defensive struggle midway through the second quarter when quarterback Dave Brown found former Jet wide receiver Rob Moore down the sideline for a 71-yard completion to New York's 10-yard line. It was the longest career reception and completion of Moore and Brown, respectively. Two ensuing rushes by running back Michael Pittman brought the Cards a touchdown and a 7-3 lead. It was Pittman's first NFL touchdown. Despite a third-quarter Jet field goal, Arizona maintained its 7-6 lead until midway through the fourth quarter when New York quarterback Rick Mirer found wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson on a slant over the middle for a 43-yard touchdown. Arizona's final two possessions both ended in Cardinal territory. Arizona's offensive frustrations continued, partly the work of poor field position. All 13 Cardinal possessions began in their own territory, including seven at or behind their 20-yard line. Ten possessions lasted four plays or less, and the Cards' final line of scrimmage was in Arizona territory 10 times. The Cardinals converted just two of 12 third-down plays. Defensive end Simeon Rice posted his fourth multi-sack effort of the season with two sacks for minus five yards. Linebacker Rob Fredrickson's 22 total tackles set a Cardinal modern-era single-game record.

Cardinals 23, Lions 19

November 14, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (41,924)

An awakened Arizona rushing attack, led by running back Michael Pittman, who amassed 133 yards on 23 carries in his first NFL start, a turnover-free passing game, and an opportunistic defense snapped the Cards' three-game losing streak. After spotting Detroit a 7-0 lead, Arizona tallied 23 unanswered points on three field goals and two rushing touchdowns, then clung to its lead through a harrowing ending. After the first of three Chris Jacke field goals cut the Cards' deficit to 7-3, Pittman led to the Cards' first touchdown by galloping 46 yards to Detroit's three-yard line with a screen pass. Two plays later, running back Mario Bates skirted the right side for a three-yard touchdown. Jacke closed first-half action with his second and third three-pointers, the latter a booming 49-yarder as time expired. On Arizona's first second-half play from scrimmage, Pittman rambled 58 yards for a touchdown, the Cards' longest rush in 52 games (LeShon Johnson, 66 yards vs. St. Louis, Sept. 27, 1996) and longest touchdown rush in 53 contests (Johnson, 70 yards at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). Detroit closed the gap with a 77-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Gus Frerotte to wide receiver Germane Crowell. Arizona's advantage became precarious when a fourth-quarter Pittman fumble was scooped and returned 35 yards for a touchdown by Lion cornerback Terry Fair. Detroit's two-point conversion attempt failed, leaving it in need of a touchdown on its final possession that ended at Arizona's 10-yard line on three consecutive incompletions. The Cards' defense posted five sacks and limited Detroit's rushing attack to 42 yards, the Cards' best rush defense in 60 outings (34 yards vs. Atlanta, Nov. 26, 1995, OT). Three Cards—Pittman (46 yards), David Boston (40 yards), and Frank Sanders (33 yards)—caught passes of at least 30 yards for the first time in 99 games (Anthony Edwards 49, Ricky Proehl 42, Randal Hill 38 vs. Washington, Oct. 17, 1993).

Cardinals 13, Cowboys 9

November 21, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (64,773)

Arizona's defense limited the Cowboys to 78 total yards in the second half (49 rushing, 29 passing) and stopped Dallas on fourth-down short-yardage plays deep in Cardinal territory on the Cowboys' final two possessions to preserve the Cards' 13-9 lead. Dallas converted just four of 15 third-down plays (27 percent) and only one of four fourth-down tries (25 percent). The Pokes drove to their only offensive points on their second possession, a nine-play, 81-yard drive that quarterback John Garrett completed with an 11-yard touchdown pass to tight end David LaFleur. The Cowboys' first four second-half possessions ended with punts, their final two on downs. The latter were dramatic. The Cards clawed to their precarious 13-point total with a 24-yard Chris Jacke field goal with 20 seconds to play in the first half despite gaining only 55 opening-stanza yards, then drove 69 yards to their only touchdown on four plays to open the second half. A 21-yard flea-flicker touchdown pass from quarterback Dave Brown to wide receiver Rob Moore provided Arizona a 10-7 lead. Jacke padded the advantage to 13-7 with a 38-yard fourth-quarter field goal. After the teams traded punts, the dramatics began. Dallas marched to Arizona's nine-yard line, facing a fourth-and-one with 3:29 to play. Running back Emmitt Smith was repelled for no gain by Card free safety Kwame Lassiter. When the Cardinals failed to make a first down on their ensuing possession, they opted for an intentional safety by having punter Scott Player run out of the end zone to create punting room and gain field position. But Deion Sanders' 31-yard return of Player's 54-yard free-kick punt gave Dallas field position at Arizona's 43-yard line with 1:41 to play. Eight plays later, the Cowboys, without a timeout remaining, sat at the Cards' 22-yard line and faced a fourth-and-three situation with 17 seconds remaining. Garrett found wide receiver Raghib Ismail with a short completion, but Card cornerbacks J.J. McCleskey and Aeneas Williams stopped Ismail two yards short of a first down.

Cardinals 34, Giants 24

November 28, 1999 • Giants Stadium (77,809)

Arizona rode an overwhelming second-half performance to its first two-game season sweep against the New York Giants since 1979 in quarterback Jake Plummer's return to action. Four second-half defensive takeaways (three interceptions, one fumble recovery), including tackle Eric Swann's first career touchdown, a 42-yard interception return, fueled the Cardinals' highest point total at Giants Stadium and in 28 road games overall against the Giants. The victory also improved Arizona's NFC Eastern Division record to 4-2, their best in-division start since 1984. Plummer, sidelined for the previous four outings, entered the contest at the outset of the second half, driving Arizona to three touchdowns in a span of five possessions to overcome a 10-6 halftime deficit. The first six-pointer was the direct result of the Cards' first second-half takeaway, linebacker Rob Fredrickson's 23-yard return of an interception to New York's 16-yard line. Five plays later, Plummer found wide receiver Rob Moore for a two-yard touchdown pass, staking Arizona to a 13-10 lead it would not relinquish. Touchdown drives on consecutive possessions early in the fourth quarter culminated in a nine-yard touchdown pass to tight end Johnny McWilliams and a two-yard rush by running back Mario Bates. Swann closed the deal with 1:57 to play when he grabbed a pass deflected by defensive end Brad Ottis and rambled unthreatened into the Giants' end zone. Card quarterback Dave Brown made his 30th career start at Giants Stadium (29 as a Giant, one as a Cardinal). He (126) and Plummer (125) virtually split Arizona's 251 passing yards.

Cardinals 21, Eagles 17

December 5, 1999 • Sun Devil Stadium (41,187)

Quarterback Jake Plummer spun his comeback magic for the 11th time in his young career and in the fourth consecutive meeting against Philadelphia, rallying the Cardinals from a 17-7 deficit with two fourth-quarter touchdowns on consecutive possessions in the final five minutes. The late fireworks belied the Cardinal offense's day-long struggles that included just 79 total yards through three quarters and only 54 yards rushing for the day. Arizona's defense posted its third touchdown of the season late in the first quarter when free safety Kwame Lassiter abruptly ended the Eagles' opening drive that had reached Arizona's 29-yard line with a 78-yard interception return for a touchdown, his first NFL six-pointer. Philadelphia scored 17 unanswered points in the second and third quarters to take command at 17-7. The resourceful Eagle offense, behind rookie quarterback Donovan McNabb, possessed the ball for 37:56 and converted 12 of 19 third-down attempts. However, Arizona's defense made a pivotal third-quarter takeaway (Simeon Rice sack and fumble caused, Rob Fredrickson fumble recovery) at the Cards' 19-yard line that prevented the Eagles from pulling away. The late dramatics were the work of two long Cardinal drives and a three-and-out defensive stop in Eagle territory in between. Wide receiver David Boston ended the first scoring drive (16 plays, 80 yards) with a leaping four-yard reception in the end zone with 4:55 to play. After stopping Philadelphia, a brief series that included a deflected third-down pass by tackle Eric Swann that McNabb caught for a six-yard loss, Plummer drove the Cards 69 yards in eight plays, highlighted by a 38-yard strike to wide receiver Frank Sanders to the Eagles' six-inch line with 59 seconds to play. Plummer sneaked for the winning touchdown on the next play. The victory awarded Arizona its first same-season four-game winning streak since 1984, its first four-game NFC Eastern Division winning streak since 1984, and its first three-game home-field winning stretch since 1983.

December 12, 1999 FedEx Stadium (75,851)

Washington dispatched the Cardinals with relative ease at the nation's capital. A stymied Cardinal offense, held without a touchdown for the third time in 1999, recorded just 10 first downs and 173 total yards (120 passing, 53 rushing), including 36 yards, 3 first downs, and a 5:49 time of possession in the second half when four of its five possessions lasted three plays or less. The unit also committed four turnovers (three interceptions, one fumble) in the Redskins' second three-interception outing of 1999 against Arizona. Card quarterback Jake Plummer, who was sacked five times (-27 yards), suffered through his fourth game of the season with three or more interceptions. Defensively, Arizona was stung by Washington's relentless rushing attack that posted 226 of the Redskins' 406 total yards, led by running back Stephen Davis' 37-carry, 189-yard day, the former the second highest total in history by a Cardinal opponent, the latter the most individual rushing yards against Arizona since current Card and then-N.Y. Jet Adrian Murrell's 31-carry, 199-yard effort on Oct. 27, 1996. Davis set the game's tone on Washington's first possession when he burst through the right side of the Redskins' offensive line and ran untouched for a 50-yard touchdown. Cardinal kicker Chris Jacke cut the deficit to 7-3 with a 31-yard field goal late in the first quarter. After the Redskins passed their advantage to 14-3 on a seven-yard second-quarter touchdown pass from quarterback Brad Johnson to wide receiver Irving Fryar, the Cards' Mario Bates returned the ensuing kickoff a career-long 68 yards to Washington's 27-yard line. Seven plays later, the Cards elected to accept a 10-yard penalty against Washington instead of another Jacke field goal (36 yards), but two plays later on a snap from the Redskins seven-yard line, Plummer was intercepted in the end zone by Washington cornerback Champ Bailey, his fourth pickoff of the season against Arizona. Wide receiver Frank Sanders failed to catch a pass for the first time since the final game of his 1995 rookie season, ending his streak of 60 consecutive games with receptions.

Bills 31, Cardinals 21

December 19, 1999 Sun Devil Stadium (59,509)

Buffalo's bludgeoning ball-control offense dictated a two-to-one (39:30-20:30) time-of-possession advantage by accumulating 159 rushing yards on 41 time-consuming runs, completing 21 of 32 passes for 217 yards and two touchdowns, and converting 12 of 17 third downs (71 percent) en route to the Bills' 31-21 victory in Arizona's final 1999 home game. Buffalo's first appearance in Arizona completed the Cardinals' 12th home schedule in the desert. Buffalo jumped to a 14-0 lead on long (67, 80 yards) drives on two of its three first-quarter possessions. The Cardinals answered with two second-quarter touchdown drives (80, 46 yards) to knot the score at halftime. Following intermission, Buffalo monopolized the ball for 23:02 of 30 minutes, rushed 28 times (105 yards), and threw only nine passes en route to 10 offensive points. The Bills' defense did the rest, stopping the Cards on five of their six second-half possessions (three punts, downs, interception). Arizona closed to within 24-21 with a 26-yard Jake Plummer to Rob Moore touchdown pass with 1:49 to play, but Bill safety Henry Jones grabbed the bounding onside kick that ensued and raced 37 yards untouched for the game-clinching touchdown. Arizona's offense failed to crack 200 total yards for the second consecutive week, posting 178 total yards (108 passing, 70 rushing). Plummer completed just 11 of 29 passes for 119 yards, 1 touchdown, and 1 interception. Cardinal defensive backs Tommy Bennett (second quarter) and Tom Knight (fourth quarter) thwarted Buffalo drives that had reached Arizona's 38- and 27-yard lines, respectively, but the Cards' offense went three-and-out following both pickoffs. Running back Mario Bates scored two of Arizona's three touchdowns with his fifth and sixth touchdowns of the season on one- and two-yard plunges to take the team touchdown lead. The Cards' final 1999 home attendance figure of 421,173 (52.647) ranked fourth in team single-season annals.

Falcons 37, Cardinals 14

December 26, 1999 Georgia Dome (47,074)

The Cardinals' third consecutive loss eliminated them from postseason contention. Atlanta's second-half ball control proved the difference in the Cards' final game of the millennium. After falling behind 7-0 in the first quarter, Arizona tallied two touchdowns, one-yard Mario Bates runs to cap 86- and 74-yard drives, in a 5:50 span of the second quarter to take a 14-7 lead. Atlanta responded with 30 unanswered points on five of its seven remaining possessions. After grabbing a 20-14 halftime lead, the Falcons dominated the second half with successful ball-control strategy. The defending National Football Conference champions rushed 25 times for 136 yards in the second stanza, leading to a one-sided 22:09-7:51 time-of-possession advantage following intermission. Arizona managed only four (scoreless) second-half possessions (punt, downs, downs, interception), partly due to Atlanta's time-eating (10:21) 15-play, 80-yard touchdown drive at the outset of the third quarter. Arizona, which entered the contest as the NFL's least penalized team, was stymied by season highs of eight penalties for 57 yards. Bates, in his first start of the season and his second as a Cardinal, raised his team-leading touchdown total to eight, his career high. Wide receiver Frank Sanders posted his first 100-yard game of the season and the 10th of his career with 106 yards on just three catches that included a 63-yarder.

Packers 49, Cardinals 24

January 2, 2000 Lambeau Field (59,818)

Arizona's opened the new millennium with its best offensive day of the 1999 season, but Green Bay's highest point total in 16 years offset the Cards' 464-yard day that included quarterback Jake Plummer's top effort of the campaign, a 35-for-57, 396-yard passing performance that included two touchdown passes. Packer running back Dorsey Levens scored four rushing touchdowns, equalling the Cardinal opponent single-game record. The result was the Cardinals' fourth consecutive loss, sealing a 6-10 season. Two pass interceptions, a lost fumble, and a missed field-goal attempt to end the first half kept Arizona from drawing closer than 14-3 at intermission. Fireworks followed in the second half as the two teams combined for 586 total yards and seven touchdowns (Packers four, Cardinals three). The pivotal play occurred late in the third quarter. After wide receiver Frank Sanders scored on a six-yard pass to cut Green Bay's lead to 21-10, Packer Basil Mitchell returned the ensuing kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown to secure the game's momentum. The late pace was frenetic as Green Bay dented the Cardinals and the scoreboard to successfully maintain a playoff-pertinent point differential over the Carolina Panthers. Sanders caught a career-best 13 passes for 118 yards and a touchdown, his first in 24 games (22 regular season).

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

2000

The Cardinals, founded in 1898 and a charter member of the National Football League, hold the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

The team boasts a colorful history! Its fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The team began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

Cardinal founder Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He also coached the team from 1921-22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921-22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career during the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween's claim to fame, however, would occur many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer, who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian! He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record. (NFL postseason play began in 1933.)

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in a historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals'

Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

The 1947 Championship Season

In the resurrectional flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's spearhead since taking over as owner in 1933 who helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression," deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard-of sum of $100,000, that finally put the Cardinals over the top, winning their one and only NFL championship via a title game.

To appreciate the accomplishment of the 1947 squad, some perspective is necessary.

Just two seasons earlier, in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110–98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinals history, the omnitalented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the desolate wilderness to a 6–5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding churning Wisconsin full-back Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31–7 trouncing of their hated crosstown rivals, the Chicago Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after an appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy with a 47.4-yard average.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory dethroned the Cards with the arch-rival Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's north side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would get the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the stratagem would isolate Bears left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

The biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

Game day dawned!

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection. Dimancheff ran a flair pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman and converted two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win.

Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with all the old Big Red was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated sparks. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped on tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating, back-breaking, long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yards by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards.

The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

New Direction

Violet Bidwill, with her husband's passing, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular-season record.

The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35–23, ending the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Three coaching changes and a name change have altered the face of the Cardinals since their Arizona arrival. Following their first two seasons in the desert, long-time Washington assistant Joe Bugel arrived as head coach, a position he held for four seasons until Buddy Ryan was named head coach and general manager on February 3, 1994. Vince Tobin succeeded Ryan as head coach on February 7, 1996.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as the host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad, one of the NFL's youngest teams, ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought and notched the Cardinals' first postseason victory since 1947.

Heritage

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame grew to 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a CBS-TV NFL color analyst, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971–83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson, who currently serves the Cardinals as a vice president.

Larry Wilson, currently a team vice president, is one of 14 Cardinals in the NFL Hall of Fame.

1925: CARDS' FIRST TITLE

2000

Seventy-five seasons ago, in 1925, the young National Football League was embroiled in a tempestuous campaign of history-making and public perception-altering achievement.

It also would be a year of scandal, coercion, and disgrace for the league. The murky fingers of taint would reach out and touch three NFL teams, including the Chicago Cardinals. Yet when the clouds had cleared, lo and behold, the Cardinals would claim their first NFL championship! Unfortunately, the crown would not be won on the field, but via a vote of the league teams. (Champions were decided by final standings until 1933 when the first NFL championship game was played).

Professional football gained a massive measure of respectability late in the fall of 1925 with the heralded signing of Illinois all-America running back Harold "Red" Grange, the "Galloping Ghost." Grange's marquee name on the roster of the Chicago Bears, coming on the heels of the famous redhead's last game as a collegian, eased the public's once strongly held belief that pro football was a sideshow profession for wayward vagabonds and itinerant derelicts. Grange gave the NFL instant class and credibility. His legendary barnstorming tour of America—seven games in 10 days, 17 contests between the end of November and the end of January—propelled interest and attendance, setting off a financial bonanza for Grange as well.

Through it all, the Cardinals led the league, maintaining a one-game advantage in first place over a young, vibrant, and surprising team from Pottsville, Pennsylvania — the Maroons.

Cardinals owner Chris O'Brien scheduled a game with Pottsville, and as accounts go, used the contest as leverage, through the press, to try and entice Bears owner George Halas into a rematch. The Bears had fallen to the Cardinals 9-0 on October 25. The stalemate of the second game between the cross-town rivals, the classic scoreless tie that marked the debut of the legendary Grange on Thanksgiving Day, left the perfect opportunity in O'Brien's mind to schedule another payday against Halas' team with Grange's godlike status spearheading the ticket drive.

The Cardinals' owner set the stage for public demand for the event by chiding Halas through the papers that the Bears, even with Grange, had yet to score against his Cardinals that year. But the driving impetus behind a possible third Bears-Cardinals matchup, with the Bears off the championship pace that season, was the need for a valid championship-type showdown—in this case, Pottsville vs. the Chicago Cardinals.

It was scheduled for Sunday, December 6, at Comiskey Park in Chicago. The last thing O'Brien and league commissioner Joe Carr, reputedly a Maroons detractor in private, expected was a Pottsville triumph. The sound 21-7 whipping by the Maroons, led by back Walter French, linemen Herb and Russ Stein, and end Charley Berry, silenced all talk about a Cardinals' championship.

Almost!

As Chicago Tribune reporter Don Maxwell put it, "They don't know Mr. O'Brien."

Undeterred by the shocking loss, the Cardinals owner quickly scheduled two more league games that, if won, would hand the title back to the Cardinals by virtue of an 11-2-1 season record, one game better than Pottsville's 10-2 mark.

O'Brien's shenanigans ultimately would lead to a league-governed schedule, as "pick-up games" were systematically eliminated from the rank and file of future NFL order. In the case of the first game O'Brien scheduled, the infamous Thursday, December 10 contest vs. the Milwaukee Badgers, the Milwaukee team already had disbanded for the season. An unknown cast of add-ons augmented only one regular Badger. Nobody checked the veracity of Sunday players in those days, particularly since it was well known that many collegians "supplemented" their weekends with professional play under assumed names.

But the Milwaukee incident was riddled with unseen barbs. It would surface that four high school kids from the Chicago area had been recruited to play in the fateful game, a ridiculous 59-0 "practice game" as viewed by most. The volatile repercussions in the aftermath of the disclosure would drag O'Brien, Chicago Cardinals player Art Folz, and Badgers owner Ambrose McGurk through the mud of public disdain for allegedly recruiting four high school students to participate in a professional game.

Commissioner Carr's execution was swift. He gave McGurk 90 days to dispose of the club, banning the Badgers forever from league play. In the end, Folz, who went to the same high school as the four students (Englewood) and fought valiantly to restore their eligibility, took most of the blame while strongly asserting O'Brien's innocence. Carr, nonetheless, barred Folz for life from the NFL.

Meanwhile, in Pennsylvania, with the prideful hamlet of Pottsville celebrating its NFL championship (that was the way it had been promoted in the Chicago papers prior to the game), the Maroons weren't content to leave well enough alone. Pottsville booked an ill-advised game on December 12 against the Notre Dame All-Stars in Philadelphia, geographically within the territorial rights of the NFL's Frankford Yellowjackets and an obvious violation of league rules. The game, played the same day as the Chicago Cardinals-Hammond Pros contest, the second of O'Brien's two "post-Pottsville" bookings and the resultant outcry from the Yellowjackets would factor into the final outcome of the struggle for the league crown.

The Maroons' lustrous 9-7 win over the Four Horsemen-led Fighting Irish contingent, billed as the first football all-star game ever played in America, had things looking rosey in the Keystone State. However, Commissioner Carr had been thorough and adroit in informing the Maroons prior to the all-star game that severe penalties would be enacted if the event were carried out. His edict called for the suspension of all Pottsville rights, including the team's right to compete for the NFL crown. The Maroons' charter was revoked and the franchise forfeited.

As events turned out some seven months later, Carr would reinstate Pottsville for the following season in the wake of the formation of the new American Football League (A.F.L.), originated by Grange and his manager, C.C. Pyle, in 1926. Carr reasoned that it made little sense to hand over a good team like the Maroons to a new and powerful rival.

The residual brouhaha over the tumultuous end to the 1925 season still lingers with a sulfurous taste in the mouths of Pottsvillians, who 37 years later in 1962, petitioned the league, then in the Pete Rozelle regime, to open the sordid old coffin and scrape the linings, hopefully, for a DNA sample that would clear the Pottsville name and rightfully return the title to the tiny Appalachian mountain town. That motion was turned down, but in 1981, the NFL thought enough of the matter to assign an inquest team, headed by the Professional Football Researchers Association, to dig into the still-breathing controversy.

The findings did not support the Maroons. The gist of it was simply this: The Chicago-Pottsville "NFL championship showdown" in 1925 was in reality just another regular-season game. Yes, the Cardinals' O'Brien maximized the hype, more than anything to obtain a lucrative third rematch with Halas and the Bears. But fate has a strange way of bringing its fare to the table. Grange, then on the historic barnstorming tour, was injured against the Pittsburgh All-Stars—ironically, the same day as the portentous Cardinals-Badgers game—and O'Brien pursued his bonanza match with the Bears. Another point of significance: All league teams had the right to schedule games through December 20, a three-week extension from the previous season.

Carr treated the Pottsville-Notre Dame All-Stars game and the dark recruitment of the four high schoolers for the Cardinals-Badgers match as two entirely separate and unrelated matters, which they were. Pottsville's long-held contention that the commissioner had ordered the Cardinals to play two extra games as a means to wrest the championship from an undesirable hick-town first-year entrant in the league, never could be substantiated. O'Brien, who always publicly avowed any championship should be won on the field, to his credit, refused the first-place trophy that was awarded to the Chicago Cardinals at season's end.

It's unfortunate controversy overshadowed the remarkable achievements of an excellent Chicago Cardinals squad in 1925. Cards fans unknowingly had savored the heroic efforts of the popular Paddy Driscoll for the last time. The future Hall of Fame running back/kicking specialist was sold to the arch rival Bears by the financially strapped O'Brien before the beginning of the following (1926) season. O'Brien never was able to replace the gifted Driscoll with anyone even remotely approaching his magnitude. O'Brien's unselfish sale of his superstar, in the face of an enticing offer to take his Cardinals to the rival A.F.L. of Pyle and Grange, was viewed as a martyr-like act of allegiance to the young NFL, a timely display of loyalty that helped save the league at a critical juncture in its history.

OUTHOUSE TO PENTHOUSE

It wasn't starting off to be a particularly good day for Jim Hardy.

The bright, 27-year-old, fifth-year pro, and second-year quarterback of the Chicago Cardinals was on his way to Comiskey Park for the 1950 season opener when misfortune struck.

"I totaled my car on the way to the stadium," Hardy ruefully remembers. "Some guy ran a stop sign and just wiped me out. I barely got to Comiskey in time to dress and take the field."

Unfortunately for Hardy, things would only get worse from there.

"I then went out and proceeded to stink the joint up."

The figurative fetid odor was Hardy's eight-interception passing performance against the defending NFL champion Philadelphia Eagles, a league single-game standard that remains unbroken 50 years later.

"Looking back, it's almost a comedy of errors," says the affable 77-year-old Hardy today. "In fact two weeks before, in our second-to-last preseason game against the 49ers in Chicago, they were beating up on us, 21-7, and I already had been pulled for ineffectiveness. But I was put back in with six minutes to play and threw three touchdown passes in five minutes, and we beat 'em 28-21. And then to have that game two weeks later against Philadelphia ..."

Eight interceptions. Two lost fumbles. Ten personal turnovers.

It happened to one of the best passers of his time. Hardy, who had been with the Los Angeles Rams from 1946-48, had led the Western Division in passing in 1948 and was the league leader in fewest interceptions.

"I can remember going into the dressing room at halftime, my elbows on my knees, my head in my hands, thinking 'What could be worse? Three passes intercepted in one game!'" says Hardy. "Little knowing there were five more to come. Oh, God, it was just an absolute nightmare."

Interestingly, the New York Times account of the game indicated Hardy's eight interceptions fell one shy of the league mark, but it failed to furnish any further notation on just who that apparent record-setter was and when and where that event took place.

Philadelphia defensive back Russ Craft picked off four of the Hardy aerials that September 24 afternoon, also an NFL record he still shares with 16 others, including current Cardinal safety Kwamie Lassiter.

"I almost single-handedly put Craft in the Hall of Fame," chuckles Hardy. "I remember the last one. I had seven (interceptions), and when I came out of the game, the coaches naturally were up in arms. The Eagles had the ball and it didn't look like we'd get it again. But, don't you know, we got the ball back on a fumble. Of course, the coach says, 'Now, whatever you do, don't put the ball in the air!'"

"But you know, hope springs eternal. I said to myself, 'I'm going to salvage something out of this game!'" So, I put (running backs) Charley Trippi to one side and Elmer Angsman to the other, and I lofted another tight spiral down the field, and damned if it doesn't get picked off!"

Craft, genuinely impressed with the passing skills of Hardy, didn't feel from his perspective there was anything unusual dogging the Cardinals' quarterback. In fact, Craft offered a reasonable explanation for the strange unfolding of events at Comiskey Park that day.

"He (Hardy) was erratic," Craft remembers, "but Greasy Neale, our 'cagey coach,' as we referred to him, changed our defense a little bit that day. We were rotating opposite to what we used to do. He was throwing into a zone that normally would have been a little open. But I was back in that zone. We rotated our halfback. When they went in motion my way, we'd double up and would have solid double coverage on that side. They really just threw into our hands."

"I knew his history. Hardy was sharp as a tack sometimes. You couldn't take him lightly at all. We trained all week to do this certain maneuver, and giving credit all down the line, our scouts did a heck of a job, too."

"Whatever they did," adds Hardy, upon hearing Craft's account, "it worked."

Thankfully, even in the worst of times, there is always room for a little levity.

"That night, Trippi, who was my roommate, and [guard] Plato Andros and our wives all went out to dinner together," Hardy recalls. "At one point Charley said to me, 'Jim, would you pass me the salt?' And Plato, in his Oklahoma drawl, says, 'Oh, Charley, don't ask Jim to pass anything, it'll just be intercepted.'"

But the eternal mark of a champion always will be the ability to get up from the mat. Seemingly down for the count, real heroes rise on sheer will to produce a better situation.

"You know, as bad as that day was," says Hardy, "and as bad as they beat us (45-7), we played them in Philadelphia eight weeks later and I threw two touchdown passes to beat them, 14-10. They were the defending league champs at the time.

"It's a lot like I would imagine childbirth is for a woman. After a certain amount of time, she forgets how painful the experience is and, ultimately, she's ready to have another baby. Well, it was the same for me. I just died, though the years have smoothed over the raw feelings. But, I'll tell you, you never live that kind of thing down. You go up to the plate and strike out five times, you remember it a long time."

But the wheel of fortune turns. Better days were ahead for Hardy — immediately!

Seeking redemption to atone for his dubious record-making performance, Hardy and the Cardinals faced the first-year (newly merged from the old All-America Football Conference) Baltimore Colts eight days after the Eagles debacle on a Monday night at Comiskey Park.

"I couldn't wait for that game," notes Hardy. "You would've loved to have played the next day just to put the bad day behind you."

The Colts would have been better off staying in Baltimore. Hardy had a monumental game by anyone's standards that October 2 night, firing six touchdown passes in a 55-13 rout of the Colts. The performance set a Cardinals single-game record (tied twice by Charley Johnson) and is still the second-best single-game mark for touchdown passes in NFL annals.

The evening produced another record-setter for the Cardinals, end Bob Shaw, the former Ohio State all-America and ex-teammate of Hardy in Los Angeles in 1946. Shaw grabbed five Hardy aeriels for touchdowns, an NFL mark to this day, since tied by San Diego tight end Kellen Winslow and San Francisco wide receiver Jerry Rice. Typical of Hardy, he deflects the praise of that superlative evening to his teammate Shaw.

"Bob was a brilliant receiver, he really was," remembers Hardy. "He was big, he was fast, he had good hands, and he had just a terrific night. He was mostly always open. He could really fake. Jim Benton, one of the NFL's best-ever receivers, taught Bob, Tom Fears, and many others how to polish their patterns. Also, we had a fabulous end on the other side named Mal Kutner, who used to draw a lot of attention from secondaries, which helped Shaw get open."

Shaw recalls the record-breaking blitz against Baltimore. The Cardinals' head coach, the legendary Curly Lambeau, had pulled him after his fourth touchdown grab of the evening. "Then somebody up in the press box relayed the news down to the bench that I had caught four, so Curly put me back in," Shaw says today at age 79. "I went deep middle and caught another long one for the record. It was quite a day."

Shaw's accomplishment is all the more remarkable considering that, just three years earlier, during an exhibition game in 1947, he was paralyzed for several weeks from a broken neck sustained in a pileup after a running play. The talented receiver had to learn how to walk—then run—all over again. The injury kept him sidelined for two seasons.

After his remarkable 1950 campaign for Chicago, in which he led the NFL in touchdown receptions (12), Shaw's brief but impressive NFL career was over. He chose to close his playing days in Canada through 1953, where the money was often better than NFL pay. Then came a long, illustrious career as a coach in the high school, collegiate, and pro ranks, including several stints in both the NFL and CFL. In addition, Shaw was once an area scout for the New York Yankees. He has been retired since the late '80s.

Today, Jim Hardy is in charge of business development for La Jolla Bank in California, having come out of a 10-year retirement two years ago. For 15 years prior to his involvement with the bank, he had been general manager of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena.

"The frosting on the cake was the 1984 Olympics," states Hardy about his period with the Coliseum. "That was 16 days of New Year's Eve. It was really fun."

For all his ups and downs that year, an interesting footnote to Hardy's remarkable roller-coaster 1950 season was his selection to the first modern Pro Bowl squad after completing a campaign in which he threw 17 touchdown passes and 24 interceptions, a career high. It was a strong finish after an inglorious start!

Like other stars who have had to live with their day of infamy, for instance the Minnesota

In 1950, Cards' quarterback Jim Hardy threw eight interceptions one week and six touchdown passes the next.

Vikings' Jim Marshall and his never-to-be-forgotten wrong-way fumble return for a touchdown in 1964, Hardy has gained a measure of perspective and philosophy about life's events and the role those passages play in a much larger picture. His difficult trial and subsequent graceful handling of the experience stands as a durable inspiration to all.

"There were so many good times and so many good days," he says matter of factly. "Even the best pitchers in the big leagues get rapped for three home runs in a single game, but they come back and do better the next time."

Notes

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry, and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gault and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gault and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7-7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Wilsey take over ... during the season Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfect the safety blitz.

Notes

Violet Wolfner Bidwill, widow of Card owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., passes away ... sons Bill and Charles (Stormy) Bidwill become legal owners and retain their titles of president (Stormy) and vice-president (Bill) ... Wally Lemm, a former Cardinal assistant coach, selected as club's head coach ... Charley Johnson, a "future" draft pick in 1960, becomes starting quarterback in the fifth game of the season and sets team records for pass attempts (308), completions (150), yardage (2,440) ... he also sets single-game mark with 396 yards against Philadelphia on Dec. 16 as Cards (589 yards offense) and Eagles (498 yards) combine for 1,087 total yards, the second-highest total in NFL history ... Bobby Joe Conrad switches from running back to flanker and catches 62 passes to tie a club record set two years earlier by Sonny Randle ... Randle sets a pair of team marks with 15 receptions for 256 yards at N.Y. Giants on Nov. 4.

Notes

Charley Winner named head coach ... team begins play in newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium, featuring artificial turf and a seating capacity of 51,392 ... record crowd of 50,673 views 10-10 tie with Dallas on Oct. 16, an attendance mark that would stand for four seasons ... Cards begin season 7-1-1, but another injury to quarterback Charley Johnson, and subsequent injuries to wide receiver Sonny Randle, cornerback Pat Fischer, and offensive linemen Bob DeMarco, Ken Gray, and Irv Goode result in an 8-5-1 mark ... safety Larry Wilson leads NFL with 10 interceptions and ties another mark with threes in seven consecutive games ... Cardinals score just 52 points in final five games ... Cards are victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16-10 Falcon win on Dec. 11.

Notes

NFL expands to 16 teams ... Cards join Century Division of the Eastern Conference with Cleveland, New York, and Pittsburgh ... wide receiver Sonny Randle is traded to San Francisco ... quarterback Charley Johnson and linebacker Larry Stallings are inducted into the Army two days before the first preseason game ... kicker Jim Bakken leads NFL with 117 points (most for a kicker) on 27-of-39 field goals and 36-of-36 extra points ... he also sets NFL single-game record with nine field-goal attempts (made seven) vs. Pittsburgh, Sept. 24 ... tight end Jackie Smith posts 1,205 receiving yards on 56 receptions for club record and impressive 21.5-yard average per catch ... Cards finish 6-7-1 but witness startling debut of former tail squad free agent from Southern Illinois, quarterback Jim Hart ... John Omohundro, then an assistant to trainer Jack Rockwell, begins a tenure with the Cards that still endures 33 years later.

Notes

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4-9-1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets still-standing team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51-42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium on Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

Notes

Bob Holloway named head coach ... Cards draft cornerback Norm Thompson, offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, and wide receiver Mel Gray ... Thompson will start for seven seasons, Dierdorf becomes six-time Pro Bowler and member of Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Gray logs 12 seasons, highlighted by a stretch of catching a pass in 121 consecutive games from 1973-82 ... Eagles' kicker Tom Dempsey sets then Card opponent record with 54-yard field goal on Dec. 12 ... Gray completes rookie season with eye-popping averages of 28 yards on two rushing attempts, 29.7 yards on 18 pass receptions with four touchdowns, and 24.7 yards on 30 kickoff returns.

Notes

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach ... he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach ... running back Terry Metcalf drafted in third round ... Jim Hart is named starting quarterback ... despite 4-9-1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards ... Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta on Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32-10 win.

Notes

Despite 10-4 record (6-1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to make playoffs. ... Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington in Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27-14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10-4 and not gain a postseason berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington on Oct. 25.

Notes

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama linebacker E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State quarterback Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel running back Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive games to finish 7-9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and ties two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

Notes

After losing five of first six games, Cards rebound with 7-2-1 mark in final 10 contests and narrowly miss playoffs with 8-7-1 record. In first full season at wide receiver, Roy Green establishes team records with 78 pass receptions for 1,227 yards to earn all-pro acclaim. Defensive end Curtis Greer sets team record with 16 quarterback sacks as Cards lead NFL with 59 traps. Cards and N.Y. Giants play to 20-20 tie on nationally-televised "Monday Night Football" game remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Card kicker Neil O'Donoghue. Future Hall of Famer Dan Dierdorf announces his retirement after 12 seasons, 160 games, and six Pro Bowls. St. Louis (nine) and Kansas City (six) combine for 15 turnovers, the shy of the NFL record. In 38-14 Chiefs' win on Oct. 2. Cards lose 28-10 to Minnesota during preseason game on Aug. 6 in London's Wembley Stadium, the first NFL game in England.

Notes

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23-7 halftime deficit to take a 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29-27 win and the division crown ... In the torrid comeback at Washington, quarterback Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,814 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... wide receiver Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

Notes

Though a 3-1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5-11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980-85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro running back Otis Anderson injured, Stump Mitchell averages 95.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... quarterback Neil Lomax sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian Kicker Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3-0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34-3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

Notes

After 18 seasons in St. Louis (1960–87), Cards relocate to Arizona to play in Sun Devil Stadium at Arizona State University ... Hall of Famer Larry Wilson named vice president and general manager ... victories over three most recent Super Bowl champions—N.Y. Giants, Washington, and San Francisco—and 7–4 start (best since 1976) overshadowed by live consecutive losses to end season ... signature victory by overcoming 23–0 third-quarter deficit to down San Francisco 24–23 on a touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green with three seconds left ... a national “Monday Night Football” audience and capacity Sun Devil Stadium crowd witness the Cards’ inaugural regular-season game in Arizona, a 17–14 Dallas victory ... Cards gain first home victory in new venue with 30–21 upset of defending Super Bowl champion Washington on Sept. 25.

Notes

After a 2-0 start ending 5-5 mark after 10 games, Head Coach George Stalling resigns after 37-14 loss to L.A. Rams dips Cards' slate to 5-6.

_____ Cards lose next five games under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann - quarterback Neil Lomax forced to sidelines for entire season due to career-ending arthritic condition in left hip _____ only four Cardinals start all 16 games as 21 players who started at least one game miss playing time _____ Cards sweep first season series against Cowboys since 1970 with 19-10 win at Dallas and 24-20 victory in Arizona _____ full-back Ron Wolfley named to unprecedented fourth consecutive Pro Bowl due to kamikaze-like play on special teams.

Notes

Encouragement from 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history ... quarterback Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice on Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting defensive tackle Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on cornerback Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... linebacker Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season opener at L.A. Rams on Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

Notes

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... cornerback Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl punter Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

Notes

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less. A Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburgh (Kan.) State rookie running back Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory on Sept. 12, their first since arriving at Washington since 1978.

Notes

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4-12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... lowlight of season at expansion Carolina on Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest amount in 40 years ... fullback Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

Notes

Improvement from 4-12 to 7-9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... running back LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards on Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... quarterback Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37-34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 ... 0-8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1-15 season with Nov. 21 win over Arizona on Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick Illinois defensive end Simeon Rice sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

Notes

Cards go 3-6 in nine games decided in the final minute or overtime (four), including the first five outings and six of the first seven assignments ... quarterback Jake Plummer, with starts in final nine games, sets team rookie passing records by completing 157 of 296 passes (53 percent) for 2,203 yards and 15 touchdowns ... also sets NFL rookie passing mark on Nov. 15 at the N.Y. Giants with 388 yards ... Rob Moore sets club single-season record with NFL-leading 1,555 receiving yards ... Moore (97 receptions) and Frank Sanders (75 receptions, 1,017 yards) become the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season ... defensive tackle Mark Smith leads NFL rookie interior linemen with six sacks ... 66-yard interception return for a touchdown by tackle Bernard Wilson on Nov. 2 vs. Eagles is the longest in team history by a defensive lineman ... Cards' improbable 25-22 overtime win against Dallas on Sept. 7 snaps Cowboys 13-game series winning streak ... cornerback Aeneas Williams returns two interceptions for touchdowns to push career total to club-record six.

OVERTIME GAMES

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17

December 13, 1998 • Veterans Stadium (62,176)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years (30-12 at Houston, Dec. 4, 1994). After Arizona took a quick 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 28-yard opening-drive Chris Jacke field goal and strong safety Tommy Bennett's 70-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Cardinals repeatedly were poised to take command of the contest, but continually misfired, going scoreless on five drives that reached the Eagles' 33- (third-down quarterback sack), 12- (fumble), 11- (fourth-down tackle for loss), 27- (third-down quarterback sack), and 17-yard lines (missed field goal), respectively. The Cards used a 43-carry, 204-yard rushing attack to keep their injury-depleted defense off the field. Running back Adrian Murrell led the ground assault with his Cardinal-high 174-yard effort on 32 carries. Quarterback Jake Plummer recorded his seventh career fourth-quarter/overtime comeback victory by completing eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown after Philadelphia took its first and only lead at 17-10 early in the fourth quarter on a 26-yard touchdown pass. On the Cards' final three possessions, Plummer drove Arizona 66 yards to tie the score at 17-17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positioned the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining in regulation, and directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz. Moore gained 109 receiving yards on seven catches, his second 100-yard game of the season and the 21st of his career. Larry Centers' second reception raised his career total to 523, breaking Roy Green's franchise career receiving record of 522.

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20

November 30, 1997 • Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute or overtime. Pittsburgh's relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession. A five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51. Pittsburgh's run game also led to a lopsided 39:22-26:12 time-of-possession advantage. The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal Pittsburgh's mark, limited Arizona to 48 yards rushing, and stopped the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts. Card rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's 12-for-17, 217-yard second-half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20-20 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Joe Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard game-winning field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining. Wide receiver Rob Moore padded his NFL-leading receiving yardage total to 1,348 yards with eight receptions for 188 yards. The Cardinal offense recorded its first multiple-touchdown effort in four games, while the Arizona defense failed to record a turnover for the third consecutive week. Bettis notched his ninth 100-yard rushing effort of the season, while Cardinal rushers failed to reach 100 rushing yards for the 25th straight time, the NFL high.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10

October 19, 1997 • Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's unimaginable run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles handed the Cardinals a 13-10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. The Cardinals' offense, behind first-time starting quarterback Stoney Case, sputtered to a scoreless first half despite excellent field position. (Arizona began its first three possessions at its own 48 and 42-yard lines and the Eagles' 42 without scoring.) Four of the Cards' seven first-half possessions gained one yard or less; Arizona gained only 80 total net yards in the opening stanza. New kicker Joe Nedney cut the Eagles' advantage to 7-3 with a 23-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The tight-vested affair became a sparring match the rest of the way with neither side scoring in the Cards' ensuing five possessions. Rookie Jake Plummer replaced Case at 10:26 of the fourth quarter with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line. In his first NFL action, Plummer drove the Cardinals 98 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams, giving Arizona a 10-7 lead with 3:07 to play. It was Williams' first touchdown reception as a Cardinal. A 38-yard Chris Boniol field goal with 26 seconds left sent the game into overtime. Plummer had the Cardinals on the march again with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal. Arizona enjoyed a turnover advantage for only the second time in seven outings with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries against just one lost fumble. Wide receiver Rob Moore posted his fourth 100-yard receiving game (6-101), his first career single-season high. Defensive end Simone Rice recorded his first NFL interception.

Redskins 19, Cardinals 13

September 14, 1997 • Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle the two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington. Both offenses sputtered, combining to gain only 562 total net yards, committing three turnovers, converting just 11 of 37 third-down attempts, posting 18 possessions of four plays or less, and punting 17 times. The Cardinals took a 7-3 first-quarter lead when J.J. McCleskey blocked a Redskin punt and Tommy Bennett fell on the ball in the Redskin end zone. The play marked the Cards' first touchdown on a blocked punt in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972). A five-yard touchdown reception by the Redskins' Michael Westbrook and a 32-yard Kevin Butler field goal deadlocked the game until late in the fourth quarter when the Redskins drove 75 yards in 15 plays to take a 13-10 lead with 1:13 to play on a 19-yard Scott Blanton field goal. The Cardinals then drove 37 yards in eight plays following Kevin Williams' 22-yard kickoff return to set the table for a 47-yard game-tying field goal with two seconds to play by Butler, who beat the Redskins twice in 1996 with last-play three-pointers. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals' Leeland McElroy fumbled on Arizona's second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Frerotte found a stumbling Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game.

Cardinals 25, Cowboys 22

September 7, 1997 • Sun Devil Stadium (70,060)

One week after watching a 21-3 lead evaporate into a 24-21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak. Trailing 22-3 in the third quarter after allowing one defensive touchdown by Dallas and five field goals by Cowboy kicker Richie Cunningham, Arizona quarterback Kent Graham led the furious rally with two touchdown passes—seven yards to wide receiver Frank Sanders and one yard to tight end Pat Carter. The latter pulled the Cards within two points with 1:06 to play. Wide receiver Rob Moore, whose 47-yard reception keyed the eight-play, 70-yard drive leading to Carter's touchdown, knotted the game with a two-point conversion reception from Graham. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively—to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under Head Coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21–6 lead in the Cards' 27–24 success on Oct. 4, 1992, and marked the first time Arizona held Dallas without an offensive touchdown since the first 1990 meeting.

Cardinals 37, Redskins 34

November 10, 1996  RFK Stadium (51,929)

The Cardinals rode a record-setting passing effort by quarterback Boomer Esiason to shock NFC East Division-leading Washington in overtime. Esiason's personal best 522 passing yards were the third most prolific total in NFL history while also setting Cardinal and Redskin opponent single-game records. Arizona's defense came to the rescue, too, holding Washington pointless following all five Cardinal turnovers. New Cardinal kicker Kevin Butler, signed five days earlier, sealed the pulsating victory with his third field goal, a 32-yarder, after he and Redskin kicker Scott Blanton traded overtime misses. The Cards were sledding uphill throughout the second half after Washington snapped the 13–13 halftime tie with two third-quarter touchdowns. A one-yard Larry Centers touchdown plunge cut the deficit to 27–20, but the Redskins answered with Terry Allen's second one-yard touchdown run. Facing a 34–20 hole with 10:37 remaining, Esiason led a furious comeback. He drove the Cards 80 yards in eight plays, a drive culminated by rookie tight end Johnny McWilliams' first NFL touchdown, a 13-yard reception. Esiason had the Cards poised to strike again at the Redskin 25-yard line on the next Arizona possession but tossed his fourth interception. The Card defense held, and Esiason had the ball again at the Arizona 34-yard line with 1:24 to play following Washington's punt. Seven plays, 66 yards, and 1:04 later, the score was tied when Esiason found wide receiver Anthony Edwards with a 12-yard scoring pass. Arizona's 615 total yards were the first 600-yard outing in franchise history and the highest total in the NFL in six years (676, Washington vs. Detroit, Nov. 4, 1990).

Cardinals 31, Rams 28

September 29, 1996  Sun Devil Stadium (33,116)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31–28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 86 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Although the St. Louis line of scrimmage never advanced farther than the Cards' 34-yard line, Arizona was victimized by four long Ram scoring plays—66-yard punt return and 34-, 46-, and 45-yard touchdown passes. The Cards methodically marched to two clock-eating fourth-quarter touchdown drives (93 yards on 19 plays in 10:22, and 62 yards on 12 plays in 3:38) that both culminated in five-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Kent Graham to fullback Larry Centers and wide receiver Frank Sanders, respectively. The latter tied the score with 11 seconds remaining. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson raced 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Graham established personal bests with 37-for-58 passing for 366 yards and four touchdowns and equalled two team single-game records—37 completions (Neil Lomax, 1984) and 14 consecutive completions (Steve Bueferlein, 1994). Graham also became the 11th Cardinal to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Otis Anderson, 75 yards). Centers' 13 receptions were his single-game best. Arizona also set a franchise record with 23 first downs passing.

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995  Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Special teams punctuated the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked, and a 45-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to tight end Oscar McBride with 1:57 to play, followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an interception by Card line-backer Seth Joyner on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play. Krieg's 413 passing yards surpassed 400 yards for only the fifth time in team history.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995  Sun Devil Stadium

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail abruptly ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. An early Viking field goal and two second-quarter Moon touchdown passes of 32 and five yards to wide receivers Jake Reed and Cris Carter, respectively, gave Minnesota 17 halftime points. The Cards answered with a nine-yard Dave Krieg-to-Rob Moore touchdown pass and the first of three Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals inched closer at 17–16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged early fourth-quarter touchdowns—Minnesota on a two-yard Moon-to-Carter connection, Arizona on a two-yard Krieg-to-tight end Wendall Gaines toss. The Cardinals also successfully completed a two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Moore to knot the game at 24–24 with 8:36 to play. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest. Leading to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995  Sun Devil Stadium

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14–0 half-time lead on two first-quarter touchdowns—an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble. Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime and eventually knotted the score on two touchdown passes to fullback Mack Strong. The Seahawks flirted with late leads on two of their final three possessions, the first ending when running back Chris Warren fumbled inside the Cards' 10-yard line after rambling 52 yards. Card cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered in the end zone for a touchback. After Cardinal running back Larry Centers fumbled at the Arizona 23-yard line, a 43-yard Seattle field-goal attempt four plays later was blocked by defensive tackle Eric Swann. The Seahawks returned the favor on Arizona's overtime-opening possession when Greg Davis' 27-yard three-point attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return for a score in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 • Giants Stadium

Late turnovers and a missed field goal punctuated a see-saw overtime battle that ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Neither team held more than a four-point lead until late in the third quarter when Cardinal quarterback Dave Krieg completed his second touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders, a six-yard toss the pair followed with a two-point conversion pass, to take a 21-14 advantage. After the Giants knotted the struggle at 21-21, the pulsating ending began with New York poised to take the lead at the Cards' six-yard line with just over three minutes to play, but Arizona linebacker Eric Hill caused a fumble that safety Terry Hoage recovered. A 47-yard Krieg-Sanders completion put the Cards in position to win, but Greg Davis missed a 50-yard field-goal attempt with 23 seconds left. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

Nov. 27, 1994 • Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19-16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession, but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

Oct. 30, 1994 • Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 • R.F.K. Stadium

Both teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with 4:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 • Kingdome

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Place kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27-27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 • Veterans Stadium

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10-10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10-3 deficit with only 2:39 left in regulation with a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. Included in the Cards' season-high 461 yards total offense were 390 passing yards (30-of-48) by Lomax.

Green (6 rec., 100 yards) and J.T. Smith (10 rec., 131 yards) enjoyed outstanding efforts. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard field-goal attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McFadden pushed a 43-yard field-goal try wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 • Cleveland Stadium

Neil O'Donoghue kicked a 35-yard field goal with 5:27 gone in overtime to give the Cardinals a 27-24 win over the Browns. The Cards jumped to a 17-3 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown by Lionel Washington. Cleveland stormed back in a torrential rain to score 21 points on its next three possessions to take a 24-17 advantage with just 38 seconds remaining. With the ball on the Cards' 37-yard line, quarterback Neil Lomax connected with Otis Anderson on a middle screen for 41 yards, found Stump Mitchell for another 15 yards, then tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley to tie the game at 24-24 with four seconds to play. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for O'Donoghue's game-winner.

Cardinals 20, Giants 20

October 24, 1983 • Busch Stadium

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed a 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 • Busch Stadium

The Cardinals jumped to a 24-6 halftime lead. Atlanta roared back with 21 points after halftime to win 33-27. Quarterbacks Jim Hart of the Cardinals (344 yards passing) and the Falcons' Steve Bartkowski (378 yards) combined for 722 aerial yards as the teams compiled 978 yards total offense—Cardinals 415, Falcons 563. Hart connected on a pair of long touchdown tosses to Ray Combs (38 yards) and Pat Tilley (50 yards) in the first quarter, and Otis Anderson scored on an eight-yard run in the second stanza before the Falcons' defense stiffened. Atlanta limited the Cards after halftime to minus five yards rushing, 109 yards total offense, and finished the day with five interceptions. Falcon running back Lynn Cain scored twice on runs of five and 10 yards, the latter forcing the overtime period. Atlanta won the coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33-27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 • Candlestick Park

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21-21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. San Francisco opened the scoring when running back Paul Hoyer scored on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Steve DeBerg in the second period. The Cards answered with touchdown passes from Jim Hart to running back Theotis Brown (13 yards) and tight end Doug Marsh (five yards) to take a 14-7 lead. After a 49er score tied the game, the Cards drove 75 yards in eight plays to lead 21-14, but allowed San Francisco to drive 80 yards in 53 seconds in the last two minutes, capped by Hoyer's second touchdown run, a 26-yarder with 58 ticks left in regulation. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted following their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 • Busch Stadium

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field-goal attempt glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24-21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired. The Cardinals took a 14-7 halftime lead on scoring runs of two and one yards by Jim Otis. Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach connected with wide receiver Tony Hill from 37 and six yards to give the Cowboys a 21-14 third-quarter lead. The Cards tied the game with a one-yard touchdown pass from Hart to running back Wayne Morris early in the fourth period. Hart suffered a separated left shoulder on a sack by Cowboy lineman Harvey Martin late in the game and the following week saw his streak of consecutive starts end at 64 games.

Cardinals 23, 49ers 20

October 31, 1976 • Busch Stadium

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a field goal in the extra period for a 23-20 Cardinal victory. With the Cards nursing a 14-13 lead entering the fourth period due to a missed 49er extra point, San Francisco's Delvin Williams, who logged 194 yards rushing, scored the third of his three rushing touchdowns from one yard to give his club a 20-14 lead. Card quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown toss with eight minutes left in the game, but Bakken's conversion was blocked and the score remained tied at 20-20. The Cards won the coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 5:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 • Busch Stadium

In one of the most memorable finishes in franchise history, the Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead with a 7-2 record following a thrilling 20-17 win. Washington took a 14-3 lead into the fourth quarter and held a 17-10 advantage with 1:43 to play before the Cardinals took possession on their own 39-yard line. Quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Earl Thomas for 19 yards to give the Cards a first-and-goal situation at the Washington six-yard line with 50 seconds remaining. After three incompletions, Hart faced fourth-and-goal with 25 ticks left. Speedy wide receiver Mel Gray lined wide right against Redskin cornerback Pat Fischer and ran a quick slant. The two Pro Bowlers ran stride for stride. Hart delivered the ball to the end zone, and Gray emerged from a tangle of arms, legs, and elbows with the ball, then dropped it when Fischer stripped him. After one official ruled incomplete pass and another touchdown, a conference ensued. Referee Fred Silva emerged and signaled touchdown. Jim Bakken converted the extra point to send the game into overtime. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 • Texas Stadium

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

*Future draft choice

Baditude.

Dodge Ram is definitely an in-your-face kind of truck.

It offers a big choice of powerful Magnum® engines.

It was the first to make available a four-door Quad Cab.™

It has the roomiest two-door Club on the market.

*And according to those who make it their business to know, it just also happens to be the longest-lasting full-size pickup on the road.

You got a problem with that?

Dodge Ram  Different.

*Based on percentage of 7/90-7/99 new pickup registrations still registered on 7/1/99. Data Source:

Last Meeting

November 23, 1997 • Memorial Stadium • Cardinals 16, Baltimore 13
The Cardinals' 16-13 victory in their first meeting with the Ravens and first appearance in Baltimore since 1981 ended two Arizona losing streaks—an eight-game road skid and a seven-game skid against the American Football Conference. The defensive struggle was the Cards' seventh outcome decided in the final minute or overtime. Card kick returner Kevin Williams gave Arizona good field position throughout the contest with six punt returns for 110 yards, the 1997 NFL best, and two kickoff returns for 60 yards. Cardinal rookie quarterback Jake Plummer, who fought through a shaky first half (seven-for-15, 64 yards), saved his best for last, driving the Cards 55 yards in six plays from their own 20-yard line in the game's final 34 seconds following Baltimore's game-tying field goal to set the table for Joe Nedney's 43-yard game-winning field goal as time expired. Nedney, a perfect three-for-three in field-goal attempts, also booted 22- and 27-yard three-pointers in the first half. Plummer, a modest 19-for-34 for 218 yards, 1 touchdown, and 2 interceptions on the day, was four-for-five for 50 yards in the decisive drive, including a key 27-yard completion to wide receiver Rob Moore to the Baltimore 31-yard line with 15 seconds remaining. Arizona's only touchdown was a bold fourth-and-goal fourth-quarter pass from Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders with Arizona trailing 10-6 and 8:34 to play. The Cardinal defense, in limiting Baltimore to one offensive touchdown, forced nine punts, including the Ravens' first six series, and six possessions of three plays and out. Arizona was penalized just twice for 20 yards.

Series Notes

Last Meeting

August 31, 1997 • Cinergy Field • Cincinnati 24, Cardinals 21

Three fourth-quarter Cincinnati touchdowns, including the game-winner with 38 seconds to play, overcame a 21-3 Arizona lead and handed the Cardinals a devastating 24-21 defeat in the Cards' earliest opener in history. Arizona appeared in command by tallying touchdowns in each of the first three quarters. The initial score, a 17-yard run by Leeland McElroy to cap a seven-play, 69-yard drive, was only the Cards' second opening-drive touchdown in 44 games. The Bengals gained 130 of their 317 total yards on their final two touchdown drives of 67 and 63 yards. The latter began following a third-down fumble by fullback Larry Centers that Bengal John Copeland recovered at Cincinnati's 37-yard line with 1:18 to play and ended six plays later without the benefit of a timeout. The Cardinal defense recorded four sacks (Eric Swann 2, Jamir Miller, Simeon Rice) and one interception (Aeneas Williams). Arizona's starting wide receivers—Rob Moore (7-96) and Frank Sanders (6-105)—shined. Quarterback Kent Graham enjoyed 20-for-36 passing accuracy for 248 yards while guiding an offense that converted eight of 16 third-down opportunities. The Cards also recorded three rushing touchdowns (McElroy, Cedric Smith, and Centers) for the first time since Dec. 5, 1993 (54 games). The McElroy and Smith scores were the second rushing touchdowns of their careers. The Cardinal offense held the opposition sackless for the first time since the 1993 season finale, a span of 50 games.

Series Notes

The Cardinals and Bengals have met just six times in regular-season play ... Cincinnati holds a 4-2 advantage ... the home team has won each contest ... Cincinnati handed the Cardinals a 21-14 defeat in Riverfront Stadium in the 1988 season opener, the Cardinals' first game representing Arizona ... in 1994, the first meeting in Arizona, the Cards prevailed 28-7 ... the Bengals won the first two contests in Riverfront Stadium—42-34 in 1973 and 34-28 in 1979 ... the Cardinals collected a 41-27 victory at St. Louis in 1985 ... in the most recent meeting, the Bengals overcame a 21-3 deficit with three fourth-quarter touchdowns to shock the Cardinals 24-21 at Cinergy Field in 1997.

Last Meeting

September 18, 1994 • Cleveland Stadium • Cleveland 32, Cardinals 0
The Cardinals suffered their first shutout in 43 games (Oct. 27, 1991 vs. Minnesota) and the first of Buddy Ryan's 82-game head coaching career. Offensive frustrations continued to plague Arizona. The Cards' leading rusher (31 yards) was quarterback Jim McMahon in his first start for Arizona in his second appearance as the club failed to gain 100 team rushing yards. Six of 13 offensive possessions, including the first three, ended in three plays. McMahon and his relief, Jay Schroeder, were intercepted three times. The final steal, off Schroeder in his first Cardinal appearance, was returned 93 yards for a touchdown by Browns' defensive back Eric Turner, the longest interception return in history against the Cardinals. Despite the one-sided outcome, Arizona trailed only 3-0 at half-time, but Cleveland scored touchdowns on three of its first four second-half possessions, capped by an 81-yard scoring connection from quarterback Vinny Testaverde to rookie wide receiver Derrick Alexander, to seize a commanding 25-0 lead. Defensive tackle Eric Swann led Arizona with nine tackles, including eight solo stops, another tackle for loss, its only quarterback sack, and a caused fumble. Cornerback Aeneas Williams registered his first interception of the season.

Series Notes

Cleveland leads the series dating to 1950 by a 32-10-3 margin ... first meeting between the Cardinals and the 'new' Browns ... the two franchises have met just five times since 1974, however, with the Browns taking a 32-0 win at Cleveland in 1994, the most recent meeting ... the Cardinals were victorious in St. Louis with a 29-7 win in 1974 and edged the Browns 30-27 in overtime in Cleveland Stadium in 1985 ... Cleveland's two other wins since 1974 came in Busch Stadium by a 38-20 margin in 1979 and 29-21 triumph in Sun Devil Stadium in Arizona in 1986, the Cardinals' first season in Arizona ... from 1950-69, the teams met each season on a home-and-home basis as members of the NFL Eastern Conference, a stretch of 40 games which saw the Browns accumulate a 29-8-3 advantage.

Last Meeting

November 21, 1999 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 13, Dallas 9

Arizona's defense limited the Cowboys to 78 total yards in the second half (49 rushing, 29 passing) and stopped Dallas on fourth-down short-yardage plays deep in Cardinal territory on the Cowboys' final two possessions to preserve the Cards' 13-9 lead. The Pokes drove to their only offensive points on their second possession, a nine-play, 81-yard drive that quarterback John Garrett completed with an 11-yard touchdown pass to tight end David LaFleur. The Cowboys' first four second-half possessions ended with punts, their final two on downs. The latter were dramatic. The Cards clawed to their 13-point total with a 24-yard Chris Jacke field goal with 20 seconds left in the first half, then drove 69 yards to their only touchdown on four plays to open the second half. A 21-yard flea-flicker touchdown pass from quarterback Dave Brown to wide receiver Rob Moore provided Arizona a 10-7 lead. Jacke padded the advantage to 13-7 with a 38-yard fourth-quarter field goal. After the teams traded punts, the dramatics began. Dallas marched to Arizona's nine-yard line, facing a fourth-and-one with 3:29 to play. Running back Emmitt Smith was repelled for no gain by Card free safety Kwame Lassiter. When the Cardinals failed to make a first down on their ensuing possession, they opted for an intentional safety by punter Scott Player, who ran out of the end zone to create punting room and gain field position. But Deion Sanders' 31-yard return of Player's 54-yard free-kick punt gave Dallas field position at Arizona's 43-yard line with 1:41 to play. Eight plays later, the Cowboys, without a timeout, sat at the Cards' 22-yard line fourth-and-three with 17 seconds remaining. Garrett found wide receiver Raghib Ismail with a short completion, but Card cornerbacks J.J. McCleskey and Aeneas Williams stopped Ismail two yards short of a first down.

Series Notes

Dallas holds a 50-25-1 series lead, including victories in 16 of the past 19 regular-season meetings ... Arizona atoned for recent futility with a 20-7 upset win at Texas Stadium two seasons ago in first-round playoff action ... the Cardinals' thrilling 25-22 Sun Devil Stadium overtime win in 1997 broke a series streak of 13 consecutive Dallas victories and six consecutive season sweeps ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 ... the Cowboys prevailed 17-14 ... the Cowboys drew the largest home crowd in Arizona franchise history when 73,025 packed Sun Devil Stadium to witness a 17-10 Cardinal defeat on September 15, 1993 ... at one stretch from 1967-86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games and enjoyed one home stretch of 13-2 against the Cardinals ... the Cards are 9-27 all-time at Dallas and have won only five of the last 32 regular-season meetings in Texas ... seven of the last eight Sun Devil Stadium meetings have been decided by seven points or less.

The Broncos scored the first five times they had the ball—four touchdowns, one field goal—to take an unsurmountable 31-6 lead en route to a 38-6 victory, equalling the most points allowed by the Cardinals under Head Coach Buddy Ryan. The Broncos pounced quickly, scoring two touchdowns in the game's first 6:04 to take a 14-0 lead. In becoming the fourth Cardinal opponent to reach 400 total yards, the Broncos accumulated 188 of their 406 total yards on six big plays over 20 yards, including touchdown passes of 47 and 23 yards. Denver quarterback John Elway stole the spotlight with 16-of-21 accuracy for 256 yards and three touchdowns with one interception to become the seventh NFL quarterback to surpass 40,000 career passing yards. Arizona's rushing defense succumbed to a 148-yard effort by the Broncos, principally authored by rookie running back Terrell Davis, who became the fifth Card opponent of the season to crack 100 yards rushing (135 yards).

Series Notes

The clubs have played just five times during the regular season with the Cardinals still searching for their first victory ... the first contest ended in a 17-17 tie in 1973, the second a 7-0 Bronco win in 1977, the third a 37-0 shutout by Denver at Sun Devil Stadium in 1989, the fourth a 24-10 come-from-behind Broncos' victory in 1991, and most recently a 38-6 Denver shellacking of the Cards in 1995 ... in preseason play, the teams faced each other five consecutive seasons (1990-94) and 12 times overall ... the Cards are 4-8 against Denver in preseason play.

Last Meeting

January 2, 2000 • Lambeau Field • Green Bay 49, Cardinals 24

Arizona opened the new millennium with its best offensive day of the 1999 season, but Green Bay's highest point total in 16 years offset the Cards' 464-yard day that included quarterback Jake Plummer's top effort of the campaign, a 35-for-57, 396-yard passing performance that included two touchdown passes. Packers running back Dorsey Levens scored four rushing touchdowns, equalling the Cardinal opponent single-game record. The result was the Cardinals' fourth consecutive loss, sealing a 6-10 season. Two pass interceptions, a lost fumble, and a missed field-goal attempt to end the first half kept Arizona from drawing closer than 14-3 at intermission. Fireworks followed in the second half as the two teams combined for 586 total yards and seven touchdowns (Packers four, Cardinals three). The pivotal play occurred late in the third quarter. After wide receiver Frank Sanders scored on a six-yard pass to cut Green Bay's lead to 21-10, Packer Basil Mitchell returned the ensuing kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown to secure the game's momentum. The late pace was frenetic as Green Bay duelled the Cardinals and the scoreboard to successfully maintain a playoff-pertinent point differential over the Carolina Panthers. Sanders caught a career-best 13 passes for 118 yards and a touchdown, his first in 24 games (22 regular season).

Series Notes

The Packers hold a 43-22-4 advantage in the Cardinals' second-oldest rivalry that dates to 1921 ... Green Bay figured in two Cardinal playoff appearances in the past 50 seasons, handing the St. Louis Cardinals a 41-16 loss in the 1982 Super Bowl Tournament ... the Cards also faced the Packers in the 1965 Playoff Bowl (a non-advancing postseason game), earning a 24-17 victory ... the series has been one of streaks ... the Cardinals claimed victory in four-, five-, and six-game winning skeins, while Green Bay authored victory streaks of 17, 5, and 4 (twice) games (1937-46) ... the Packers' 17-game winning streak from 1937-46 is the longest of all Cardinal opponents ... Green Bay has won the most recent three encounters, 26-17 in 1988, 24-21 in 1990, and 49-24 in the 1999 season finale at Lambeau Field ... last year's game, the first game of the new millennium for both teams, was the first meeting since 1990.

Last Meeting

January 10, 1999 • Metrodome • Minnesota 41, Cardinals 21

Arizona's revival 1999 season ended in Minneapolis when the Cardinals succumbed to the prolific Viking offense that turned Arizona's three turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble) into 17 points in a 41-21 defeat in NFC divisional playoff action. After the Vikes drove 80 yards in 13 plays on their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on running back Leroy Hoard's first rushing touchdown, interceptions of Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer on the first two Arizona possessions of the second quarter quickly (four plays both times) turned into 10 points for a 17-0 Viking advantage by the time the Cards ran five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest-scoring offense in NFL history, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point level for the fifth time during the season. It also converted eight of 11 third-down plays. Running backs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage. The former tallied three touchdowns, the latter accumulated 124 rushing yards. Record-setting rookie wide receiver Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota touchdown. Viking safety Robert Griffith recorded both pass interceptions. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cards, trailing 7-0, early life with an end-zone interception and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line. Short-yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona touchdowns on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing touchdowns record. Arizona held the opposition sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. Running back Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cards finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10-4).

Series Notes

The Cards-Vikings regular-season series is even at 8-8 ... the Vikings have prevailed in the last three meetings, including a 41-21 win in 1999 NFC divisional playoff action at the Metrodome ... another postseason encounter between the teams resulted in a 30-14 Viking win at Minnesota in the first round of 1974 playoff action in front of 44,626 fans at Metropolitan Stadium ... in regular-season play, the Cardinals are 4-3 at Minnesota but 0-2 in the Metrodome (34-7 in 1991, 41-17 in 1996) ... the Cards' 56 points in a 56-14 drubbing of the Vikings at Metropolitan Stadium in 1963 stands as the most points allowed by a Viking team ... the preseason meeting is the first since 1988.

Last Meeting

December 20, 1996 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 19, New Orleans 17
Quarterback Jake Plummer, one day past his 24th birthday, rallied the Cardinals in the fourth quarter, and Chris Jacke booted a final-play, game-winning field goal for the second consecutive week. The Cardinals amassed 513 total yards, their highest total in 37 games (650 total net yards at Washington, Nov. 10, 1996), and exceeded 400 total yards for the fourth time in six outings. The New Orleans defense, nevertheless, kept the Cardinals from seizing the game's momentum on consecutive second-quarter Arizona possessions—free safety Sammy Knight's 39-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Saints' ninth defensive six-pointer of the season, and cornerback Alex Molden's end zone fumble recovery following a Plummer pass completion to wide receiver Frank Sanders near the goal line. Arizona defenders returned the favor in the fourth quarter, stuffing New Orleans' fourth-and-one rush from the Cards' nine-yard line. A 13-yard touchdown pass from Saint quarterback Kerry Collins to tight end Cameron Cleveland gave New Orleans a 17-16 lead with 1:21 to play, setting the stage for Plummer's heroics, the eighth fourth-quarter comeback victory in his 25th NFL game. Starting the final possession at their own eight-yard line, the Cardinals covered 73 yards in six plays, beginning with pass completions of 25 and 28 yards to Sanders and ending with Plummer runs of 21 and four yards following one incompleting. Jacke followed with his fourth field goal of the contest, a 36-yarder, his 13th career game-winner. Running back Adrian Murrell's 65 rushing yards pushed him past the 1,000-yard plateau for the third consecutive season. Sanders logged 10 receptions for 138 yards, his fourth 100-yard game of 1998 and the eighth of his career. Plummer completed 32 of 44 passes for 394 yards, including 19-for-24 for 293 yards on first down. The Cardinals did not allow a quarterback sack for the first time since the 1997 season opener at Cincinnati, a span of 31 games. The victory was the Cardinals' eighth vs. NFC opposition, their highest in-conference win total since 1976.

Series Notes

The 2000 campaign marks the eighth time in the past 11 seasons the teams have met in regular-season play ... the Cardinals maintain a 12-10 lead in the series that dates to 1967 ... the Saints won the first four contests in the 1990s before Arizona's 28-14 decision in 1996 and 19-17 win in 1998 were sandwiched around a 27-10 Saint victory in the Superdome in 1997 ... the two teams combined for 93 points in a 51-42 Saints win in 1969, just 10 points shy of the all-time NFL record for most combined points in a single game, and set a league standard for most combined touchdowns passing in a game as quarterbacks Billy Kilmer (Saints) and Charley Johnson (Cardinals) each tossed six scoring strikes ... though it was a preseason game, the Cardinals provided New Orleans with its first victory as a new franchise, a 23-14 decision at Shreveport, La. during the 1967 preseason.

Last Meeting

November 28, 1999 • Giants Stadium • Cardinals 34, N.Y. Giants 24
Arizona rode an overwhelming second-half performance to its first two-game season sweep against the New York Giants since 1979 in quarterback Jake Plummer's return to action. Four second-half defensive takeaways (three interceptions, one fumble recovery), including tackle Eric Swann's first career touchdown, a 42-yard interception return, fueled the Cardinals' highest point total at Giants Stadium and in 28 road games overall against the Giants. The victory also improved Arizona's NFC Eastern Division record to 4-2, their best in-division start since 1984. Plummer, sidelined for the previous four outings, entered the contest at the outset of the second half, driving Arizona to three touchdowns in a span of five possessions to overcome a 10-6 halftime deficit. The first six-pointer was the direct result of the Cards' first second-half takeaway, linebacker Rob Fredrickson's 23-yard return of an interception to New York's 16-yard line. Five plays later, Plummer found wide receiver Rob Moore for a two-yard touchdown pass, staking Arizona to a 13-10 lead it would not relinquish. Touchdown drives on consecutive possessions early in the fourth quarter culminated in a nine-yard touchdown pass to tight end Johnny McWilliams and a two-yard rush by running back Mario Bates. Swann closed the deal with 1:57 to play when he grabbed a pass deflected by defensive end Brad Otis and rambled untended into the Giants' end zone. Card quarterback Dave Brown made his 30th career start at Giants Stadium (29 as a Giant, one as a Cardinal). He (126) and Plummer (125) virtually split Arizona's 251 passing yards.

Series Notes

One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 26-12-1 advantage in the series since 1980 and 74-39-2 overall dating to 1926 ... prior to 1999, the Giants won seven of eight meetings, including sweeps in the previous two seasons ... last year marked the Cards' first two-game sweep of the Giants since 1979 ... the Cardinals snapped a 10-game losing streak at Giants Stadium with a dramatic 10-9 victory at the Meadowlands in 1994 ... a 19-0 shutout at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992 broke the Giants' eight-game series winning streak ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game of the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14-0 halftime deficit for a 26-14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... the Giants also were the Cardinals' foe in the club's final game in St. Louis, a 27-24 Cardinal victory on December 13, 1987.

Last Meeting

December 5, 1999 - Veterans Stadium • Cardinals 21, Philadelphia 17
Quarterback Jake Plummer spun his comeback magic for the 11th time in his young career and in the fourth consecutive meeting against Philadelphia, rallying the Cardinals from a 17-7 deficit with two fourth-quarter touchdowns on consecutive possessions in the final five minutes. The late fireworks belied the Cardinal offense's day-long struggles that included just 79 total yards through three quarters and only 54 yards rushing for the day. Arizona's defense posted its third touchdown of the season late in the first quarter when free safety Kwame Lassiter abruptly ended the Eagles' opening drive that had reached Arizona's 29-yard line with a 78-yard interception return for a touchdown, his first NFL six-point play. Philadelphia scored 17 unanswered points in the second and third quarters to take command at 17-7. The resourceful Eagle offense, behind rookie quarterback Donovan McNabb, possessed the ball for 37:56 and converted 12 of 19 third-down attempts. However, Arizona's defense made a pivotal third-quarter takeaway (Simeon Rice sack and fumble caused, Rob Fredrickson fumble recovery) at the Cards' 19-yard line that prevented the Eagles from pulling away. The late dramatics were the work of two long Cardinal drives and a three-and-out defensive stop in Eagle territory in between. Wide receiver David Boston ended the first scoring drive (16 plays, 80 yards) with a leaping four-yard reception in the end zone with 4:55 to play. After stopping Philadelphia, a brief series that included a deflected third-down pass by tackle Eric Swann that McNabb caught for a six-yard loss, Plummer drove the Cards 69 yards in eight plays, highlighted by a 38-yard strike to wide receiver Frank Sanders to the Eagles' six-inch line with 59 seconds to play. Plummer sneaked for the winning touchdown on the next play. The victory awarded Arizona its first same-season four-game winning streak since 1984, its first four-game NFC Eastern Division winning streak since 1984, and its first three-game home-field winning stretch since 1983.

Series Notes

The 104-game series dates to 1935 with the Cards nursing a narrow 52-50-2 by virtue of their current five-game series winning streak ... prior to 1999, the teams split six of the previous nine years (1990-91, '93-94, '96-97) ... Philadelphia swept both contests in 1992 and '95 ... the Cardinals took both contests the past two seasons, including the past three encounters by margins of 3, 4, and 1 points ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the 1940s ... the Chicago Cardinals edged the Eagles 28-21 at frozen Comiskey Park on December 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7-0 victory at Shibe Park in Philadelphia on December 16 to earn the 1948 crown.

Last Meeting

December 27, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 16, San Diego 13
Chris Jacke's walk-off, game-winning field goal for the third consecutive week capped quarterback Jake Plummer's ninth fourth-quarter comeback in his 26th NFL game to propel the Cardinals into postseason play for the first time since 1982 (1975 in a non-strike season) with their first winning season in 14 years (9-7 in 1984). The postseason berth also ended the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years. Cardinal free safety Kwame Lassiter started in the defensive struggle with four interceptions, equalling the NFL record shared with 16 others, including Cardinals Jerry Norton (twice, 1950, '61) and Bob Nussbaumer (1949). Lassiter finished the season with an NFC-leading eight pickoffs. Defensive end Simeon Rice recovered a Charger fumble. San Diego's staunch league-leading defense limited the Cards to just two field goals off the five turnovers while frustrating Arizona into a season-low 25 rushing yards. The Chargers' misfiring offense produced a late 10-play, 68-yard drive, culminating with a 30-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Craig Whelihan to wide receiver Ryan Thelwell on fourth-and-20 with the Cardinals just one defensive stop away from their playoff berth, to tie the game with 16 seconds remaining. Kick returner Eric Metcalf, a former Charger, gave Plummer and Jacke their window of opportunity by returning San Diego's ensuing kickoff 46 yards to the Chargers' 44-yard line with eight seconds remaining. Plummer hit wide receiver Frank Sanders with a quick 10-yard completion to the Chargers' 34-yard line. Timeout was called with three seconds to play. Jacke drilled his third field goal of the game, a 52-yarder and his 14th career game-winner. The victory was the Cardinals' seventh by three points or less, an NFL single-season record. Sanders' eight receptions for 106 yards, his fifth 100-yard game of the season, raised his season total to an NFC-best 89 catches. Arizona was penalized just twice for only nine yards, the lowest totals in 31 (two at Cincinnati, Aug. 31, 1997) and 54 (nine yards at Minnesota, Nov. 12, 1995) games, respectively.

Series Notes

The Cards and Chargers have met eight times during regular-season play dating to 1971 with San Diego holding a 6-2 advantage ... the Chargers won the first two meetings at Jack Murphy Stadium by scores of 20-17 in 1971 and 43-24 in 1976 ... after the Cards posted a 44-14 triumph in St. Louis in 1983, San Diego swept the next four encounters with a 28-24 home-field victory in 1987, victories of 24-13 in 1989 and 27-21 in 1992—both at Sun Devil Stadium—and a 28-25 win at San Diego in 1995 ... In the most recent meeting, the Cardinals' 16-13 win in the 1998 season finale propelled them into postseason play for the first time since 1982 (1975 in a non-strike season) with their first winning season in 14 years (9-7 in 1984) ... the postseason berth also ended the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years.

Last Meeting

September 27, 1999 • Sun Devil Stadium • S.F. 24, Cardinals 10

The Cardinals dug an early hole for the third consecutive week in their first appearance on ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football" in four years. The first three of four Arizona turnovers proved pivotal. San Francisco capitalized on the first two turnovers in the early going—muffed punt by David Boston, pass interception of Jake Plummer—to tally two short-field touchdowns (four plays/37 yards, one play/11 yards) in the first quarter. Then just before halftime, the Cards were poised to cut into the 49ers' advantage when wide receiver Frank Sanders lumbled a five-yard completion from Plummer at San Francisco's one-yard line, ending a promising 12-play, 84-yard drive. The Cardinals clawed to within 17-10 late in the third quarter on a 43-yard Chris Jacke field goal and a six-play, 34-yard drive that running back Mario Bates capped with a one-yard leap into the end zone. San Francisco running back Lawrence Phillips cracked Arizona's packed defense for a 68-yard touchdown burst with 1:42 to play to ice the outcome. The contest marked the third consecutive game Arizona committed four turnovers. It also was the first time in six straight regular-season games the outcome was decided by more than three points. Wide receiver Andy McCullough, the 1999 World Bowl most valuable player, made his first NFL reception, a 31-yarder.

Series Notes

The 49ers hold an 11-9 advantage in the series that lists only 20 meetings since 1951 ... after the Cards evened the series at nine wins apiece with a 24-14 victory at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992. San Francisco regained the lead with a 28-14 win at Candlestick Park in 1993 ... the Cards' one-point victory over the 49ers in 1988 was a come-from-behind effort after facing a 23-0 deficit in the second half ... the Cardinals are 4-5 at home against the 49ers and 2-1 in Arizona.

September 13, 1998 • Kingdome • Seattle 33, Cardinals 14

Interception returns for touchdowns by both Seattle cornerbacks—Willie Williams (28 yards) and Shawn Springs (56 yards)—and a 72-yard pass interference-aided touchdown drive propelled the Seahawks to a 33-14 victory. Cardinal statistical advantages in total yards (274-244), first downs (17-16), passing yards (163-121), and third-down efficiency (33-27 percent) belied the final score. The verdict was never in doubt when Seattle raced to a 20-0 halftime lead on a first-possession field goal by former Cardinal Todd Peterson. Williams' pickoff and return on the Cards' next possession, the 72-yard drive that included a 41-yard pass interference flag at the Cards' four-yard line on Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams leading to the first of two Seahawk offensive touchdowns two plays later, and another Peterson field goal on the first half's final play, Seattle's defense successfully pressured Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer throughout the game, forcing three interceptions and seven sacks. Running back Adrian Murrell tallied his first Cardinal touchdown and the first of the season against the Seahawks at 9:37 of the third quarter, a four-yard end run to cap a nine-play, 62-yard drive. The Cards also dented the scoreboard when tight end Chris Gedney grabbed Plummer's first touchdown pass of the season, a 23-yarder, with 4:07 to play. Fullback Larry Centers caught seven passes, his highest total in his past 13 games. Defensive tackle Eric Swann, cornerback Tom Knight, and outside linebacker Jamir Miller each posted a sack.

Series Notes

The Cardinals have been defeated just once in six outings against Seattle, a 33-14 loss to the Seahawks in the Kingdome in 1998 ... Card victories have come by scores of 30-24 in 1976, 33-28 in 1983, 34-24 in 1989, and overtime triumphs of 30-27 in 1993 and 20-14 in 1995 ... in preseason play, the Seahawks hold an 9-3 advantage, most recently a 41-7 win last August in the Kingdome.

Last Meeting

December 12, 1999 • FedEx Field • Washington 28, Cardinals 3

Washington dispatched the Cardinals with relative ease at the nation's capital. A stymied Cardinal offense, held without a touchdown for the third time in 1999, recorded just nine first downs and 173 total yards (120 passing, 53 rushing), including 36 yards, 2 first downs, and a 5:49 time of possession in the second half when four of its five possessions lasted three plays or less. The unit also committed four turnovers (three interceptions, one fumble) in the Redskins' second three-interception outing of 1999 against Arizona. Card quarterback Jake Plummer, who was sacked five times (-27 yards), suffered through his fourth game of the season with three or more interceptions. Defensively, Arizona was stung by Washington's relentless rushing attack that posted 226 of the Redskins' 406 total yards, led by running back Stephen Davis' 37-carry, 189-yard day, the former the second highest total in history by a Cardinal opponent, the latter the most individual rushing yards against Arizona since current Card and then-N.Y. Jet Adrian Murrell's 31-carry, 199-yard effort on Oct. 27, 1996. Davis set the game's tone on Washington's first possession when he burst through the right side of the Redskins' offensive line and ran untouched for a 50-yard touchdown. Cardinal kicker Chris Jacke cut the deficit to 7-3 with a 31-yard field goal late in the first quarter. After the Redskins padded their advantage to 14-3 on a seven-yard second-quarter touchdown pass from quarterback Brad Johnson to wide receiver Irving Fryar, the Cards' Mario Bates returned the ensuing kickoff a career-long 68 yards to Washington's 27-yard line. Seven plays later, the Cards elected to accept a 10-yard penalty against Washington instead of another Jacke field goal (36 yards), but two plays later on a snap from the Redskin seven-yard line, Plummer was intercepted in the end zone by Washington cornerback Champ Bailey, his fourth pickoff of the season against Arizona. Wide receiver Frank Sanders failed to catch a pass for the first time since the final game of his 1995 rookie season, ending his streak of 60 consecutive games with receptions.

Series Notes

Prior to Washington's sweep of both contests last year, the Cardinals had won nine of the past 10 meetings, including sweeps in 1993, '94, '96, and '98 ... Washington still has won 33 of the past 48 games dating to 1937 in the all-time series it leads 63-41-1 ... prior to the '93 sweep, the last time the Cardinals defeated the Redskins twice in the same season was 1974 ... the Cards' victory in the first 1993 meeting, a 17-10 triumph, was their first success at RFK Stadium since 1978 following 14 consecutive losses ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988, a 30-21 win September 25, was their first home-field success in Arizona and snapped a seven-game Redskins series winning streak ... Washington then won eight of the next nine encounters.

Wide receiver Billy Gambrell was a key cog in the Cardinals' offense during the 1960s when they won 12 of 17 meetings against the Washington Redskins.

SUN DEVIL STADIUM

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "between the buttes."

Super Bowl XXX was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a unique setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 2000 will be 73,014. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made since the Cardinals arrived in 1988.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected seven years ago by Arizona State's six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

The playing field was named Frank Kush Field in 1996 to honor the legendary former Arizona State University head coach who also served as head coach of the NFL Indianapolis Colts from 1982–84.

Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's 1988 arrival in Arizona.

TRAINING FACILITY

2000

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions. ☀

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has won numerous architectural and landscape awards since it became the team's home in 1990.

TRAINING CAMP

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations, and the excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) for the team's preseason training camp.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. (On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.)

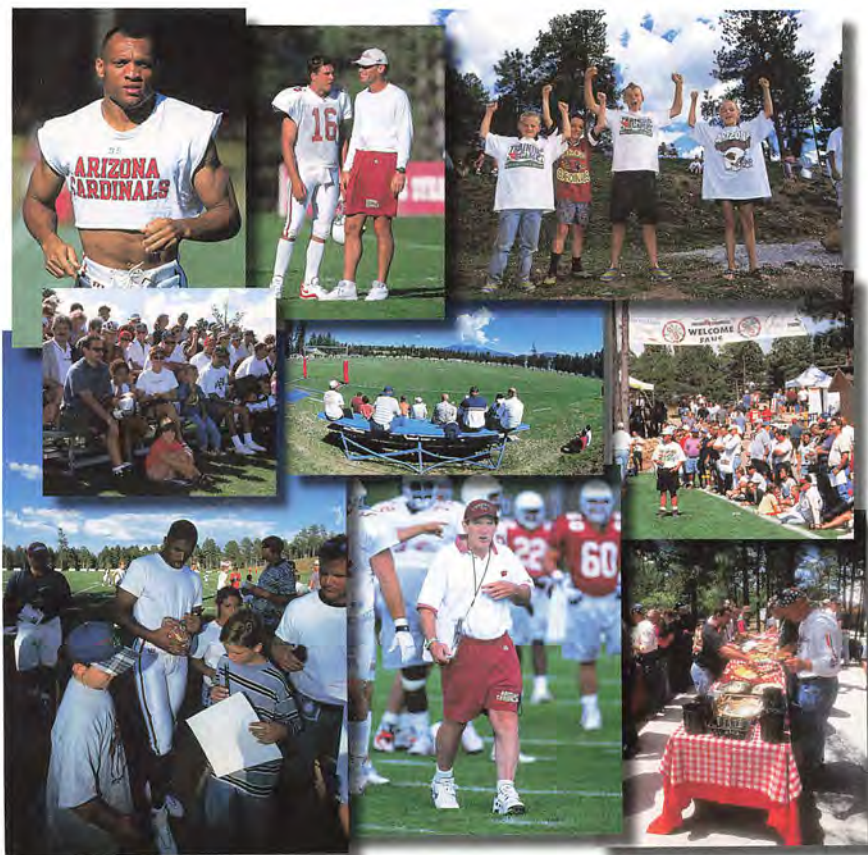

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the United States. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as a unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 14,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

The Cardinals situate at the south end of the N.A.U. campus, utilizing the school's dormitories, dining halls, and classroom buildings for their daily regimen.

CARDINAL BROADCASTING

2000

Cardinals' broadcasting was enhanced during the 2000 off-season when they affiliated with FOX-TV (channel 10, Phoenix), FOX Sports Net Arizona, and Spanish-language KPHX Radio to complement their existing relationship with KDUS/KSLX Radio.

FOX 10

The Cardinals and FOX 10 reached a two-year broadcast marketing agreement that includes local television rights to the team's non-network preseason games.

In addition to preseason (live or tape delay) game telecasts, FOX 10 will air a minimum of 20 half-hour team-themed Cardinal shows entitled "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel" at noon each Saturday, a Cardinal segment in its "Sunday Sports Night" program for the 20 weeks of the football season, a presence each Friday on "Arizona Morning" for 10 weeks during the fall, and produce a 30-minute Cardinal preseason special.

FOX 10 will receive promotional considerations from the Cardinals that includes Sun Devil Stadium (plaza, scoreboard messages, video board, banners, etc.) visibility, team publications, and designation as a presenting sponsor for the Cardinals Kickoff Luncheon and Cardinal Charities Dinner and Auction.

"Maximum Cardinals By Alltel"

"Maximum Cardinals by Alltel" will be presented as a 30-minute program for avid Cardinal fans, complete with a look and feel unlike any other program on television. The program, hosted by Gina Salazar and featuring NFL Films footage and music serving as cornerstones, will include a "Film Session" segment, exclusive behind the scenes footage, and in-depth features on Cardinal players, coaches, and personnel.

FOX Sports Net

FOX Sports Net (FSN) will offer a weekly news show, consistent news updates every night during the season, and rebroadcasts of team-controlled preseason games.

The cable network will dedicate its new 7 p.m. regional news show "11 P.M. Regional Sports Report" to the Cardinals each Tuesday, subtitled the program "Cardinals Insider." FSN also will air delayed telecasts of the team's three non-network preseason games and "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel" that will precede FOX Sports Net's "NFL This Morning" each Sunday.

Cardinal Radio

KDUS (1060 AM), a.k.a. "The Deuce," and KSLX (100.7 FM) continue broadcasting all Cardinals games home and away.

Play-by-play voice Tom Dillon and color analyst John Mistler return to form the broadcast team. Dillon is a 17-time Arizona sportscaster-of-the-year, Mistler a former NFL (N.Y. Giants) and college (Arizona State) wide receiver.

Extensive pre-game coverage begins from the KDUS studio with the one-hour "Kickoff Show on the Deuce" with Russ Bliss and Evan Andeen. "Cardinals' Pre-Game Huddle," also one hour, features former NFL quarterback Dan Manucci and Jeff Kennedy and leads into the game broadcast.

Following "Cardinals Post-Game Wrap-Up," KDUS airs one hour of "Cardinals Talk" followed by a one-hour Bliss-hosted fan call-in show.

Spanish Radio

KPHX Radio (1480 AM) describes the games in Spanish, making the Cardinals the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games—preseason and regular season, home and road—in Spanish.

Gabriel Trujillo offers play-by-play.

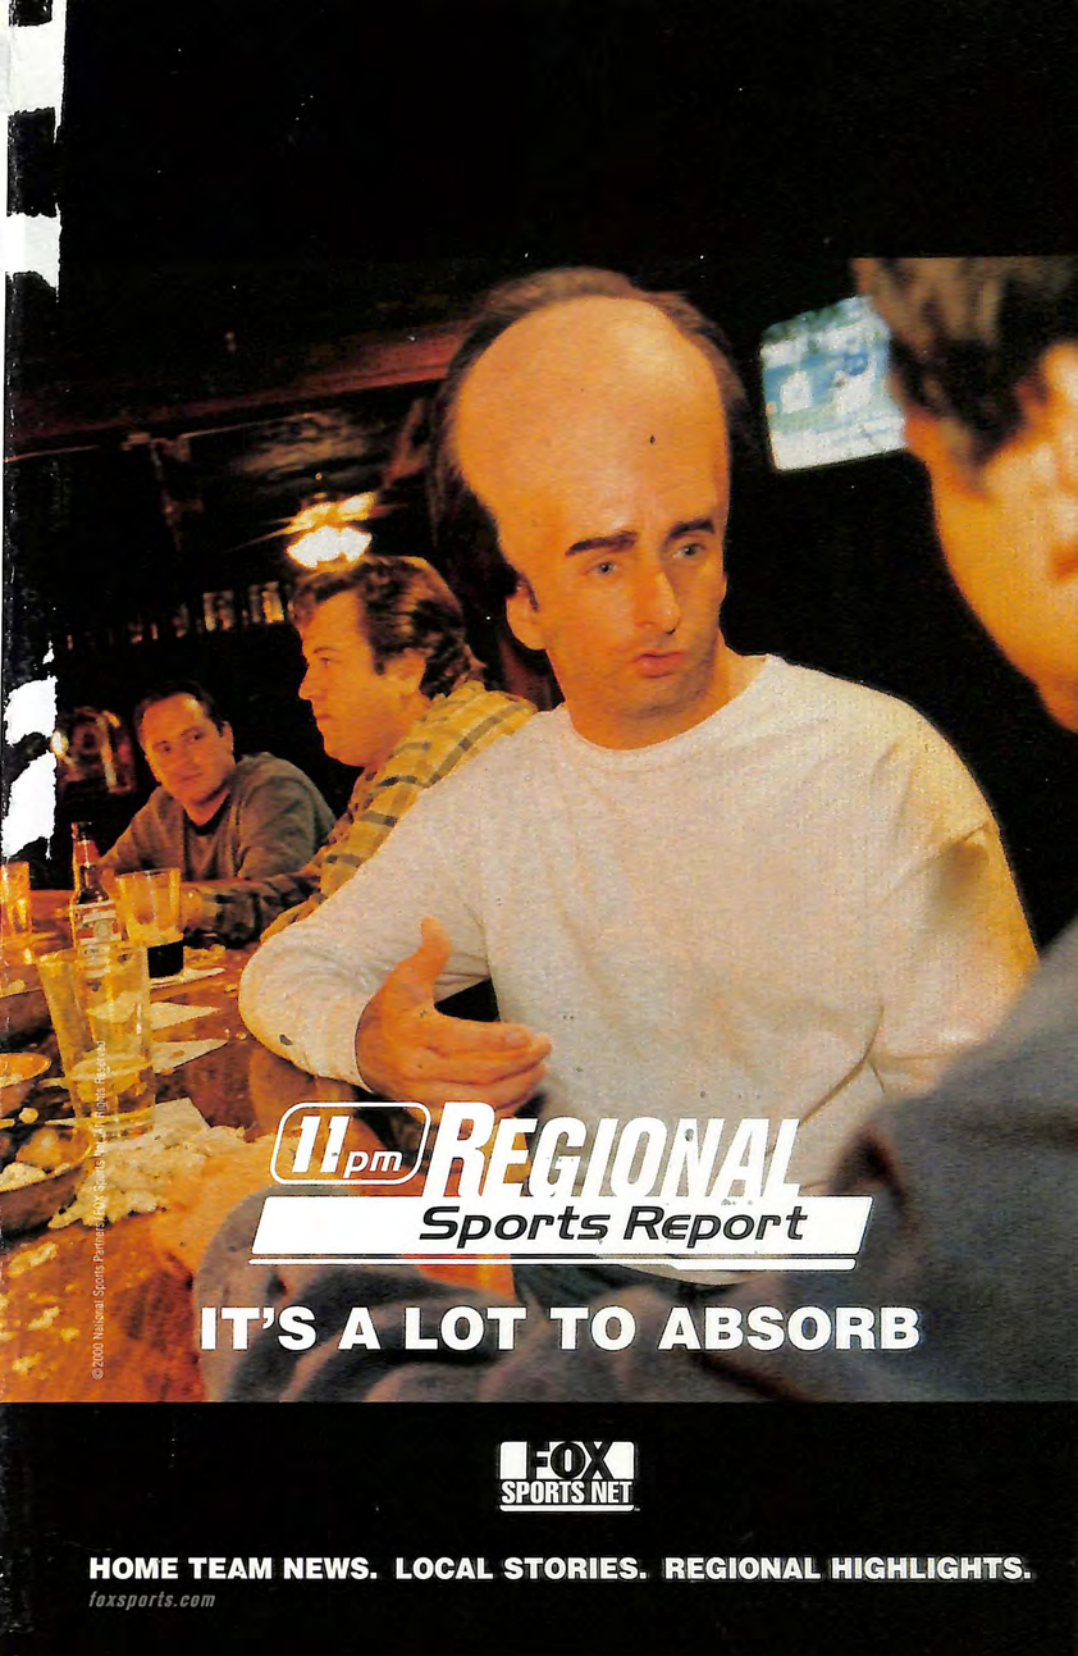

Preseason Television

The Cards' 2000 preseason games, excluding the ESPN-televised August 18 game at Minnesota, will be described by the two newest members of the Cardinals broadcast team—Barry Tompkins (play-by-play) and Doug Plank (color analyst).

Tompkins, a familiar West Coast broadcaster, previously described San Diego and Oakland preseason telecasts. He also has announced Pac-10 Conference football and basketball games, numerous boxing matches, and two Super Bowls on radio.

Plank, a Valley resident and former Chicago Bear safety (1975–82), also serves as the television color analyst for the Arena Football League's Arizona Rattlers.

Plank will be seen on featured segments of "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel," too.
